

New Heads Are Named by Clubs

Women's club activities over the week-end included election of officers by three organizations. A number of elections also are scheduled for the coming week.

Officers were elected by the Indianapolis Alumnae Club of Kappa Alpha Theta. Theta at a meeting Saturday afternoon at the home of Miss Elizabeth Bertermann, 5881 Washington Boulevard. Mrs. John Paul Radegonde was named president, and delegate to the national convention of the sorority, this summer in Estes Park, Colo. Mrs. C. C. Binkley is the alternate.

Other officers chosen are:

Mrs. Frank Levinson, vice-president; Mrs. Lois Connor, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Charles Farmer, recording secretary; Miss Bertermann, treasurer; Mrs. Earl A. Heasler, corresponding editor; Miss Elizabeth Horner, publicity chairman; Misses Virginia Kingsbury and Helen DeGrief, social service chairmen.

It was announced that Mrs. Betty Locke Hamilton, Greencastle, a founder, will attend the state luncheon Saturday at the Claypool.

Mrs. Fox Is P. E. O. Head

Election of officers was held by chapter P. of the P. E. O. Sisterhood, at a luncheon meeting Saturday at the home of Mrs. David E. Fox, 4240 Rolland road. Mrs. David E. Fox was chosen president. Other officers are:

Mesdames Verda Mayer, vice-president; A. W. McDonald, treasurer; E. C. Michaels, recording secretary; Edward J. Piro, corresponding secretary; Charles F. Piro, captain, and H. E. Cunningham, guard.

Delegates to the state convention in June in Valparaiso will be Mrs. Fox and Mrs. Harry B. Myers, with Mrs. B. Scott Goodwin and Mrs. William C. Gardner as alternates. Mrs. James F. Hall was named delegate to the local P. E. O. council.

Mrs. White, U. C. T. President

Woman's auxiliary to Indianapolis Council No. 4, Order of United Commercial Travellers, elected Mrs. G. T. White president at the annual Saturday night at the Woman's Department Clubhouse. Other officers chosen were:

Mrs. Verne O. Shultz, vice-president; Miss Edna Gardner, secretary; Mrs. Virgil W. Hunter, treasurer; and Mrs. George Hunter, Mrs. John Johns and Mrs. Harry Maxwell, members.

Mrs. Hunter and Mrs. Sainter were appointed delegates to the state convention and Mrs. Harvey Dodge and Mrs. George Stacey alternates.

Mrs. Alex Rumpf and Mrs. H. A. Henderson were accepted as new members.

Dr. Edwards to Speak

Dr. David M. Edwards will speak on "Isolation Versus Co-operation" Tuesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick T. Holliday in Crow's Nest. This is the second of a series of Lenten lectures being given by Dr. Edwards, executive secretary of the Indiana Council on International Relations, under the auspices of the council.

Amigos Will Meet

Amigos Club will hold its weekly meeting at 8:15 tonight at the home of W. J. Ford, 28 Hendricks place. James Salladay, president, will preside.

Sorority to Meet

Alpha chapter, Phi Tau Delta sorority, will meet at 8:30 Friday night at the home of Mrs. Wilma Summer's mother in Bridgeport.
