

Betty Helm Wedding Set for Tonight

Miss Betty Helm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Helm, will become the bride of Paul R. Browning at 7:45 tonight at the Tabernacle Presbyterian church with the Rev. J. Ambrose Dunkel officiating.

The church altar will be banked with palms and ferns with white cathedral tapers flanked on each side. The first six pews on each side of the center aisle, reserved for the families, will be roped with white tulle.

Miss Helm, who will be given in marriage by her father, will wear a gown of ivory satin fashioned with flared skirt and square neck. The long sleeves will fall over the hands in the shape of a lily. From a peplum of real lace will be attached the train which also is shaped as a lily. The long net veil will be arranged with a chin strap and will be caught across the back with orange blossoms. She will carry a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

Cousin Maid of Honor

Miss Martha Helm of Baltimore, cousin of the bride, will be maid of honor and will wear a dress of blue angel skin lace. It will be fashioned with cowl neck and the low back is designed with lapels. The flare from the knees in the front will extend at the back into smaller flares up to the waistline.

She will wear blue slippers, elbow length white kid gloves and glow pearl beads gift of the bride. They will carry a bouquet of roses and delphiniums.

The bridesmaids' dresses will be fashioned alike of net, with long full skirts, appliqued with organdy flowers. Matching sashes will lie at the back with a large bow. They will wear matching slippers, white kid gloves and glow pearls.

Miss Catharine Caldwell will wear orchid, Miss Virginia Waller peach, Miss Janet Griffin green and Miss Evelyn Hodges yellow. They will carry arm bouquets of roses, delphiniums and bachelor buttons, tied with tulle matching their dresses.

Emily Jean Andrews, flower girl, will wear a pink organdy frock fashioned with light waist and long full ruffled skirt. She will wear pink slippers and carry an arm basket of summer flowers.

Athletic Club Members Will Go on Outing

Indianapolis Athletic Club members and their families will be entertained with an outing this afternoon and tonight at Woolen's Gardens. It is the first affair of its kind to be given by the club, and if successful will be made an annual event.

Hostesses will be Mrs. Floyd R. Fisher and Mrs. A. R. Dankworth. Entertainment will consist of various games in the afternoon. A feature will be an exhibition of badminton, an English game, only recently become popular in the United States. The exhibition will be given by Mark Pangborn and Tom Huestis. Supper will be served around the campfire at 6, followed by more games.

The club will hold the first of a series of luncheon-bridge parties on the edge of the swimming pool Tuesday. The pool will be opened at 8, and bridge will follow at 9:15. During the intermission between the bridge and luncheon there will be a style show of beach costumes, and a swimming exhibition by the girls' swimming team from the club.

Reservations may be made with the Athletic director at the club, or with Mrs. Raymond C. Fox, chairman of the luncheon bridge committee.

Reception Is Planned

Franklin Browning of Boston will be best man. Ushers will be Robert Helm, brother of the bride; Clyde Browning of Greenfield, Mass., brother of the bridegroom; Clarke Rogie and Malcolm Cameron of Greenfield, Mass.

Paul Matthews, organist, will play a program of music preceding and during the ceremony. Miss Patricia Kennedy will sing "Because" and "At Dawning."

Mrs. Helm will wear a French blue gown of lace and chiffon. She will wear a corsage of orchids and lilies of the valley.

A reception will be held at the home of the bride's parents at 4229 Rockwood avenue. The house will be decorated with spring flowers and lighted with tapers.

Going to Canada

The couple will leave immediately on a wedding trip to Canada and the east and will be at home after July 1 at 4934 Rockwood avenue.

Miss Helm's going away dress will be of beige silk fashioned with three-quarter length sleeves which are puffed and embroidered in various colors. Her coat will be of beige trimmed in brown fur. She will wear accessories in brown.

Miss Helm attended Butler university and Mr. Browning is a graduate of Williams college.

Out of town guests will be: Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Helm, Mrs. Bertha Florio, Mrs. Helen Thomas, Miss Bertha Schreiber, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Steinmetz of Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Barnaby of Bloomington, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Staff of Terre Haute, and Mrs. Franklin Browning of Boston.

Guild to End Season With Guest Affair

A guest luncheon at 12:30 Monday at Highland Golf and Country Club will close the season of the Sunnyside guild. Following the luncheon and a short business meeting, bridge will be played.

