James to Ride Star

Derby Winner Ready to Go in Rich Pimlico Classic.

BELMONT PARK, L. I., May 11.—Burgoo King, Colonel E. R. Bradley's Kentucky Derby winner, worked out this morning over an easy mile and a half route and was pronounced fit for the Preakness race at Pimlico Saturday.

The son of Bubbling Over was not timed, but track followers and trainer H. J. Thompson said "he's on razor edge." Eugene James, who rode the chestnut Kentucky blue-blood last Saturday, said Burgoo King was in "swell shape."

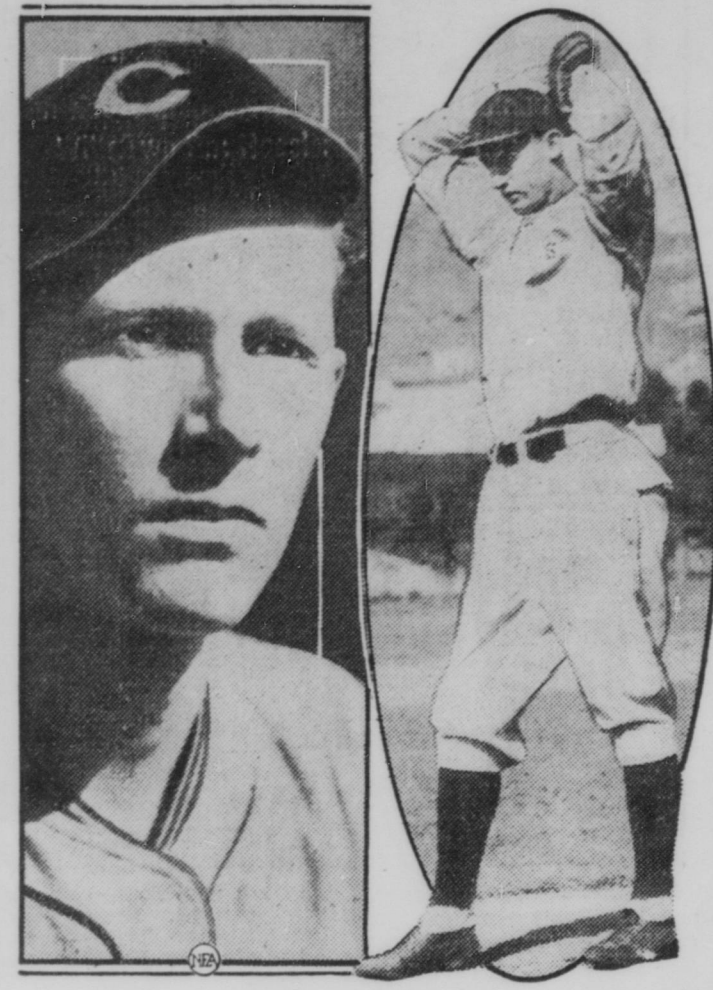

The Derby winner will be given another workout Thursday over a short distance, and before nightfall will be en route to the Maryland track, unless plans are changed radically today or Thursday.

The Derby distance is one and one-quarter miles. The Preakness route is one and three-eighths. Final decision on Burgoo King's appearance at Pimlico will rest with his owner, Colonel Bradley, who is expected to arrive today.

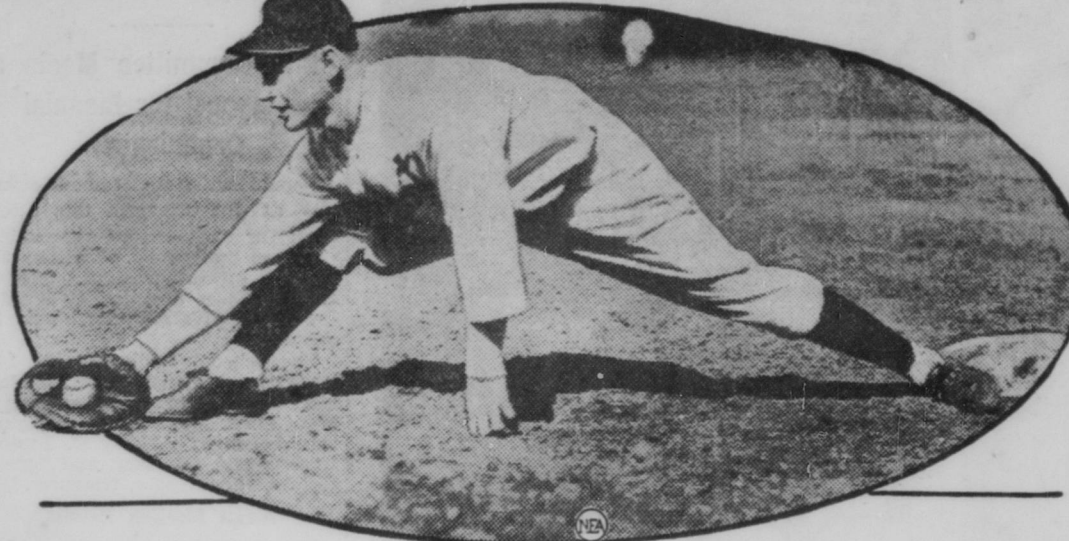

BALTIMORE, May 11.—Slave Ship, W. M. Jefford's big Preakness hopeful, definitely was declared out of the Pimlico classic today due to an injury received in a trial race here Monday.

