

MYSTERY AD IS ONLY NEW HINT IN LINDY HUNT

New York 'Personal' Might Relate to Kidnaped Baby, but Probably Not.

By BATES RANEY
United Press Staff Correspondent
HOPEWELL, N. J., March 22.—A classified "personal" ad published in New York today hinted that Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh has received evidence from kidnapers of his baby, but all other sources indicated the twenty-two-day search had been futile.

Authorities declined to comment on the ad, apparently one of a series signed "Jafse," which have appeared in the New York American and Bronx Home News.

The ad read:

"Thanks. That little package you sent was immediately delivered and accepted as real article. See my position. Over fifty years in business and can I pay without seeing goods? Common sense makes me trust you. Please understand my position. Jafse."

This might be interpreted to mean the kidnapers had sent some article to Lindbergh, but were being informed he was unwilling to pay the ransom until he "saw the goods" and was convinced he would receive his own child back.

Sisters Pay Visit to Anne

A cold sleet enveloped the desolate Soudan mountain area today, making the Lindbergh home seem even more isolated than ever. A raw wind howled outside, so Mrs. Lindbergh spent most of her time at the fireside.

Monday she was visited by her sisters, the Misses Elizabeth and Constance Morrow. Constance is at home with her mother, Mrs. Dwight W. Morrow at Englewood, for the Easter holidays. She is a student at Smith college, Northampton, Mass.

All clues developed yesterday were found valueless, but investigation of one was not yet complete. It is the message found on a carrier pigeon in Connecticut, and decoded by a "local bootlegger" as reading: "All lines unsafe. Kid in yacht. Making no port. Well-trained care outside United States jurisdiction. Return bird."

It was learned the pigeon carried a 1930 registration band, and therefore was being used improperly.

Police Agencies Quarrel

Another carrier pigeon, with a cryptic message signed "Red," was found at East Stroudsburg, Pa., but proved to be a hoax thought up by boys.

A quarrel between various police agencies working on the kidnapping was indicated Monday when Elmer Eland, chief detective of Huntington county, announced the case would be presented to the grand jury April 12.

Hand criticised the "stupid barrier" placed about the Lindbergh home by state police, and said the baby would not be returned until it had been eliminated.

But Attorney-General William A. Stevens, who has charge of the case, contradicted Eland's statement regarding the grand jury.

The questioning of Henry (Red) Johnson, friend of Miss Betty Gow, the kidnaped baby's nurse, by Frank Breaux of Newark, deputy police chief, was regarded of minor significance.

Deny Help from Chicago

If the "Secret Six," a Chicago organization of business and professional men to fight crime, is helping in the Lindbergh case, police officials here refuse to admit it.

It was reported that H. Wallace Caldwell, former president of the Chicago board of education, conferred with Colonel Lindbergh and his personal representatives at the Lindbergh home Monday.

Caldwell, the report said, was representing the "Secret Six."

Colonel H. Norman Schwartzkopf, in command of New Jersey state police, when asked about the report, said:

"Police know nothing about it."
