Women Plan
Close Study of Election

Five directors were elected Wednesday by the Indianapolis Council of Women in session at the Irvington Methodist Episcopal church. They are Mesdames Edna E. Pauley, Charles H. Smith, Alex Goodwin, Robert McKay, and Walter Gelsel.

These directors will meet with hold-over directors this month to elect new officers for the year. Mrs. Frank A. Symmes, who has served two terms as president, was ineligible for re-election.

Mrs. Allen T. Fleming was elected parliamentarian.

Election Interest Urged
Two resolutions were adopted by the council. One asked that citizens be interested actively in seeking information regarding candidates in the coming primary, particularly in their attitude concerning the eighteenth amendment.

It further asked that the members pledge themselves to attempt to get to the polls on election day a larger representation of Christian citizenship of the city that worthy men and women shall have the proper support.

The other resolution endorsed the petition to the city council and the city board of health, asking that funds be appropriated for the support and maintenance of a unit to the city hospital the Flower Mission has offered to build for tuberculosis patients.

Judge Baker Speaks
Judge Frank P. Baker spoke following luncheon on "Thoughts of a Judge." Judge Baker told the women that Indianapolis is outstanding in that there has been no increase of crime during the economic depression.

The Rev. Albert J. Spaulding, superintendent of the Fletcher place community center, and H. W. Mid-diesworth, city recreation director, also spoke.

Spring Salad
Use leeks to season spring salad rather than onions, at least until the new little green onions appear.

Phi Taus to Gather
Phi Tau sorority will meet tonight with Miss Mary Negley, 2212 Ashland avenue.

Beta Taus to Meet
Beta Tau sorority will meet at 8 tonight at the Antlers.

Miss Martha Tutewiler Weds
Samuel William Simpson

The marriage of Miss Martha Tutewiler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey A. Tutewiler, 116 Blue Ridge road, to Samuel William Simpson, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Simpson, 4519 North Meridian street, was celebrated at 1:30 today at Roberts Park Methodist Episcopal church, with the Rev. A. H. Kenna officiating.

Card Parties

Men's and Ladies' societies of the Sacred Heart church will sponsor the second of a series of card tournaments at 3 and 8:30 Sunday at their parish halls.

Indianapolis chapter, Women of the Moose, will hold a card party at 2:30 Thursday at Moose hall, 135 North Delaware street. Mrs. Noel C. White is chairman.

Altar society of Sacred Heart church will sponsor a card party at 2:15 Thursday at St. Cecilia hall.

Altar Society of St. John's church will give a card party this afternoon at the Banner Whitehill Furniture Company. All games will be played. Hostesses will be Mesdames Margaret Sweeney, Frank McNamara, David Connor, John Rail, Martin King, Edward Rippetow and Kurt Wurzel.

Mrs. Will Wertz, 2415 Shelby street, has returned from a visit in Chicago.

Mrs. and Mrs. Leonard J. Meisberger, 3541 North Meridian street, have returned from Miami Beach, Fla., where they have been vacationing.

PLAYER CLUB WILL HOLD LAST SESSION

Final meeting of the season will be held by the Players Club at 8:30 Friday night April 15, at the Civic theater. The performance will be preceded by the annual business meeting. The program will be a presentation of a comedy sketch, a take-off on Eugene O'Neill's "Mourning Becomes Electra."

New Kitchens
How long has it been since you put your kitchen into its present color scheme? Why not change it this spring? Gray-white, with peacock blue trim, is new and goes magnificently with gray tiled linoleum and checked curtains in blue. Cream walls, with a dash of red along the moldings, and dark blue furniture that almost looks black, makes a nice version of the bi-centennial color scheme.

Buckles Add Contrast
Colored belt buckles make a gay touch of brightness on many new tailored dresses. Often the buckle is the only accent color on the dress. Choose your buckle to match the color of some other accessory. And its smartest shape is long and narrow.

