

RETURN BANDIT SUSPECTS FROM OHIO FOR TRIAL

Movie Theater Holdups Are Charged to Pair; Crime
Flares Over Week-End.

Two men are under arrest today charged with robbery of the Fountain Square and Granada theaters Feb. 7 when total loot of $500 was obtained.

The two, Harry Fields, 26, and Maurice O'Flaherty were brought here from Columbus, where they were nabbed.

O'Flaherty had announced his intention of resisting extradition, but with Fields being brought here Saturday, O'Flaherty gave up the fight.

Detectives say Fields has made a statement in which he asserts he was invited to come to Indianapolis by O'Flaherty to stage the robberies.

Booze Arrest Follows Crash

Captured by police after running his automobile into a tree and wrecking it at Forty-sixth street and Kessler boulevard, Sunday, Loren Bowers, 23, Negro, of 2612 Burton avenue, was accused by police of transporting a five-gallon can of alcohol in the car.

A burglar who escaped after grappling with Charles Gerard, 401 East Nineteenth street, early Sunday night, when discovered looking the home, was sought by police today.

A downtown clothing store and an east side barber shop were losers to burglars over the week-end, police reported.

Smashing a window of the Capitol Clothes Shop, 10 East Washington street, a burglar took a top coat valued at $15. Police discovered the broken window and reported to H. O. Wharton, manager of the store.

Barber Shop Looted

Razors, brushes, combs and a pair of shears, valued at $26, were stolen from the barber shop of Charles Moore, 1117 East Tenth street.

Loot valued at several hundred dollars was taken from four automobiles, police were told. A. L. McDuffie chased a Negro who stolen two robes from his automobile parked in front of McDuffie's place of business at 42 Virginia avenue.

Mrs. Philip Jassa, Muncie, reported the theft of clothing valued at $200 from her car parked at Meridian and Georgia streets.

Taxi Driver Held Up

Two overcoats were stolen from the automobile of Arnold Benson, West Lafayette, which was parked at Capitol avenue and Washington street. The coats were valued at $40.

Clothing valued at $10 was stolen from the automobile of C. W. Schuman, Logansport, parked in front of 136 North Delaware street.

Two men robbed a taxi driver, Floyd Sterrett, 1214 Bellefontaine street, of $3.35, at Washington street and Warman avenue.

Loot of $40 was obtained by a Negro when he held up M. J. Timberlake, Negro, 2505 Indianapolis avenue, in his news stand at North and Douglas streets.

CRASHES AND THEN IS ROBBED OF HIS AUTO

Ohio Man Loses Car When He Goes for Aid; Dynamite Is Mystery.

Contender for the champion hard luck story of motoring was revealed today as well as the mystery of a dynamite-laden automobile, when Miss Gladys Ramsey, Cincinnati, called local police by telephone to report theft of her father's automobile.

According to Miss Ramsey, her father was driving near Miamitown, O., early Sunday, when his car skidded from a road and overturned in a ditch. He crawled out unhurt and went in search of aid in righting his car. On his return, the car was missing. Another automobile bearing an Indiana license and containing a large quantity of dynamite, had been abandoned at the scene.

SCOUTS' APPEAL FOR CLOTHING IS RENEWED

Boys Will Collect Contributions for Poor Throughout City.

Boy Scouts of the city have collected more than 100 pairs of shoes and trousers, with overcoats, hats and other apparel in their clothing drive to aid the Red Cross and the American Legion supply the needy, F. O. Belzer, Scout executive, announced today.

The relief station is in need of almost ten thousand more articles. Persons who have donations may call Scout headquarters, Lincoln 3112, or the Red Cross relief station, Riley 2976.

Scouts will call for bundles. Out of town residents are requested to send articles by parcel post.

STOP THAT COLD

DISTRESSING cold in chest or throat—that so often leads to something serious—generally responds to good old Musterole with the first application. Should be more effective if used once every hour for five hours.

This famous blend of oil of mustard, camphor, menthol and other helpful ingredients brings relief naturally. Musterole gets action because it is a scientific "counter-irritant"—not just a salve—it penetrates and stimulates blood circulation, helps to draw out infection and pain. Used by millions for 20 years. Recommended by doctors and nurses.

To Mothers—Musterole is also made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole.

Newest in Easter Hats

Here's the newest of new in Easter bonnets—a couple of chicks. Wouldn't this panic Meridian street at churchgoing time Sunday? But, of course, Miss Eva Pitzer, in the photo, isn't really serious about this "chick" top-piece. She's just paid a visit to the Janzen-Overman hatery, 19 North Alabama street, to watch the brooder of Wyandottes waiting for the Easter trade.

Soft Boiled

By Scripps-Howard

WASHINGTON, March 21.—Meet the "soft boils" of the senate.

This is the name now being applied by senators to that group of Republicans not identified with the Borah-Norris-La Follette progressive group, sometimes called "sons of the wild jackass," or the "stand-pa" administration backers like Reed, Watson, Bingham, Moses, and Fess, or the "young guards," led by Vandenberg.

