

NINE ARE HURT IN CRASHES ON CITY STREETS

Driver Is Nabbed When His Auto Plunges Over Curb Into Show Window.

Nine persons were injured and a driver was arrested for drunkenness in traffic accidents on Wednesday night and early today, according to police.

John Finley, 49, of 1123 North New Jersey street, was charged with drunkenness, driving while drunk and resisting arrest after he lost control of his car and crashed through a plate glass window in the 500 block, North Capitol avenue, early today.

Police were told that Finley's car first struck a parked auto, then veered across the street, crashing into the L. Wolf Auto Company showroom.

Mrs. Clovie Nichols, 45, of the Belmont hotel, who was about to enter the parked car, was cut and bruised.

Street Car Hits Auto

Two persons were injured and four others had narrow escapes when a street car crashed into an auto driven by James McCallister, 20, of 5021 Gylford avenue, at Kenwood avenue and Thirty-fourth street, late Wednesday.

The injured were Mabel McDaniels, 21, of 4842 Winthrop avenue, and Thomas McCallister, 22, brother of the driver. They incurred body bruises.

Four women were injured in an auto crash at Emerson avenue and New York street late Wednesday. They are:

Mrs. Esther Greiner, 32, of 5329 Pleasant Run Parkway, cuts on the face and leg injuries; Mrs. Mary Bender, 63, bruises; Miss Jessie Hamphill, 25, of 20 South Butler avenue, incurs cuts and bruises, and Cecelia Sloan of the Pleasant Run address, back injuries.

Collisions Inlet Injuries

William A. Goodneck, 3010 Kenwood avenue, was injured slightly when the car he was driving crashed into one driven by Leo Dicks, 55, of 2017 Langley avenue, at Thirtieth street and Kenwood avenue.

Miss Agha Gringer, 20, of 27 South Butler avenue, incurred leg injuries in the collision of two cars at Emerson avenue and East New York street, Wednesday night.

HOTEL DRAMA TO OPEN AT APOLLO

Mystery, Death and a Lot of Stolen Money Make Up the Plot of the Latest Yarn About a Crook.

A STORY of what goes on in a hotel comes Friday to the Apollo under the name of "Hotel Continental." The producers have centered their hotel mystery drama about a famous old metropolitan hotel on the eve of the day it is to be given over to the wreckers.

The plot centers about a wallet that contains $100,000, and the interest of three different factions in the recovery of the wallet.

Theodore von Ritz, in the role of Jim Bennett, an ex-convict, is interested in the money because he hid it in one of the rooms some years before.

A gang of crooks, knowing that he will make an attempt to recover it on the last night, have planted a beautiful girl accomplice in the hotel to gain his confidence and learn where the money is hidden.

Miss Peggy Shannon has the role of Mary, the girl accomplice of the gang. Authorities, believing that Bennett, once released from prison, will make one final attempt at getting the money, have planted detectives throughout the hotel.

The story is the work of F. Hugh Herbert and Paul Perez, with continuity by Warren B. Duff. Christy Cabanne directed. Short subjects of the program include Bing Crosby in "Bill Board Girls," Ripley's "Believe It or Not" series and Movie-tone News.

Facial Contours Must Be Studied

More and more the style influence is being felt in modern eyewear. Harmony is the guiding spirit. Frames are being constructed to enhance the profile and contour of the face, especially across the eyebrow and nose. There's a style for every face. Dainty features demand finely wrought frames; while more prominent features may carry a slightly stronger motif.

25-CENT GOLF FEE URGED ON CITY COURSES

Park Superintendent Favors
Cutting Charge in Half as Depression Measure.

Request that the park board establish a golf fee of 25 cents to apply to municipal course players who start after 5 p. m., was expected to be made by A. C. Sallee, park superintendent, at the board meeting today.

The reduced fee, Sallee said, would open the courses to many who now are unable to play because of limited finances.

The fee cut would apply at Pleasant Run, South Grove and Riverside courses, where 50 cents is the daily charge. If ordered by the board, the reduction would apply to the Coffin links when the course is opened in mid-summer.

Whether any reduction will be ordered on Sarah Shank and Douglass courses, where 25-cent fees now are in effect, was problematical.

Fee slice after 5 is expected to draw thousands of golfers to the courses after working hours, particularly to South Grove, which is nearest the city.

Sallee said these players usually are able to play only nine holes or less before dark and a full fee is not justifiable.

Heretofore the board has frowned on the reduced fee plan, but under present conditions the board is expected to accept the proposal.

Radium is reported to be worth $1,500,000 an ounce at the present time.

STUTZ PLEA IS DENIED

Appellate Court Holds Street Widening Costs Legal.

Court battle of the Stutz Motor Car Company to avoid paying assessment of $2,339 for the widening and paving of Capitol avenue, more than two years ago, was lost Wednesday in an appellate court ruling.

The high court reversed a ruling of a Marion county court which had reduced the assessment about 75 per cent.

The appellate court held the Stutz company forfeited its right to appeal from the levy because of failure to file a remonstrance before the works board prior to filing of the suit.
