

HOUSE DELAYS 'HONOR' TRIAL PARDON MOVE

Resolutions Asking That Americans Be Freed
Before Congress.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—The house judiciary committee today failed to take action on three bills pending before it dealing with various aspects of the Honolulu "honor slaying" trial.

The measure include two resolutions which would pardon Lieutenant Thomas H. Massie, Mrs. Grace Hubbard Fortescue and A. O. Jones and E. J. Lord, seamen, convicted of manslaughter in connection with the killing of Joe Kahahawai, half-caste native.

The third is the bill passed Monday by the senate which would preclude the possibility of the four natives charged with assault on Mrs. Thalia Massie being freed by a hung jury.

Seth W. Richardson, assistant attorney-general, appeared before the committee in executive session to express the views of the justice department. Richardson's testimony was not made public.

However, Representative Bachman (Rep. W. Va.) a member of the committee, said that Grave doubt had existed in the minds of some committee members over the constitutionality of the senate bill.

Pardon Hope Grows

HONOLULU, May 3.—Growing sentiment in favor of pardons for the American society woman and three navy men convicted of slaying a Hawaiian half-caste placed the case before Governor Judd today as he bent every effort to restore Honolulu to its once peaceful calm.

Fear of new racial outbreaks when the four were found guilty of manslaughter by a mixed jury of whites and browns appeared to have been dissipated.

Even the defendants, awaiting sentence next Friday, were reported optimistic over the ultimate success of their fight for liberty.

While nearly a score of voters waited this morning in a north side voting place, County Clerk Glenn Ralston was confronted with the serious problem of providing ham and eggs for poll officials.

"You can not," Ralston retorted. "Well, where are we going to get food," the perturbed official asked. "Figure it out for yourselves, but keep that voting place open," Ralston warned.

Start taking Kruschen Salts today—that's the common-sense, safe, harmless way to reduce.

This is what they do—they clean out the impurities in your blood by keeping the bowels, kidneys and liver in splendid working shape and fill you with a vigor and tireless energy you'd most forgotten had existed.

As a result, instead of planting yourself in an easy chair every free moment and letting flabby fat accumulate you feel an urge for activity that keeps you moving around doing the things you've always wanted to do and needed to do to keep you in good condition.

Be careful of the foods you eat—go light on fatty meats and pastry—then watch the pounds slide off!

Take one half teaspoonful in a glass of hot water to-morrow morning and every morning—and if they don't change your whole idea about reducing, go back and get the small price you paid for them. Get a bottle of Kruschen Salts—lasts 4 weeks—at any progressive druggist anywhere in the world—the cost is little—the benefits great—but be sure and get Kruschen for your health's sake—It's the SAFE, harmless way to reduce.—Advertisement.