His easy victory in the Monday race had placed Slave Ship among the Preakness favorites, but a spread foot received in that event eliminated him from the $50,000 classic.

Just What the Doctor Ordered for Tigers, Cubs

Lonnie Warneke

Harry Davis

TWO ball players who have been regarded for four years as just a couple of extra guys have been making their rivals in the major leagues wonder where the lads have been all this time.

The young men are Harry Davis, first baseman of the reclaimed and reclassified Detroit Tigers, and Lonnie Warneke, giant right-hander of the Cubs' pitching staff.

Davis, only 22, broke in—or tried to—four years ago at Toronto. But Big Dale Alexander, who then was the Toronto first baseman, withstood Davis' challenge for the job. It was a sheer ability to kiss that old apple that kept Alex on the job. This year Davis was purchased from Toronto by the Tigers on the eve of the season's opening, and Bucky Harris sent him to first to replace Alex in the first game. Davis hasn't been off the base since—and Alex hasn't been off the bench. The young man has been hitting a not very robust .250, but his sensational fielding has been just what the doctor ordered for the Tigers.

THE story of Warneke is similar, only surprising. Warneke, a tall rookie of 19 from Mt. Ida, Ark., broke in at Houston, Tex., in 1928. Houston shipped the youngster to Laurel, Miss., in the Cotton States League.

Warneke was able to win only six out of twenty games for Laurel, and in July was given the gate. Then in 1929, at Alexandria, he managed to win sixteen out of twenty-six.

He was brought up to the Cubs for trial in 1930, and after stumbling through an unimpressive spring training was sent to Reading. He worked in thirty-four games for Reading, in many as relief pitcher, but the best he could do was win nine and lose twelve.

Last year, Rogers Hornsby kept him on the roster as a relief pitcher and he worked in parts of twenty games, mostly the last few innings, winning two and losing four.

This year he started off the season with five straight victories!

Indians Take Millers for Base-Hit Parade

Owne Bush Uses Six Pitchers as League Leaders Wallop Ball Tuesday; Sigafoos and Purdy Collect Home Runs During 12-6 Triumph.

MINNEAPOLIS, May 11.—Endeavoring to halt the batting orgy that has been staged in this town by Emmet McCann's Indians the last two days, Manager Bush of the Millers planned to use crafty Rube Benton on the mound for the home nine today. He is the only Miller hurler dangle an Indian scalp this season, having tamed the Tribesmen in one game during April at Indianapolis. Two tilts remain in the current series and there is still a chance for the Bushmen to obtain an even break.

For the second day in a row, the Indians Tuesday knocked the Miller starting pitcher out of the box in the first inning and southpaw Jess Petty was the victim. Then a parade of Miller hurlers was under way and by the time the curtain fell on the action after 5 o'clock, six fingers had performed on the Minneapolis firing line, appearing in the order named, Petty, southpaw, Ryan, right-hander, Brillheart, southpaw, and Wilson, Vandenberg and Hensick, right-handers. It was almost an entire mound staff.

The Indians collected fifteen hits and won, 12 to 6, the Tribe blows including home runs by Sigafoos and Purdy and doubles by Walker, Cooney and Fitzgerald. The over-the-fence wallop by Sigafoos and Purdy came in the fifth stanza, and each time a runner was on the paths as the blows were struck.

Hamas Choice Over Veteran

PHILADELPHIA, May 11.—Steve Hamas, former Penn State athlete, ruled a 7-to-5 favorite today to defeat Tommy Loughran, former light heavyweight champion, in their return match here tonight. Twelve thousand fans are expected to see the scrap.

Boxing experts contend that Loughran's only chance of victory against the man who knocked him out in New York three months ago is not to mix blows. If Loughran can stay away from Hamas and prevent the knockdown, Philadelphia will have a chance to win a decision on points. Hamas has won twenty-eight of his twenty-nine fights, twenty-five by knockouts. He has lost only to Lee Remick, a Pacific coast fighter.

Benge, Sorrell and Grove Boost Big League Shutout Total to 26

NEW YORK, May 11.—Major League hurlers have chalked up nearly twice as many shutouts as were recorded at this time last year, twenty-six, against fourteen on May 11 of 1931.

This tight pitching seems to be divided evenly between the two leagues as the National and American clubs have thirteen shutouts to its credit.

Washington Senators and St. Louis Browns are tied for blanking honors with four each, giving them the lead for both leagues. Detroit has two and Boston's Red Sox, the Yankees and Athletics one each.

In the National League, honors are spread out more evenly. Two each have been recorded by Cincinnati, Brooklyn, the Phillies, Pittsburgh, the Cardinals, while the Giants, Braves and Cubs have one each.

