

FOUR NABBED IN SPEEDWAY CITY GANG WARFARE

Quartet Is Questioned on Slaying of Alleged Legger Week Ago.

Four men are prisoners today following a two-day gang fight in Speedway City, believed by authorities to have some connection with the slaying of a week ago of Elijah Carpenter, Negro, alleged bootlegger, and the serious wounding of James Owens.

Those held are Ernest Voight, and his brother, Herman, both of Tenth street and High School road, and Darrell and Byron Garrigus, 4255 South State avenue. A fifth man, Bud Wheeler, escaped in an automobile after two shots were fired at him by Bonnie Whiteley, town marshal of Speedway City.

Two shotguns and a piece of gas pipe said to belong to the prisoners were seized by authorities.

Run War Hinted

Trouble started in Speedway City Wednesday night, according to the Garrigus brothers, when Wheeler was beaten, supposedly the result of a quarrel over liquor traffic which followed the slaying of Carpenter.

Darrell Garrigus, claiming to be a milk wagon driver, said he and his brother went to Speedway City Thursday to demand an explanation from the Voight brothers, whom they suspected of attacking Wheeler, who accompanied them on the trip in a large automobile owned by Darrell.

Ernest Voight, following his arrest late Thursday afternoon, said he encountered the Garrigus brothers and Wheeler in front of a poolroom and was attacked. He said the other men had shotguns and a piece of pipe and that he wrested the latter from Darrell Garrigus and struck him. He said his brother, Herman, did not reach the scene until after the fight had ended.

Familiar With Slaying

Whiteley took a hand as hostilities waned and shot at Wheeler, who ran through a restaurant to an automobile in which he fled. Deputy sheriffs say that one of the Garrigus brothers asked about the condition of Owens and apparently was familiar with details of the slaying of Carpenter.

Ernest Voight is held on charges of assault and battery and vagrancy, under bond of $5,000, and the Garrigus brothers, charged with carrying weapons and with vagrancy, are under $1,000 bond each. Bond of Herman Voight, charged with vagrancy, is $1,000.

LONELIEST COUPLE IS FOUND IN SCOTLAND

Shepherd and Wife Cut Off From World by Impassable Bog.

NEWTON STEWART, Scotland, March 18.—The world's loneliest couple, a shepherd and his wife, live in a desolate stone hut a few miles from here.

Their primitive habitation is located on the hills of Galloway and cut off from the world by impassable moss bogs. The inhabitants of Bargrennan, the nearest village, know the couple still are alive only by the weekly visits of a weather-scared pony, which ambles into the village and halts at the door of the general store.

The storekeeper loads up the primitive pannier on its back and sends it off to the solitary cottage on the hillside with the week's provisions.

The pony is the only living thing that can pick its way through the deadly bogs.

THIS CONCRETE FLOATS

Bobs Up and Down Like Cork in Toronto U. Experiment.

TORONTO, Ont., March 18.—A block of concrete floated on water, bobbing up and down like a cork, at the school of practical science, University of Toronto, recently, when Professor G. R. Anderson carried out an unusual experiment.

Known as cellular concrete, this floating stone was made on a system, analogous to raising of bread with yeast.

The cement, gravel, water and sand, were put into a mixer and a carbon dioxide forming chemical was added.

The cement then set into a hard porous substance lighter than wood. Professor Anderson says it has remarkable resistance to sound.

BRITAIN FEARS LOSS OF PLACE AS AIR POWER

Empire Now Fifth in Rank and May Be Passed by Yugoslavia.

LONDON, March 18.—British aeronautical authorities are much concerned over Great Britain's increasingly inferior position as an air power, as revealed by armaments statistics, which most of the nations have submitted to the League of Nations for consideration.

A study of these statistics shows that Great Britain now is fifth in numerical air strength and is rapidly being overhauled, even by Yugoslavia.

It is believed, however, that Great Britain's numerical inferiority is considerably offset by the exceptionally high standard of her air force personnel and the superiority of her types of pursuit planes to those of most of the other nations.

Statistics submitted to the league by the various nations show their relative strength in first-line aircraft and their total strength with all reserves.
