M'Cann Names Lineup for First Exhibition

Fred Bedore to Perform at Hot Corner With Rookie Lowell at First and Cooney in Outfield; Five Tribesmen Still Holdouts.

BY EDDIE ASH
Times Sports Editor

SARASOTA, Fla., March 8.—After tipping the lid with a brief practice game on Monday between a divided squad of Indians, Manager Emmett M'Cann looked his Tribe partisans over today and selected the lineup to send against the world champion St. Louis Cardinals here Thursday to open the spring training exhibition schedule.

It will be a mixture of regulars and rookies, the big idea being to have some strength on the field as well as put a few of the youngsters to the test. Three pitchers will be used. All new men—Thomas, Logan and Jones, graduates from Oklahoma City of the Western League. Thomas and Jones are right-handers and Logan tosses the sphere in southpaw fashion.

In the absence of a regular third-sacker, Fred Bedore, utility star, will play the hot corner and lead off. He will serve for Yoder and Kroner, both holdouts. Fred has rounded into great shape and won't have any trouble filling the bill.

Ed Lowell, young first baseman, will bat second and may be relieved by either Manager M'Cann or Ernie Wingard before the struggle is concluded. The complete tentative starting lineup follows:

Bedore, 3b; Lowell, 1b; Walker, cf; Angles, 2b; Cooney, lf; White, ss; Thomas, Logan and Jones, p.

Five Still Holdouts.
The Hoosiers returned to the double drill routine today, and the same program will be followed Wednesday. On Thursday the players slated to start in the game against the Cardinals will be exercised from morning practice, but the others will go through with the regular work.

There is no information concerning the holdout brigade, now reduced to five members—Yoder, Kroner, Miller, Burwell and Heving. The club bosses still are willing to negotiate with all but Burwell, who has been tagged for a change of scenery.

Allen Seeks Hurlers.
Bob Allen, president of the Knoxville team of the Southern Association, was in Sarasota today giving the Tribesmen the once over and it is said he stands ready to take a few athletes off the hands of Owner Norman Perry.

Five athletes were optioned to Allen during the winter and he seems to think he can handle several more, especially pitchers. At any rate, his presence in camp was the means of creating some nervousness on the part of the rookies and among the holdouts who are in town.

DEMPSEY STOPS TWO

By United Press

COLUMBUS, O., March 8.—Jack Dempsey knocked two more comparatively unknown youngsters kicking here Monday night. With a goodly crowd looking on, the old manna mauler knocked out Johnny Chick, 200, Charlotte, N. C., in 2:17 with a left to the jaw, and then put away Eddie Anderson, 206, Baltimore, in 2:14 with the same punch.

$1,884 RECORD SET

By United Press

NEW ORLEANS, La., March 8.—Another grand slam was made in the daily double pool at the Casino Monday when Run On and Uncle Charlie took the first and second races respectively, and the lone plunger who had a $2 ticket on the combination won $1,884.40. The payoff exceeded the previous record of $1,717.20 set on Feb. 24.

Spring Training Chatter

By United Press

ST. MYERS, Fla.—Roy Mahaffey was given credit today for the Philadelphia Athletics' 4-to-2 victory over the world champion St. Louis Cardinals.

Monday, Mahaffey pitched three innings and allowed the Cards to score two hits. Tex Carleton was the standout pitcher for the Cards, holding the American Leaguers to two scratch hits in three innings.

Lew Krause and Joe Bowman also performed well on the Cards' slab. Bud Teachout was hammered for three runs in the first inning by the Athletics.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex.—Manager Lew Fonseca has finally called a halt to his "rest cure" plans and so today the Chicago White Sox will engage in their first intra-camp practice game.

The Sox' spring exhibition game is scheduled for March 17.

PASO ROBLES, Cal.—The Pittsburgh Pirates were to resume practice games today after a rest because of general soreness of the entire squad and an injury suffered by infielder Floyd Young. Young suffered a badly bruised finger while taking a hot grounder at third base. Pie Traynor, regular, was expected to take that position today.