Sam Gray of the Browns leads the American division with two shutouts, and Steve Swetonic of the Pirates heads the National circuit with a similar number.

Vic Sorrell's two-hit pitching for Detroit against the Boston Red Sox was the most notable performance Tuesday. His mound work enabled the Tigers to whitewash the Sox, 11 to 0. He might have scored a no-hit game were it not for Hal Rhyne's two scratch singles in the third and sixth. Four Boston hurlers opposed him.

Lefty Grove held the Chicago White Sox to six hits, while the Philadelphia Athletics pounded Sam Jones for a 9 to 0 victory. Jimmy Dykes drove in four Philadelphia runs with a double and a homer. Jimmy Fox connected for a double and a pair of singles.

In the National League, Ray Benge limited Cincinnati to five hits, while the Phillies blanked the Reds, 4 to 0. This victory advanced Benge's shutout total to seven.

Lonnie Warneke, on the Chicago Cubs' mound, yielded only five hits to the New York Giants, who were beaten 9 to 2. The Cubs scored four runs in the second and drove Gibson from the mound in the fifth with a five-run rally. Schumacher and Bell followed Gibson for New York. It was the fifth triumph for the unbeaten Cubs mound ace.

Boston's Pittsburgh washed out and Brooklyn at St. Louis was frozen out.

In the other American League game, Lefty Gomez scored his fourth victory of the season, holding the St. Louis Browns to seven hits, while his Yankee teammates won, 10 to 3. New York tallied six runs in the seventh and five walks. Two errors and two hits. Hadley and Stewart tolled for the Browns.

Cleveland at Washington was postponed by rain.

Chicago at Philadelphia, postponed; cold.

Philadelphia at Kansas City, postponed; cold.

Brooklyn at St. Louis, postponed; cold.

Speedway Chatter

BY NORMAN E. ISAACS
Business is starting to pick up out at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway, and in another week or two boys who put 'em together and drive 'em will be working overtime in preparation for the qualifying trials, starting May 21, for the annual "500."

One of the greatest looking teams that ever has graced the Speedway oval is the Studebaker fleet, five sleek, trim and speedy machines, and each a different color.

The movie reel boys concentrated on the Studebaker outfit Tuesday, mounting a camera on Joe Russo's Duesenberg and shooting the five Studebakers. Although the drivers have not been announced officially, it looks as if Tony Gulotta will pilot the light gray job; Cliff Bergere the red one; Luther Johnson in a gun-metal creation; Pete Kreis in a blue car, and Bob McDonogh in a green machine.

It's said in Gasoline Alley that Studebaker has $100,000 tied up in the five machines and it's easy to believe. Four are new ones and the fifth, the one driven by Bob McDonogh, is the same car Tony Gulotta drove in last year's race.

They're beautiful machines and they seem to have the speed.

Wild Bill Cummings, the Indianapolis big leaver, pulled in from Langhorne Tuesday and was around Gasoline Alley. He couldn't be expected to be out touring around "in about six or seven days." And lots of power to you, William.

Deacon Litz who will pilot one of the Bowers-Bell Specials, was on the pit hills Tuesday. He has a license to do this. Remember, he has a license to do this. Remember, he has a license to do this. Remember, he has a license to do this.

Pete Kreis and Luther Johnson in their Studebakers put on a little speed test for the few folks in the grand stand after the movie boys were through and just about that time Al Miller rolled his Hudson Special onto the bricks for a few warm-up laps.

There are about a half dozen machines around the track, operated into bolts, nuts, pistons, crankcases and such, but they're not really fast when they're needed.

Right now they're not needed and the boys are going to take plenty of time in putting them together.

And it's being said that Harry Hartz is about ready to move on to Indianapolis with his two-car team. One is the St. Louis front-drive, which Billy Arnold will pilot again, and the other is said to be a "mystery car" to be driven by the millionaire sportsman, Cliff Durant.

Harry Miller built the car and it's said to have "everything."

BILLY ARNOLD, 1930 racing champion who spent more than two months in a hospital and two more on crutches following a spectacular accident while leading the 500-mile race last May, will be less than 100 miles to ride, has arrived here to complete training for the May 30 race after having had his first hard riding test since his accident.

Arnold came here from Roby, where he tangled with several other pilots entered in the 500-mile ride and he was victorious in the three heats in which he drove. # Technical Favorite Eleven schools, represented by 140 athletes, will compete in the local sectional track and field title carnival at Tech field Saturday. Tech, with the spectacular Neely and Greenlee setting the pace, is favorite to carry off top honors, but Washington, unbeaten in two years of dual competition, and Manual both rank as dangerous contenders.

First and second place winners in all events and winning relay teams will compete in the state title meet at Butler on Saturday, May 21. Hoosier prep athletes, 1,501 strong, will begin elimination in fourteen other sectional centers Saturday.

Washington, Manual, Tech, Ben Davis, Broad Ripple, Danville, Greenfield, New Bethel, Shortridge, Southport and Warren Central are in the local sectional.
