

PLAYGROUNDS AIDS APPOINTED BY PARK BOARD

Instructors, Matrons and Supervisors Named for Summer.

Appointment of sixty-eight instructors, thirty matrons and six supervisors for public playgrounds was approved Thursday by the park board.

Swimming instructors and life-guards for six pools and beaches will be appointed from applicants scheduled to take final tests today. The list of appointees represents fifty-two reappointments. The remainder never have served before. Those named will be instructed by city officials at 2:30 Monday and Tuesday in city council chambers. The board awarded a contract to Carl Krauss & Sons, Inc., to provide 300 gallons of water a minute in Garfield park. The bid was $1,400.

Water Bill Cut

The water plant will be installed by the park board with the prospect of saving $1,500 a year in the water bill for Garfield park.

Protests against the project by Frank C. Jordan, secretary of the Indianapolis Water Company, were unheeded by the board. If the plan proves successful, it will be carried out in other parks, Jackie W. Joseph, board president, said.

STATE RESTS IN 'TRICK' CASE AGAINST MEANS

Calls Friend of Lindy to Tell of Kidnaping Negotiations.

By United Press

WASHINGTON, June 10.—The prosecution in the trial of Gaston B. Means, charged with tricking Mrs. Evalyn Walsh McLean out of a $100,000 Lindbergh baby ransom, rested its case today at 12:30, with the testimony of Colonel Robert Guggenheim, wealthy friend of the Lindbergh family, and Captain Emory C. Land, cousin of Lindbergh's mother.

Guggenheim told of being approached by Means with a proposal to effect the return of the kidnaped baby. He said Means made no demand upon him for ransom money. This occurred before Means entered into similar negotiations with Mrs. McLean, the witness said. "On Saturday, March 5, I met Means in the home of Robert F. Fleming in Edgemoor, Md.," Guggenheim testified. "Means asked me if I knew who he was. I told him 'yes,' and he asked me if I knew he had been in jail. I told him 'yes.' He also asked if I knew why he had been in jail. When I told him I didn't he said they put him there because he kept his mouth shut and wouldn't squeal."

Then he told me he had information on the Lindbergh kidnaping. He said a week or ten days before the kidnaping he was in "a very low dive" in New York. "I met a man I had known in Atlanta penitentiary," Means told me. "This man said, 'Means, you're just the man I'm looking for. We're going to pull a kidnaping job and we need you for a go-between.'"

Means said this man told him there would be more publicity in the case than ever before in a kidnaping, or perhaps it wouldn't get into the papers at all. "Means told me, 'As soon as I saw the papers, I connected this man with the Lindbergh job.'"

Guggenheim said that Means told him he wanted to help return the Lindbergh baby "because I have a chance to rehabilitate myself with the public and I would get enough private detective work to last for ten years."

Quits Dry Post

Splitting with dry organizations opposed to resubmission of the liquor question, Dr. Daniel A. Poling (above), resigned as chairman of the allied forces for prohibition and announced he would favor a national referendum on prohibition.

If the wets have the votes to bring about a change in the eighteenth amendment, let them produce them, was the challenge of Dr. Poling, who emphasized he would be against any revision.