Mrs. J. A. Warrander is chairman of the hostesses. Mrs. B. M. Forbes is in charge of prizes. Assistant hostesses will be Mesdames S. C. Wasson, William S. Warner, Charlotte E. White, Carl E. Wood, A. C. Zaring, Thomas C. Whallon, Fred E. Johnson, Thomas L. Hale, J. Frank Holmes and Miss Margaret Brick.

Guests will be seated at small tables, centered with silver baskets of garden flowers. A member of the guild will act as hostess at each table.

GIRLS ARRANGE CHURCH SERVICE

Girls' Friendly society of Christ Episcopal church will hold a corporate communion at 8 Sunday morning. Breakfast will be served following the services. Miss Thelma Watson, branch president, will assist to the Rev. E. Ainger Powell, the following girls for admittance: Misses Elizabeth Poole, Elsie Gilkinson, Lucille Hensley, Ann Carpenter and Georgia Thomas.

The society will hold its regular meeting at 6 Tuesday night in the parish house. Dinner will be served.

Season at Camp Delight Is Officially Opened by Y. W. C. A.

Camp Delight, the resort for girls maintained by the Y. W. C. A. on White river, is opening its official season this month. During May large groups of people have entertained at the camp with picnics, evening parties, and week-end outings.

Miss Dorothea Cleland, Ft. Wayne, is to be the director at the camp this summer, and began her duties June 1. She was for five years on the Y. W. C. A., three years of which she acted as executive of the department. She is a graduate of Indiana university and has attended the Y. W. C. A. national school for professional training in New York. For the last six months she has been a student at the school of Applied Social Science at Western Reserve university.

Among the camping parties and outings scheduled for June are a group of south side girls and the Girl Reserves of School 15 Friday, a week-end conference for the members of the Indianapolis Y. W. C. A. today and Sunday; a meeting closing the year's work for both the public affairs and the personal service committee June 6; a supper for the Social Workers' Club also on June 6; an over-night party of south side high school girls, June 10; and for the week-end of June 11 and 12, the Alumnae Club of Manual Training school girls, and a group of girls from the Y. W. C. A. health education department.

June 14 the regular camping period for younger girls begins. High school groups are scheduled for June 14 to July 1 and grade school girls, July 6 to Aug. 3. Registration may be made for week-ends or for longer periods.

The camp is reserved for employed girls from Aug. 5 to Sept. 6. Arrangements can be made to commute for those so desiring. Further information may be secured by calling the Girl Reserve department of the Y. W. C. A. for younger girls or the business or industrial departments for employed girls. It is not necessary to be a member of the Y. W. C. A. to register for camp.

Closing Social Activities at Butler Will Honor Seniors

Closing social activities of Butler university sororities and fraternities will honor their seniors at dances to be held next week.

The final social affair of the senior class will be its annual ball June 9 at the Indianapolis Country Club. This year the dance will be featured for the first time by the class day program. It is held exclusively for seniors and is being planned by a committee composed of George Kerlin, chairman; and Misses Dione Kerlin, Harriet McGaughey and Vera Grey Hinshaw. Harry Dickerson's orchestra will play from 10 to 1.

On the same night seventeen seniors of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity will be honored by the alumni. Edwin Manogue of the active chapter is assisting in making arrangements. Novelty programs will be given.

Two sororities and two fraternities will honor their seniors June 10 at dances. Frank Jones is in charge of the Sigma Chi dance which will be held at the Indianapolis Country Club. Seniors to be special guests are Ralph Coble, Arthur Loftin, Gordon Cullen, John Ellis, Burdard Carr and Maurice Boyd.

The Delta Delta Delta sorority will go to the Ulen Country club at Lebanon for their dinner dance. Seniors to be presented gifts are Misses Virginia Taylor, Margaret Shively, Ann McDevitt, Roseland Gibson, Gertrude Pence, Louise Boling, Virginia Holt, Harlette Trinkle, Anna Marie Sander and Waneta Graves.

Favors will be in the shape of wooden plaques. Ed Callender's orchestra will play. Miss Evelyn Crostreet is chairman of the committee in charge assisted by Misses Maxine Jones, Mary Alice Obal and Charlotte Cashon.

Commencement formal of the

TEA HOSTESS

Miss Virginia Joan Rudolph

—Photo by W. Hurley Ashby.

Miss Virginia Joan Rudolph will be hostess of a John Herron Art Institute group which will sponsor a tea from June 5 to 12 at the first American joint exhibition of sculpture and painting in the studios of E. H. Daniels and J. M. Henninger.

