

'QUIT LEAGUE,' PRUSSIAN CRY TO GERMANY

Diet Passes Reds' Motion
Demanding Resignation
From Geneva.

By United Press
BERLIN, June 15.—The Prussian diet, by a rising vote, passed a Communist motion today demanding that Germany resign from the League of Nations. The Hitlerites supported the motion.

The decision is not binding on the federal Reich government.

An earlier Communist motion demanding that the Reich refuse all future reparations payments failed through lack of a quorum.

A Communist move for expulsion of the Hohenzollerns from Germany was frustrated by Prince August Wilhelm, son of the Kaiser and a newly-elected deputy, and his Nazi colleagues.

The Communists demanded that August Wilhelm, his brother, the former crown prince, and other members of the former ruling dynasty be promptly expelled from Germany, and that further payments by Prussia on the financial claims of the Hohenzollerns cease.

When the question of an immediate vote on the motion was presented, only the Communists supported it.

Thousands of Fascists appeared throughout Germany in their forbidden brown shirt uniform today, in anticipation of a decree rescinding the ban of April 13 against them. President Paul von Hindenburg signed the decree today.

Without formally repealing the suppression order, it permits Hitler's army to re-appear, under surveillance of the interior ministry.

ACT TO BEAT TAX LAW

City Making Purchases Before U. S. Act Is Effective.

Departments at the city hall have been requested by Albert H. Losche, purchasing agent, to co-operate in issuing requisitions for purchases in advance of the new federal general revenue bill Tuesday.

Chief Mike Morrissey was one of the first with a requisition for thirty-eight tires for police cars. Losche also stated that the city would open bids on twenty drums of lubricating oil.

The new tax law provides for a 4-cent tax per gallon on oil. The sum of $80 will be saved on the oil purchased before Tuesday, Losche pointed out.

ATTACKER IS IDENTIFIED

Man Held by Police Is Named as Assailant by City Woman.

Charges of assault and battery with intent to kill and burglary were filed Tuesday against Thomas Rhodes, 27, of 2325 Manlove avenue, after he was said to have been identified by Mrs. Lillian Manthey, 417 East Twelfth street, as the man who attacked her in her apartment early May 5 with a hammer as a weapon.

After a desperate struggle the assailant fled. Mrs. Manthey suffered a scalp wound, but other occupants of the apartment building found her at a telephone calling police when they went to her aid.

The attack occurred while she was living at 419 East Fifteenth street.

'Goes to Dogs'

But Wife Wasn't Feeding Them, Doctor Says at Divorce Trial.

By United Press
CHICAGO, June 15.—The story of logs, dogs and "lovableness" told by Dr. George C. Fisher, former Northwestern university professor, in his suit for divorce from his wife Miriam, today brought efforts by Judge Joseph Sabath to arrange an out of court settlement.

Dr. Fisher charged his wife had ceased to be "lovable." Mrs. Fisher countered with a claim that her husband was nothing to brag about as a lover anyway.

"I was suspicious of my wife and John Revelle, a bosom friend of mine, after I saw them holding hands under a bridge table," testified Dr. Fisher.

"One day my wife said she was going to her sister's house to feed her sister's police dogs, which were very fierce.

"She was gone all afternoon, and at 7 telephoned me she was feeding them. I went there with a patient of mine. We propped up a log and looked in the window."

The physician said he went to his automobile to get his revolver. When he came back the log slipped and made a noise.

A minute later, he testified, Revelle came out, hiding his face under his coat, and then Mrs. Fisher told her husband it was a "dirty trick" for him to stand on the log.

The court ordered attorneys to attempt to arrange a settlement to avoid further testimony.

BRUSSELS, June 15.—A workman in the public gallery of the chamber of deputies fired today on Deputy Uytendaele, a Socialist. The deputy was uninjured.

Free to Toot

By United Press
CHICAGO, June 15.—Charles Delinghoff, 62, was free to toot his cornet to his heart's content today in spite of playing "Hail, Hail, the Gang's All Here" in such a fashion that officer James Keating thought it was "The Star-Spangled Banner."

"This man's charged with disturbing the peace," the officer told Judge Thomas A. Green, "but it ought to be sacrilege after the way he played the national anthem."

"I was doing the best I could," Delinghoff said, "and anyhow it was 'Hail, Hail, the Gang's All Here,' I was playing."

The court ordered the prisoner freed.

CONTRACT

as the BRIDGE EXPERTS PLAY IT

Famous Hands in Championship Bridge History—No. 21

BY W. E. M'KENNEY
Secretary, American Bridge League

Too often women are rated as conservative bidders at bridge, but not so today's champion, Mrs. G. A. Bennett of New York, who is a member of the team which holds the national mixed contract team-of-four championship.

In the following hand Mrs. Bennett puts one of her opponents to sleep with the ace of spades.

♠ 9-8-6-3	♠ A-Q
♥ A-10-9	♥ 10-5-4

The Bidding

Mrs. Bennett sat in the South. She held no biddable suit and opened the contracting with one no trump. While West has a biddable diamond suit, it is better to pass such a hand against a no trump than to bid it and perhaps drive the opponents into a suit contract, therefore, West passed.

North went to two no trump. East did not have a bad-looking hand, but hesitated to overcall when between two no trump bidders, and now Mrs. Bennett went to three no trump.

The Play

West's opening lead was the six of diamonds. East played the jack and Mrs. Bennett, applying the rule of eleven, now could account for every diamond except the deuce.