BLOOMINGTON, Miss.—President Clark Griffith of the Washington Senators has issued an ultimatum to Heinie Manush, telling him not to report to the training camp until he is ready to sign at the terms offered him earlier in the year.

CLEARWATER, Fla.—Hack Wilson hit two home runs in today's practice game of the Brooklyn Dodgers. The homers came in successive turns.

But Vance and Hoyt divided the pitching for the regulars and limited the Yanni-camp team to one hit. A single by Pichnich, off Vance's delivery, won't play for the substitute nine, and Johnny Frederick, signed outfielder, signed contracts today, each player accepting a cut in salary. Babe Herman now is the only holdout.

NEW ORLEANS.—Shortstop, for years the weakest position on the Cleveland Indians' team, may be ruled by a Salt Lake City sandlotter. The Utah boy, Seymour Drobny by name, wandered into the camp Monday and amazed all concerned with his ability.

Vincennes Alices—Backboard's Choice in Hoosier Cage Derby

HERE they are—the Vincennes Alices, choice of Off the Backboard, Times' basketball columnist, in twenty-three starts during the 1932 campaign.

Martinsville was the only quintet to twice subdue the downstate five. Three of the defeats came in the first four games and two of them were avenged in later starts.

Miller and Metz are the varsity forwards. Both pass the six foot mark. Miller is a smooth floor-warrior who can be counted on for his share of the points. Metz is the chief scoring threat, and was picked by The Times as one of Hoosierland's six best prep forwards.

Fred Walker, the husky floor guard, in addition to being a stellar defensive pastime, is the player who keeps his mates on the hustle and an accurate passer.

Scott is a "find" at backguard, developing rapidly after replacing Ealy, the 1931 regular. He proved his defensive merit by checking Lee Roy Edwards, big Tech center, when the Alices tripped the Campbellmen.

The center job belongs to Glass, a veteran and steady performer, but Gray is a valuable reserve who has seen much action, due to his six feet six inches of height.

Little is an accurate basket flipper who has seen much service this season. One of the chief assets of the Vincennes club is its reserve strength—Ealy, Glass and Little.

Others are height—all but Little being near or over the six foot mark—and speed, which is present in abundance.

Next Saturday, the Alices play at Sullivan, where their chief worry is

Local Pro Advances

By Times Special

MIAMI, Fla., March 8.—Neal McIntyre, Indianapolis pro, and Harry Hampton, Chicago pro, playing together in the $5,000 international four-ball golf championship, scored another upset Monday when they defeated Willie MacFarlane and Whiffy Cox, New York pros, 3 and 2.

The Cox-MacFarlane downfall was not the only upset of the day. Walter Hagen and his partner Paul Bryan, national P. G. A. champion, bowed to Billy Burke, national open champion, and Johnny Golden, Norton, Conn.

McIntyre and Hampton battled Burke and Golden in one of the semi-final matches today while Gene Sarazen and Johnny Farrell played Tommy Armour and Ed Dudley in the other tilt, with the finals carded for Wednesday.

PARK TO OPEN DRILL.
Lou Reichel, Park school athletic director, hoped today to issue the first call for diamond candidates to report Wednesday.

Five veterans, Cline, Rhoads, Everly, Rubush and Sommers, form the nucleus for the 1932 nine.

Tribesmen Open Action

Fitzgerald, Sigafos Shine at Bat, and Berly, Prince on Mound.

SARASOTA, Fla., March 8.—The storm that struck the Florida west coast the last week-end dwindled to a stiff breeze Monday and Emmett M'Cann's Indians were able to take regular morning and afternoon drill along with a "scrub" contest.

The tilt developed into a red-hot battle with the Gulls defeating the Pelicans, 6 to 6, in five innings.

A large audience turned out for the free affair, and the athletes extended themselves.

Fitzgerald Ray Fitzgerald was top hitter of the afternoon, with two doubles and a single, and he was pressed for swatting laurels by Frank Sigafos, with three one-base wallops. Fitzgerald performed with the winning Gulls and Sigafos operated at second for the Pelicans.