SCHOOL TO MAKE ATHLETIC AWARDS

Class night at Tudor hall will be observed at 7:30 tonight in the school gymnasium. At this time athletic awards for the year will be presented, as will the prizes won in the literary contests. The affair is an annual one, and is held as a farewell party to the seniors.

Miss Elise Gibson, a member of the senior class at Tudor, has received word that she has won a competitive scholarship of $150 from the University of Chicago for an examination which she took in Latin at the university May 20. Competing were students from the university and surrounding schools. Only two awards were made in Latin. Miss Gibson will attend Chicago university next fall.

MRS. HOMBURG TO PRESENT RECITAL

Charles F. Hansen will present Mrs. Edna Meyer Homburg in an organ recital at 8:15 Wednesday at the Second Presbyterian church. The program is as follows:

"Toccata and Fugue in D Minor" J. S. Bach
"Three Mountain Sketches" J. W. Clockey
(a) Jagged Peaks in the Starlight.
(b) Wind in the Pine Trees.
(c) Canyon Walls.
"Suite Gothic".....L. Beilmann
(a) Choral.
(b) Menuet Gothique.
(c) Priere a Notre Dame.
(d) Toccata.
"Romance in D Flat".....E. H. Lemare
"Triumphal March".....Dudley Bush

Program for June Party Announced

Annual June party and guest day of the Governor Oliver Perry Morton chapter, Daughters of the Union, will be held at 2:30 Monday afternoon at the Columbia Club.

The program will include a paper, "Landmarks of Indiana," by Mrs. R. Harry Miller. The same theme will be carried out in a program of Hoosier melodies to be sung by Mrs. Charles Breece. Mrs. William Sieber will sing a group of spring songs. Both soloists will be accompanied by Mrs. M. D. Didway.

Miss Mary Lohrman, cellist, will play, accompanied by Miss Ramona Wilson, and Harry Tilson, cornetist, will give a program, with Miss Myrtle Williams, pianist, accompanying him.

The program is being arranged by Mrs. A. B. Glick and Mrs. Louis E. Kruger.

The tea table will be centered with blue and purple iris, lighted with candles, and will be decorated with American flags.

Mrs. George Spiesel and Mrs. Thomas Larkin will pour, assisted by members of the chapter. Guests of honor will be members of the Grand Army of the Republic.

Reservations Are Made for Benefit Party

Reservations for forty tables have been made for the annual benefit card party to be given by the Chalcedony Club Friday at the home of Mrs. Fred S. Duesenberg, 3290 Fall Creek boulevard. Proceeds will be used for charity and support of two aged women cared for by the club for several years.

Mrs. Norman H. Gilman is chairman, assisted by Mrs. Duesenberg and Mesdames Harry B. McKee, Floyd Brown, George L. Pugh, A. H. Adams, Charles Byfield and Ethel Buschmann.

Mrs. Rufus Mumford is retiring president and Mrs. Duesenberg the incoming president.

Call Special Board Meeting of League of Women Voters

As a result of the calling of a special session of the state legislature, a special meeting of the board of directors of the Indiana League of Women Voters will be held June 10 at the Columbia Club to consider its activities.

The legislative program of the league as adopted at the state convention for March calls for action on various items of public economy, many of which undoubtedly will be considered during the special session.

The proposals of the citizens tax committee which will form the basis for the action of the legislature were sent to all local leagues at the time they were published. Most of the local branches have made a careful study of these proposals in the light of the league program.

Appointment of the legislative committee of the league was postponed by action of the board of directors until after the fall election. It is expected the committee, which also functioned during the 1931 session of the general assembly, will be asked to continue its work.

The special meeting of the board probably will take the place of the regular July meeting.

Sorority Body to Give Rush Affair Sunday

A rush breakfast will be held Sunday morning by the Pi Beta Phi sorority at its chapter house, 320 West Forty-third street. The house will be decorated with spring flowers, with a color scheme of the sorority colors of wine and silver, blue being carried out in the appointments.

Miss Anna Marie Dungan, rush captain, is in charge, assisted by Miss Lois Jackson, out of town rush captain, and Misses Helen Carson and Helen Garna.

In the receiving line will be the rush committee, Miss Evelyn McDermitt, president, and Mrs. Paul Coble, house mother.

Seniors will preside at the serving table.