She won the trick with the ace of diamonds and then led a small club, which she won in dummy with the ace.

She returned the three of clubs. East played the ten and Mrs. Bennett refused to cover.

East, having no diamond to return, led his fourth best spade—the five. Mrs. Bennett played the jack and West's seven marked him with no spades higher than the five.

Mrs. Bennett, still determined to set her club suit, returned the six, which West won with the king. Mrs. Bennett discarding a spade from dummy.

When the hand was played, West cashed his king and queen of diamonds, east discarding the four of spades and four of hearts. Mrs. Bennett played the four and nine of spades.

West continued with the deuce of diamonds, which Mrs. Bennett won in dummy with the ten. East discarding the ten of spades and now Mrs. Bennett discarded her deuce of spades.

A small heart then was won by Mrs. Bennett with the queen. She cashed her two good clubs, discarding two spades from dummy, and East was helpless.

He could discard the queen of spades on one club, but if he now discarded the ace of spades, Mrs. Bennett's king will be good, while if he discarded the seven of hearts—as he did—Mrs. Bennett played her king of hearts, overtook in dummy with the ace and won the last trick with the ten of hearts.

You might say that when West

DEMANDS CURB ON BUYING OF THEFT POULTRY

Lacey Says State Farmers
Lose $1,000,000
Each Year.

Farmers of Indiana are robbed of $1,000,000 worth of poultry annually, major portion of which is sold on markets in larger cities, according to information before Herbert E. Wilson, county prosecutor, today.

Since the Marion county market receives largest shipments of poultry, Wilson has started action to curb dealers who buy stolen poultry.

"During 1929 poultry valued at $1,000,000 was stolen in Indiana," John H. Lacey, representative of farmers, said in a letter to Wilson. "In 1931, while more poultry in numbers was stolen than in 1929, the estimated value was $750,000, due to lower market prices."

"I am convinced that prosecutors of the state must act to stop poultry thefts," Wilson announced.

He ordered the county clerk to prepare a list of all county poultry dealers in order that the poultry dealers' law may be enforced.

A check will be made to determine whether dealers are licensed. "In many rural communities, particularly those near large cities, robbers and idlers are living off the work of honest farmers and their families," Lacey told Wilson.

"The 1929 legislature amended the old poultry dealers' law in such a way that the dealers and county prosecutors, if they comply with the law, can wipe out poultry stealing within a short time."

POSEY WANTS REPEAL PLANK

Taggart for Uninstructed Delegation.

Democrats of Indiana today are studying two proposals—that the state delegation to the national convention in Chicago late this month be without instruction as to a presidential nominee choice, and that the state platform to be adopted at the Indiana convention Tuesday carry a plank for immediate repeal of the eighteenth amendment and the Wright bone dry law.

Thomas Taggart, national committeeman from Indiana, advanced the uninstructed delegation proposal. Mayor Wood Posey of Terre Haute, seeking the nomination for Governor, suggested the dry law repeal.

"It is our desire to maintain a friendly attitude toward all of the aspirants for the presidential and vice-presidential nominations," Taggart asserted.

Posey's wet plank is dripping wet. Pending repeal of the dry amendment and the Wright law, he proposes immediate modification of the Volstead act.

His proposal is more radical than the prohibition plank adopted at the Republican state convention here last week.

"I am sure to maintain a friendly attitude toward all of the aspirants for the presidential and vice-presidential nominations," Taggart asserted.

Posey's wet plank is dripping wet. Pending repeal of the dry amendment and the Wright law, he proposes immediate modification of the Volstead act.

$528,689 CUT BY SCHOOL CITY IN NEW BUDGET

Large Reduction Is Contained in Measure Taken Under Advisement.

Reduction of $528,689 in cost of operating the schools of Indianapolis during the 1932-1933 term is contained in a budget taken under advisement at a meeting of the school board Tuesday night. For the coming term, the budget proposed is $6,864,217. Budget for the 1931-1932 term was $7,392,906.

The board did not attempt to fix a school tax rate owing to uncertainty as to what the valuation of city property for taxation will be.

The decreased budget was made possible by the following reductions:

Salaries for the coming year will total $4,903,545 as compared to last year's total of $5,296,795. Capital outlay was reduced from $209,035 to $143,565; supplies, $154,017 to $138,831; fixed charges, $1,169,574 to $1,142,900; utilities, $173,213 to $171,630; maintenance, $145,125 to $132,050, and miscellaneous items, $245,106 to $231,606.

In a total of 301 items comprising the budget, there were reductions in 178; thirty are increased and ninety-three unchanged.

Janitors and custodians suffered a 5 per cent cut in pay, to become effective Thursday.

As part of his report, Superintendent Paul C. Stetson announced appointment of three grade school principals.

They are Murray A. Dahlgren, school No. 9; George H. Fisher, school No. 58, and Lawrence Stafford, school No. 67. Dahlgren formerly was research director in the city schools. Stetson also announced appointment of Mary Leatz as commercial instructor in Crispus Attucks high school.

ROB TWO GAS STATIONS

Bandits Obtain $45, Attendants Report to Police.

Robbing two filling station attendants Tuesday night, bandits obtained $45, according to police.

Claude Kendall, 114 East Twenty-seventh street, attendant at a station at Twenty-second street and Capitol avenue, handed over $15 when held up by a Negro thug wielding a sawed-off shotgun.

Warned by a bandit that "this is no foolishness," G. L. Steffy, 1303 North Grant avenue, attendant at a station at 4702 East Tenth street, was robbed of $30.