Ed Lowell also was outstanding for the Gulls with a triple and single although he was chased by balls when he was in the field.

John Berly looked great on the mound after getting away to a poor start, and Bill Prince also cut loose with a dazzling assortment. Prince was bothered by a sore arm during the early days of spring training, and Monday was his best day in camp.

Paul Jones and Leslie Barnhart, other leaders in the practice fray, failed to live up to advance notices. Barnhart was bumped for six runs in one inning when the Gulls started a wild rally and Jones experienced rough going when the Pelicans landed on him in the fifth and sixth.

Curt Walker, the veteran fly chaser, with only one day of practice, fatted for the Gulls with a double and a single, scoring two mates. Ernie Fitzgerald, pitcher and utility slugger, appeared at first base for the Gulls and played in his usual style by poling a single and double.

Johnny Cooney, another versatile Indian, convinced Manager M'Cann he is at home in the garden and as a result will be seen chasing fly balls when the Hoosiers collide with the Cardinals Thursday. Cooney was purchased for found service. But just at present will be numbered with the outfielders.

A wire received from Harry Rosenberg, outfielder, said he would not reach Sarasota until the end of the week. He accepted terms.

For instance, when Jeffersonville gets humbled by New Albany in the sectional, Jeffersonville immediately sets up a long and loud howl. A front-page editorial is wheeled into action, and the barrage directed at "Lil' Arthur, New Albany and anybody else who happens to get in the way.

"The best team didn't win," the crime starts. And that's where Lil' Arthur comes in for his baptism of fire. He gave the sectional to New Albany. Of course, the board of control awarded all the tournament honors to the winners.

And New Albany—well, the fans down there are terrible, the world is informed by the front-page editorial. They make a much noise, and the wrong kind at that, and the effect on the Jeffersonville team was that they folded up in A-1 fashion.

According to Washington, Mr. Springer's office is being asked to get a private organization—one like the I. H. S. A. A. for instance, which is an organization of high school principals? Dissatisfied members should object.

Washington also voiced its complaint early. The Hatchets officials didn't like the naming of Irvin Springer of Evansville to the fourth annual Hoosier regional, where Mr. Bird's Friddle's have won seven in a row. What other Washington teams have done, the 1931-32 season.

"I might remind EGB that every day has day, and in the next breath appointee to Mr. John Adams, his Alices and every body in Vincennes for being forced to call upon the casino to provide a place for the Hoosier regional.

"Mr. Trester investigated. Mr. Springer had been highly recommended by some southern school. Washington is the only team complaining against his officiating. Some of the Hoosier regional coaches even have urged his selection as referee. Mr. Trester will get a first hand report on this matter.

"Mr. E. B. Broutlette, the Washington referee, is turned out by many. Many times, 'Vincennes has won many times from Washington since 1924. The Hatchets have won seven in a row. What other Washington teams have done, the 1931-32 season.

"I AM wondering what that little guy is thinking about now—this one who bet old Backboard 1 to 25 that Alexandria would win the state way back in December, shifted his allegiance to Anderson in February, and paid off his bet without a yelp? Maybe he'd like a refund, but I think he might as well forget it. I think these Alexandria boys are going to play Tech next Saturday.

Stendal, one of the four teams in the Sullivan regional, has turned in two great seasons, even though there is no gym in the town. Muncie should take a good look at that Stendal team before they go for the final game of the Newcastle sectional in tumbler, 54 to 9, which indicates Stendal is a team to watch.

Some big guy at Shelbyville touched off in that Shelbyville-Columbus sectional final game, and the players and fans thought the game was over. It took several minutes to clear the floor and renew action. Fortunately, Columbus was so far in front that the incident had no real effects. Kokomo fans are scanning the rule books. The Kokomo scribes reported tournament officials would use the rules in Spaulding's guide, which recommends that when two teams are deadlocked at the end of two overtime periods, the first team scoring two points wins the game.
