

DIRECTOR RAPS BAN ON GANGS, SEX IN MOVIES

'Why Delete Dramatic Life Conflicts,' Asks Lubitsch, on Vacation.

BY H. ALLEN SMITH
United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK, March 25.—Present day tendencies to delete sex and gang warfare from motion pictures were criticised today by Ernst Lubitsch, Hollywood director, just before he headed for the coast "to rest up from my five-week vacation."

"The most dramatic conflicts in life are the conflicts of
sex," the little,
black-haired man
said. "The conflict of man
against woman
and woman
against man
has provided
high drama
down through the ages. Why should we close
our eyes and
dream of roses
and honey-
suckles?"

"And as for gangster pictures.
Yes, maybe it is not nice to have such things. But don't we have gangsters? If we had no gangsters, we would have no gangster pictures.
If we had no sex, we would have no sex pictures."

Lubitsch is extremely high strung, with black hair slicked across his head and darting, black eyes. He had been five weeks in New York attending parties by the dozen, riding the subways, catching up on the new plays and generally enjoying himself.

"But it is not a vacation—New York," he explained. "I have to go back to Hollywood to rest."

Lubitsch naturally takes issues with those persons who deny that the talkies are art.

Lubitsch said Greta Garbo is no
"mystery." "She is a real Swede," he said, "and I have known many Swedes. They are shy, afraid to meet people. It is natural for them to keep in the background.

"But Garbo—she has a fine sense of humor. She is pleasant company, once you get to know her.
That is the problem."

STAGE VANDALS DRIVE
Five arrests in the drive by police to halt vandalism in vacant houses were made today when police charged five youths, all minors, with vagrancy.

Arrests were made by a special vandal squad assigned two weeks ago by Police Chief Mike Morrissey, to watch vacant properties.
