

DARROW STIRS HIGH INTEREST IN HONOR TRIAL

Crowds Are Expected to Storm Building Where Case Is Heard.

BY DAN CAMPBELL
United Press Staff Correspondent
HONOLULU, April 1.—Public excitement rose to a high pitch today in contrast to previous apathy, as the "honor slaying" trial of an American society woman and three navy men drew near.

The appearance of Clarence Darrow as chief defense counsel intensified interest in the case, and made it the topic of discussion at every beach resort, hotel lobby, cocktail party and bootleg place.

Resent Darrow's Presence
Speculation centered on the question of whether Darrow's eloquence at the trial, which is scheduled to open Monday, can prevail against the possible local resentment expressed in some quarters against the importation of the famous counsel.

Police Chief Charles Weber issued strict regulations today in anticipation that crowds will storm the ancient judiciary building where the case will be heard.
It was from this same building last Jan. 28 that Joe Kahahawai, husky young native, was kidnapped. A few hours later his sheet-swathed body was found in an automobile speeding toward famous Koko "Blower" Geyser.

Four Facing Trial
In the car were Mrs. Grace Bell Fortescue, prominent New York and Washington society woman; her son-in-law, Lieutenant Thomas H. Massie, and E. J. Lord, navy enlisted man. Later A. O. Jones, another seaman, was arrested, and all four were indicted on second-degree murder charges.

Kahahawai was one of five islanders tried a month before as the alleged attackers of Mrs. Thalia Fortescue Massie, the navy officer's wife.

By United Press
CHICAGO, April 1.—W. H. Settle, Indianapolis, president of the Indiana Farm Bureau Federation, has been appointed a member of a national committee to present the needs of agriculture to the two national political conventions here in June. It is announced by Edward A. O'Neal, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation. Appointment of a committee of eight is organized agriculture's first definite step to demand complete recognition of farmers in the Republican and Democratic platforms.

Other members of the committee include Charles E. Hearst, Des Moines, president of the Iowa Farm Bureau; R. W. Blackburn, Thermal, president of the California Farm Bureau Federation; Earl C. Smith, Chicago, president, Illinois Agricultural Association; J. F. Porter, Columbia, president Tennessee Farm Bureau; George M. Putnam, Concord, president New Hampshire Farm Bureau; C. R. White, Ionia, president New York Farm Bureau Federation, and President O'Neal, who will act as chairman.

Records credit two Greeks with having written the first comedy play. This is said to have been about 560 B. C.

Everything in It but Sugar

A leather sole, a couple of heels, the cross-section of a spare tire, a few pounds of cement, some discarded moonshine corks and a pound or two cotton with a little red pepper—and, presto, you have April Fool's candy.

The spare tire and sack of cement are in the background. Miss Tearney is occupied in that delicate operation—the carving of a brogue's sole. (No! not a rogue's soul!)

And when she gets the whole batter in her mixing pan and coats it with chocolate, if you try it, you'll think you've bitten into a bankrupt sale of a second-hand store.

BOMBAY DOCK STRIKERS RIOT

Importing of Pathans as Stevedores Brings Row.

By United Press
BOMBAY, April 1.—Dock workers on strike and Pathan (Afghan) strike-breakers clashed in serious rioting near the Bombay docks today and later fired many dwellings in the Pathan section.

First police reports listed one man killed, twelve seriously injured, and twenty slightly hurt.

Police fired on the rioters. Fire hose was played on the battling mob. The Pathans were en route to the docks in motor trucks after ignoring appeals from strikers to refrain from strike breaking.

Strikers dragged the driver of a truck from his seat and beat him to death. A general fight followed. Stevedores went on strike here three weeks ago protesting low wages and longer working hours. Contractors recruited Pathans to replace the strikers.

The serious riots in Bombay in 1929 followed importation of Pathans to replace striking oil workers.