SALON TO PRESENT PIANO ENSEMBLE

A five piano ensemble will be presented in a recital Wednesday evening at the Wilking Auditorium Salon, 120 East Ohio street, by Mrs. Jesse Guild Reep. The program features family groups. Those appearing will be:

Misses Pauline and Doris Becker, Kellman Higgs and Mrs. Chester Cones, Betty Ruth and Mrs. Irene Hancock, Allan and Mrs. Karl Meade, Mary Edle and Frances Smith, Miriam Stuart, Frances Louise Nihma, Betty Anne Radochew, Shirley Mae Wolcott, Margaret McKen, Durbin, Robert and Mrs. Alma John Woodson.

Assisting will be John Stewart Jr., pupil of the Schumann School of Expression; Gordon McWorkman, cornetist, and Riley Stuart, trumpet player, both pupils of Leslie E. Peck. Pages will be Ben Weaver and Dwight Posen.

Alumnae Club to End Season With Luncheon

Indianapolis Alumnae club of Pi Beta Phi sorority will close its season with a luncheon meeting June 11 at the home of Mrs. W. K. Gearan, 4160 Guilford. Seniors of the Butler chapter will be special guests. They are Misses Helen Weyl, Dorothy Screes, Jeannette Woods, Jane Hadley and Vera Grey Hinshaw.

Mrs. H. S. King will be chairman of the hostesses, assisted by Mesdames M. R. Granger, Norman Green, D. O. Kearby, R. W. Mercer, L. J. Shappert, R. F. Stiltz, and the Misses Ethel Curry, Margaret Keltenback, Fanny Miner and Mildred Weld.

Mrs. Paul Coble, house mother of the Butler chapter, will give a travel talk. Miss Marjorie Goble will give a group of readings and a musical program will be presented.

Mrs. Jasper Scott, president, will preside at the short business session.

ZETATHEA CLUB CALLS MEETING

An all-day meeting will be held by the Zetathea Club Wednesday at the White river cottage of Mrs. C. E. Critten.

Mrs. D. A. Grove will present a paper on "Little Theater Society." A one-act play entitled "The Girls" will be presented.

KAPPA DELTA RHOS MOTHERS TO MEET

A social meeting will be held Tuesday by the Mothers Club of Kappa Delta Rhos fraternity at the Butler chapter house, 460 West Forty-third street. Hostesses will be Mrs. H. B. Elwood and Mrs. W. B. Oliphant.

ON HONEYMOON

Mrs. Clarence A. Riley was formerly Miss Teresa Dolores Moorman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Moorman. Her wedding took place May 24. Mr. and Mrs. Riley will be at home after June 15 at 417 North Wallace street.

Plan Club Luncheon

Delta Gamma Mother's Club will hold a covered dish luncheon on Tuesday, at the Butler chapter house, 269 Buckingham drive.

Sculptor, Artist in Exhibition

As a feature of the first American joint exhibition to be held June 5 to 12 in the studios of E. H. Daniels, sculptor, and Joseph M. Henninger, artist, at 709 East Maple road, a series of social events will be sponsored by several leading groups.

An open house and tea will mark the first day of the exhibit, with Earl Byers, artist, giving the gallery talk. Hostesses for the afternoon will be Mesdames George Philip Meier, Horton Humphreys, Burke Slaymaker, Robert T. Miller and Mrs. Grant Powers, writer and illustrator, of New York.

The Junior League will have gallery attendants throughout the week under the chairmanship of Mrs. Robert A. Winslow, chairman of the arts and interests committee of the league.

Calendar Announced

The calendar for the week is as follows: Monday, Mrs. A. M. Gail-Sayles and Charles Weiss; Tuesday, Mrs. Sylvester Johnson Jr. and Mrs. Charles Latham; Wednesday, Misses Rosamond Van Camp and Caroline Sweeney; Thursday, Mrs. Winslow and Mrs. Addison Parry; Friday, Mrs. Thomas Harvey Cox and Mrs. Louis Haerle, and Saturday, Misses Ruth Hodges and Mary Louise Minick.

The Indianapolis associate chapter of Tri Kappa sorority will sponsor a tea Wednesday with Mrs. Joseph W. Walker as hostess and Mrs. Ross Ewert and Mrs. J. H. Albershardt as co-hostesses.

Tea Is Scheduled

On Thursday afternoon from 3 to 5 a tea will be given by the Tudor Hall Alumnae Association. Mrs. George Calvert, former member of the John Herron Art Institute, will pour at a tea to be sponsored by a group from the institute from 3 to 5 Friday afternoon. Miss Virginia Rudolph will be hostess, assisted by Misses Ruth Lindenberg, Kathryn Demaree and Margaret Kent.

