

Children in Hospital Are Entertained

Children in the occupational therapy department of the Riley hospital, and the Rotary convalescent home were entertained this afternoon by Mrs. B. M. Golden, curator of education of the Children's Museum, and Miss Hazel Ruske, sponsor to the junior board of the museum.

The program consisted of stories and talks about the ten portable loan cases from the museum which are to be on display at the hospital during the coming week.

The loan cases include minerals, bird life, Indian art craft, pioneer objects, foreign dolls, Japanese and Chinese curios, marine life, and industrial exhibits.

The lending of the portable loan cases is a new activity for the museum. It is an outgrowth of requests for teaching. Since April 15, when the first delivery was made, 107 schools have used the exhibits.

During the summer the cases will be loaned to branch libraries and settlement houses where they will be on exhibit.

Display Collection of Art Work by Tudor Hall Pupils

A collection of art work, representative of the year's study in the upper and lower schools at Tudor hall, is now on display in the main building. The high school group comprises story illustrations in charcoal, samples of block print greeting cards, freehand figure and perspective work, designs for dress prints, studies in sunlight and shadow, and a group of pastels representing life in foreign countries for which the students did individual research work.

The most noteworthy feature of the lower school exhibit is a series of eight panels done as group projects by separate classes. Their subjects are: a Pueblo Indian village, by the third and fourth grades; the seasons, by the fifth grade; Mother Goose rhymes, by the sixth grade; scenes from Greek life, by the seventh grade, and three scenes from English history by the eighth grade representing a joust, a thirteenth century castle, and a gathering before an Elizabethan hunt. At the close of school, June 10, these pupils will be placed in the children's room of the Rauh Memorial library.

Members of the art staff are Miss Ida Catherine Lithwiler, upper and lower school; Miss Helen Hartinger, primary art; Miss Dora Atkins, kindergarten art. The afternoon sewing classes are directed by Miss Lithwiler and Miss Atkins. History of art and advanced applied art are taught by Miss Ellen Chase.

 Skin Broken Out Again * A Sign of Trouble ***

EXASPERATING! When you want to look your best — a new outbreak. Your internal neglect is to blame. CONSTITUTION is perhaps the commonest cause of bad skin. Fresh yeast corrects this trouble.

Get rid of PIMPLES!

PIMPLES never go away of their own accord, depend on it. As soon as one is gone, another makes its unsightly appearance. Because—the real cause lies deeper.

"It is well known," says the noted Dr. Otto Kalischer, of Berlin, "that pimples result from constipation."

Yet so few girls realize it and set about correcting it the right way.

There's an astonishing food which actually "tones up" the intestines so they function normally again.

This food is Fleischmann's Yeast. Fresh yeast softens clogging body wastes and makes it easy for the intestines to release them.

Also, Fleischmann's Yeast is an extremely valuable vitamin food—very rich in vitamins B, G and D.

Why go on suffering with disgusting pimples, listlessness, fatigue?

When it's so very easy to win back healthy good looks—a smooth skin—energy—vitality—snap!

You can get Fleischmann's Yeast, you know, at grocers, restaurants and soda fountains and directions are on the label. Just eat 3 cakes a day. Won't you start now?

IMPORTANT—Fleischmann's Yeast for health comes only in the foil-wrapped cake with the yellow label. It's yeast in its freshest, effective form—the kind famous doctors advise!
