

FORCE BARKLEY TO EXPLAIN HIS FARMING STAND

Democratic Keynote Asks Pay Increase for One of Constituents.

By Scripps-Howard Newspaper Alliance
WASHINGTON, June 15.—Senator Alben W. Barkley (Dem., Ky.), keynote at the coming Democratic national convention, who is in hot water over his votes for protective tariffs in the tax bill and who supported a 10 per cent reduction in federal salaries, is on record as favoring an increase in pay for one of his constituents.

Barkley appealed to the senate appropriations committee to increase the farm board general counsel's salary from $12,000, where it was put by the house, to $15,000. The committee, however, recommended that the board pay no salaries in excess of $10,000.

The general counsel, Stanley F. Reed, was described by Barkley as coming "pretty close to being the whole board."

"Useful Agency," He Says

Barkley called the farm board a "useful agency" because of its co-operative work.

The board, created by the Hoover administration, has been condemned widely by Democrats, but whether Barkley will mention it in his keynote address is problematical.

The Republican keynote at Chicago Tuesday, Senator L. J. Dickinson of Iowa, did not stress the tariff issue, dodged prohibition, and mentioned the farm board as a main phase of the Republican farm relief program.

Challenged by Copeland

Barkley told the senate committee in his plea for Reed that he thought the farm board "is serving a good purpose in its co-operation with farm organizations," and later Senator Roy Copeland (Dem., N. Y.) questioned him about what he meant. Barkley replied:

"As a matter of fact, I do not mean that I would give it carte blanche approval of everything it has done. It has gotten in bad with the public and congress, largely through its dealings in wheat and cotton.

"It has, in a quiet way, for which it has received no publicity, done a great deal of good in its efforts in co-operation with co-operatives, farmers' selling organizations, and things of that sort."

"What have you got to say about them giving $25,000,000 to the wine grape industry?" asked Copeland.

"I do not have anything to say about that," replied Barkley, who is a dry.

EVICION CASES REST IN SHEAFER COURT

No Date Set for Trial of Pair on Rioting Charge.

Cases against a man and woman arrested following an eviction May 13 slumber in the court of Municipal Judge William H. Sheaffer, with no date set for trial. Sheaffer said today setting of trials is a matter for a special judge to decide. Fred C. Gause was chosen special judge, but refused to act.

Defendants are Mrs. Fay Allen, 2338 Calhoun street, mother of four children, and W. N. Grose, Terrace and Keystone avenues. She is charged with inciting riot and resisting legal process, and Grose faces the latter charge only.

Arrests were made when Charles W. Freeman, 136 North Delaware street, and O. P. Bebing, 6503 College avenue, "constables," evicted Mrs. Ayers and family from 2340 Calhoun street. Freeman is alleged to have broken Mrs. Ayers' arm during a struggle which preceded the eviction.

Police were called to the scene, but refused to aid the "constables," and only the names of the latter appear as arresting officers.

Others elected to offices were Louis Adams, vice-president; Wilfred Bradshaw, secretary, and Michael B. Reddington, treasurer.

Those named to the board of directors were Edwin Morden, John Linder, Porter Sidensticker, Joseph Wallace, Allen Majours, Lee O'Connor, Lawrence Ammon and Mike O'Brien.

Board Accepts Irvington Site; Will Pay $15,000 for Land.

Offer of Christian Delker and his wife, Mrs. Barbara Delker, to sell seven lots at the northwest corner of the Pleasant Run golf course as a site for a school was accepted Tuesday night by the school board at a price of $15,000.

Pending completion of the transaction, the board will not dismiss a condemnation suit against the land. A new school on the land will relieve congestion of grade pupils in schools Nos. 57, 62 and 85.

TAX ON LONG DISTANCE CALLS USED IN WAR

New Federal Levy Will Be Easy to Collect, Phone Head Says.

New federal tax on long distance telephone calls, to become effective at midnight Monday, will be easy to collect, as a similar levy was in effect during the World war, it is pointed out in a letter received today by the public service commission, signed by F. B. McKinnon, president of the United States Independent Telephone Association, which has offices in Washington and Chicago.

The letter is a copy of one sent to all companies comprising the association. McKinnon states that it will be necessary for companies to provide forms for reporting the tax for the time being, as the government will not be able to distribute forms before the tax becomes effective.

For calls costing from 50 to 99 cents, the tax will be 10 cents; $1 to $1.99, tax of 15 cents, and more than $2, tax of 20 cents.

Three Children Look on as Father Ends Lives Over Whipping.

By United Press

The father, Odus C. Howell, veteran policeman, shot his wife and himself before the children.

NAB RUM SUSPECTS

Four Pinched by Cops and Federals; Booze Seized.

For six months the law played a waiting game and as a result Michele Chiodroff, 3649 West Sixteenth street, is awaiting trial today on a charge of violating the national prohibition act.

Police and federal agents raided his home Tuesday and report seizure of eighty-three quarts of beer in bottles and twenty-four gallons brewing.

Federal agents said they bought whisky from Chiodroff Dec. 22, 1931, while he was living at 768 North Warman avenue. He was known at that time as Mike Thomas. Immediately after the alleged buy, Chiodroff moved and was not located until Tuesday.

Joseph Royalty, 24, of 3833 East Thirty-first street, is held today on charges of operating a blind tiger, transporting liquor and vagrancy, after losing in a foot race with police, who assert they found eleven gallons of alcohol in his automobile.

Charges of transporting liquor were filed against two men arrested by police at North and Meridian streets. They were Marshall Hendricks, 1268 West Twenty-third street, and Earl Unversaw of Fair-land.