The art department of the Women's Department Club will be hostesses Saturday. From 2 to 4 a series of short talks will be given according to Mrs. Paul T. Payne, chairman of the club's art section. Robert T. Miller will give the gallery talk.

Student Work Also

The exhibit will include work of Daniels and Henninger as well as student work of Ted Randall, Arthur Baumbister and Misses Margaret Graham, Kathryn Paden and Josephine Rockwood.

Among Daniel's exhibit will be an imaginative piece, "The Birth of the Indiana Limestone Industry," which has won national acclaim. Other pieces are an architectural frieze, "La Salle Entering Indiana Territory," a smaller panel frieze, and a half life-size model of St. Francis of Assisi, founder of the Franciscan order. He will also show portraits of Joseph Conrad, Tarus Bulba, the Brothers Karamazov, Captain Lars Patterson, Miss Maude Kuhn, a head study and a warrior head.

Won Culver Prize

Two paintings which will be among the principal exhibits by Henninger are "And Models Call This Work," a painting which won the Culver Military academy prize in the 1932 Hoosier Salon, and a portrait of F. O. Belzer, widely-known Boy Scout executive.

Portraits to be shown by Henninger include those of Robert Allen, foreign representative of the Chicago Civic Opera Company; Miss Martha Slaymaker, Kelly Gardner, 3-year-old son of Leo Gardner, Indianapolis attorney; Miss Alice Arnold, Robert T. Miller and Miss Dorothy Driskell of Chicago.

"A Pair of Black Aces," portrait of a Negro boy, a composition study, a Brown county landscape, are two other oils which the painter will show. Water color work will include scenes in Morocco and Spain done while Henninger was abroad on a foreign scholarship. Local scenes in water color work also will be on display.

HUSBANDS FETED AT BRIDGE PARTY

Members of Epsilon Pi chapter of Delta Theta Tau sorority entertained husbands at a bridge party Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Anderson. Special guests were Messrs. and Mesdames A. J. Boesel and Lemuel Whitten. Twenty-four attended.

CHURCH AUXILIARY PLANS LUNCHEON

Women's auxiliary of the St. Paul M. E. church will hold a luncheon meeting at 12:30 Friday at the home of Mrs. William Forsyth, 15 South Emerson avenue. Special guests will be Mrs. Horace Nutt.

"Cuba and Porto Rico" will be the subject of the discussion following the luncheon.

Miss Dona Faucett Becomes Bride of Joseph McHugh

SS. Peter and Paul cathedral was the scene of the marriage, at 9 this morning, of Miss Dona Faucett, daughter of Claude Faucett, 2508 East Washington street, to Joseph McHugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McHugh.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. James Hickey. Palms and ferns banked the chancel and cathedral candles burned on the altar during the ceremony.

Miss Helen Seasholtz, organist, played the processional and recessional, and a program of bridal music, which included "At Dawning" and "I Love You Truly."

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Kennard Faucett. She wore a gown of white satin, fashioned simply with straight lines to below the knees where a flare fell to the floor, and formed a short train. The neck-line was v-shaped, and the sleeves were long, with a puff above the elbow. Her veil was tulle, with the cap trimmed in lilies of the valley at each side. She carried a sheath of calla lilies.

Miss Matilda Knoke was the maid of honor. She wore a frock of pink net with large blue picture hat and accessories, and carried Johanna Hill roses. Bridesmaids were Miss Emma Houghland and Miss Rosalind Blair. The bridesmaids wore dresses alike of blue net, with pink picture hats and accessories. They carried pink roses.

James McHugh was best man for his brother. Ushers were Thomas O'Connor and Raymond Monahan. Mrs. H. M. Anderson. Special guests of the bridegroom was the flower girl. Her frock was of pink organdie, and she carried a basket of rose petals. Donald Siple was the ring bearer.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bridegroom's parents, 1123 North New Jersey street.

Mr. and Mrs. McHugh have left for a short wedding trip to Chicago. The bride's traveling frock was of tailored blue silk, with a train of tulle. They will be at home on their return at the Creighton apartments, Twelfth and Alabama streets.

MAY BRIDE

Mrs. Samuel D. Naperstick

—Photo by Kindred.

Mrs. Samuel D. Naperstick's marriage took place May 24. She was formerly Miss Belle Cohen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cohen, 2117 Broadway.