It includes Republicans like Capper, Steiwer and McNary.

GANGSTER GIVEN 'RIDE'

Chicago Hoodlum's Bullet Riddled
Body Found Beside Road.

CHICAGO, March 21.—Violence ended another gang career, when the body of Frank Battaglia, 26, four bullets in the head, was found beside a country road just southwest of the city, where a dozen gangland rides have ended in recent years.

Battaglia was known to police as a minor hoodlum and member of the "42" gang of young west side criminals.

TWO DEMANDS ARE VOICED FOR ASSEMBLY CALL

Unemployed Council, State
Representative Urge Special Session.

Two demands for a special session of the Indiana legislature were made today at the statehouse.

Committee of the unemployed council called at the office of Governor Harry G. Leslie to present a demand for a session. The Governor was absent.

It has been charged that he hesitates to convene the legislature through fear it will appropriate a million dollars for needy relief. The Governor, proclaiming "Indiana takes care of her own," repeatedly has opposed relief measures other than those now in use.

Addressed to Heads

The other demand is contained in a letter from H. H. Evans, Newcastle attorney and state representative, addressed to Ed Bush, Lieutenant Governor; Walter Myers, Speaker of the house; Lee Hartzell, senate leader, and Delph McKesson, house leader.

"As leaders of your parties," the Evans letter states, "you should call a rump-joint session of the members of the legislature to serve for two days without pay, to see if it is not possible to arrange for a special session. I suggest that such a session be called not later than the second week in April."

Tax Changes Vital

Evans says tax changes must be made "if the homes, the farms and the business houses in the state are to be saved from bankruptcy."

He assails Leslie for demanding a tax program in advance of any special session.

"We are not a rubber stamp," Evans writes. "Under the Constitution, it is unfair, unjust and illegal to demand from us a stereotyped program made up by people who don't know as much as we do about the real situation."

ARREST SIX IN NEGRO MURDER

Cops Probe Killing During Running Gun Battle.

With six persons in custody, police today are continuing an investigation of the slaying March 11 of Elijah Carpenter, Negro, alleged bootlegger, and the serious wounding of James Owens, believed the result of a hijacker feud.

Prisoners include Carl Vonwiller, 30, of 1835 North Meridian street, and Harry Pierson, 29, of 1132 North Illinois street. Others held, all Negroes, are Walter Williams, 32, 2861 Shriver avenue; his wife, Martha Williams; James Southern, 22, 916 Locke street, and George Alex, 59, of 361 West Twenty-ninth street. The arrests were made at the Shriver avenue address, home of Williams, by Sergeant Noel Jones and squad.

A newspaper containing an account of the slaying was found in a room occupied by the woman, police said.

Carpenter and Owens were riding in the former's automobile in the 5700 block West Washington street, when a hail of bullets were fired from a passing machine. Carpenter died almost instantly, but Owens survived serious wounds. Police said they found eleven gallons of alcohol in Carpenter's car.

Officers have expressed a theory that the shooting was due to a belief Carpenter sold hijacked liquor.

GLASS TO GET WORK

Golden Rule Lodge No. 3
Team to Exemplify Ritual.

Degree team of Golden Rule lodge No. 3, United Order of American Workers, will exemplify the revised ritual to a class of candidates at a meeting tonight at 116½ East Maryland street.

Following the degree work will be a social hour and the regular monthly luncheon.

Feature of the entertainment will be Rodgers dancers. In addition, there will be other singing and dancing acts. The party will be open to the public.

Members of the committee on arrangements will be Mrs. Nellie Good, Mrs. Nettie Elmore, Hyatt G. Johnson and William D. Goode.

Former Vaudeville Star Dies
By United Press

DETROIT, March 21.—Richard E. Lynch, once a well-known vaudeville star, both in this country and England, died today after an illness of several weeks. Lynch, called by George M. Cohan, "the greatest clog dancer of all time," was 63.

THREE ARE BURNED AS COTTAGE CATCHES FIRE

Gardener, Wife and Baby Injured
In Blaze at Goodman Estate.

Three persons were burned and a fireman incurred foot injuries in four fires causing more than $3,000 damages during the week-end, fire officials said today.

When a gardener's cottage at the J. A. Goodman estate, Kessler boulevard and Sunset avenue, caught fire Sunday, H. T. Smolski, the gardener, was burned on the hands, his wife on the head and face, and their daughter Susan, 2, on the body.

Lieutenant Jesse Day of Engine

House 32 cut his foot when he stepped on a broken glass jar while fighting the blaze. Damage to the cottage was estimated at $500.

Home of M. S. Schoener, 2914 Bellefontaine street, and adjoining residence of L. W. Yancey, 2910 Bellefontaine street, were damaged more than $500 as result of a roof fire at the Schoener home Sunday.

Fire in a garage in the rear of the home of K. D. Kenderson, 328 Grand avenue, Sunday afternoon, caused damage of $350.

City firemen battled nearly an hour early Sunday morning to halt a roof fire which caused $1,500 damage to the farm home of George Ebaugh, near Cumberland.