Felt Shoes Appear
Felt shoes! Not, of course, the old felt house slippers grandpa loves to wear. But smart new oxfords and pumps. They're lined with kid so they can't stretch and they're just as comfortable as the old felt slipper.

Personals

W. P. Morton, 4012 Central avenue, is spending a few days at the Edgewater Beach in Chicago.

Mrs. Henry Talbot, Spring Mill road, is at the Madison in New York for a few days.

Mrs. Charles S. Crawford and daughter Jane, Wiesbaden, Germany, have come to spend several months with Mrs. Crawford's mother, Mrs. Mary Williams, 822 North Temple street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. White and daughter of Indianapolis, who are traveling in southern California, are at the Hotel Del Monte, Del Monte, Cal., for a few days.

Chapter to Gather
Beta chapter, Iota Psi Omega sorority, will meet at 8 tonight at the Antlers.

ROBINSON TOPS THE CAST OF A BIG SHOW

"Hot From Harlem" With a Large Dancing Group Opens Friday at the Indiana Theater for a Week.

"HOT FROM HARLEM," an all-colored revue featuring Bill Robinson in person, will appear at the Indiana Friday as the first intact musical revue of its kind to play on an Indianapolis picture theater stage. Robinson, who has been featured in several Broadway musical comedies and in the film revue entitled "Diskana," is described as one of the foremost tap dancers of the present day.

He is generally credited as the originator of the famous "stair step" tap dance. Besides Robinson, "Hot From Harlem" will present the "Brown Buddies" chorus of eighteen and such principals as John Mason, Putney Dandridge, Myra Johnson, Naomi Price, Ferdie Lewis, Jell Smith, and Jackie Young.

The film, "Alias the Doctor," is of the intensely dramatic type, and stars Richard Barthelmess. It tells a story of thwarted love, supreme sacrifice, and devotion that gives Barthelmess the opportunity for emotional expression. And back of it all is a theme of undying love and romance that is finally unveiled in a happy surprise.

Playing with Barthelmess in "Alias the Doctor" is a cast headed by Marian Marsh, who has been rapidly ascending the ladder of success through such vehicles as "Sven-gali," "The Manic Genius," in which she appeared opposite John Barrymore, "Five Star Final," with Edward G. Robinson, and "Under Eighteen," her first starring film.

Others in the cast include Adrienne Dore, Norman Foster, George Rosner, Oscar Apfel, Claire Dodd, Beris Karloff and Lucille La Verne.

PRELIMINARIES TO BE HELD ON ROOF.
Third preliminaries of the Indiana Roof Ballroom's city championship waltz contest will be staged tonight at 10:30 p. m.

Finals of the dance competition are scheduled for one week from tonight, when winners of three preliminaries will compete for a cash award.

Jean Goldkette's orchestra, which will continue as the Roof's musical feature until it is replaced by Ben Bernie and his orchestra next Sunday night, will accompany the contestants tonight.

Bernie, the self-styled "ole maestro" of radioland, will bring his unit to Indianapolis from the College Inn of the Hotel Sherman, Chicago, where the majority of his broadcasts during the past two years have originated.

Frank Prince, a former Indianapolis resident, has joined Bernie as a soloist since the famous orchestra played a one night engagement on the Roof last June.

Pat Kennedy, the Irish tenor, and the German quartet, will also be featured by the wise-cracking music

A SLIMMING AFFAIR WITH POINTED BODICE

Printed and plain crepe combine perfectly in this model.

It is designed to give the figure a slender appearance. The clever pointed bodice section provides a new and becoming cut. It gives the idea of merging into the front skirt panel, creating a decidedly lengthened line.

It's a simple smart style to wear
"neath your topcoat. And it's so trim and neat, it will be lovely for warm weather wear without a coat.
It will make up nicely for summer in novelty cottons, linen or tub
silk.

Style No. 374 is designed for sizes
16, 18, 20 years, 36, 38, 40 and 42
inches bust.

Size 36 requires 1½ yards 35-inch for blouse with 2½ yards 30-inch
for skirt.
