

Miss Ryker Wedded to Dr. Spivey

In a double ring ceremony at high noon today Miss Dorothy Ryker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Ryker, became the bride of Dr. Russell J. Spivey at the First Congregational church.

The church was arranged with palms, ferns and large baskets of pink roses, gladioli, delphinium and larkspur. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Ellis W. Hay.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of pastel blue chiffon and lace, fashioned princess style. A sleeveless jacket of blue lace was worn. Her large picture hat of pink was banded with blue satin, tying in a bow at the side. She wore pink silk mesh gloves and pink slippers and carried a shower bouquet of pink roses and delphinium.

Brother Is Best Man

Miss Imogene Pierson, the only attendant, wore a gown of pink chiffon trimmed in ruffles of net. She wore blue slippers, blue silk mesh gloves and picture hat trimmed in pink. Her bouquet was of white roses and pink larkspur.

Arthur Spivey, of Thornton, the bridegroom's brother, was best man. Ushers were William Ralph Bockstahler and Wallace Sims.

Mrs. Ryker wore a three-piece ensemble of navy blue chiffon with cream overblouse. Mrs. Spivey wore black chiffon.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. C. Hulton Eberhard, organist, played "Estrellita," and Schubert's "Serenade." During the ceremony she played "Speed Thee My Arrow," a Pi Beta Phi sorority song; "Delta Upsilon Sweetheart Song," and "To a Wild Rose."

Leave On Wedding Trip

Miss Ruth Otte, soloist, sang "An Sweetness, 'Tis Life" and "Until." Members of the Mu Phi Epsilon sorority, who sat together, sang "The Mu Phi Triangle Song." Following a reception at the church the couple left for a wedding trip.

Mrs. Spivey wore a three-piece knitted suit of red and white. The blouse and accessories were of white. Dr. and Mrs. Spivey will be at home during the summer at Lake Maxinkuckee, where Dr. Spivey is connected with the Culver Military Academy.

Mrs. Spivey attended Butler university, where she belonged to Pi Beta Phi sorority, and Mu Phi Epsilon. Dr. Spivey was graduated from Indiana university and the Indiana University School of Medicine. He is a member of Delta Upsilon and Phi Rho Sigma medical fraternities.

THE DANGEROUS AGE

EVERY day the mail brings us a flood of letters... many from middle-aged women. They prove that Change of Life need not always be dreaded. They tell how the headaches, backaches, can be overcome or avoided.

Please read the end of a typical letter. It's from Mrs. MacCraigh. "I took three bottles. It made me strong and healthy. I will always praise your medicine and tell other women about it."

HAAS ORDERED TO MAKE GOOD MISSING $6,590

Court Rules Estate's 'Lost' Funds Must Be Replaced by Former Trustee.

Schuyler A. Haas, prominent Indianapolis attorney and politician, today was ordered to replace $6,590.50 which probate court ruled is missing from an estate of which he was trustee.

An accounting of funds in a $60,000 trust, left under the will of Christian Wisnimer, Marion county farmer, was made by Albert Rabb, judge pro tem.

Rabb ruled today that Haas must account for $6,543.79 of capital and $46.71 income on the Mt. Jackson sanitarium, West Washington street, part of the estate.

"The regrettable manner in which Haas' books and records were kept necessitated an audit, the expense of which he must bear," the ruling stated.

"Haas has accounted for $50,732.21 of the total capital fund of $57,276, entrusted to him," Rabb held, declaring that "how the deficit arose is immaterial."

At a probate court hearing on the matter, Charles F. Wisnimer, a son, and other heirs charged the trust had diminished approximately $11,000.

Haas was removed as trustee by Probate Judge Smiley N. Chambers Dec. 15, 1931. John J. Reilly, Indianapolis real estate dealer, now is trustee.

THREAT IS MADE TO CUTHBERTSON

Warned of Violence for Water Rate Actions, He Declares.

Threat of mob violence has been made against Commissioner Harry K. Cuthbertson, who is writing a new emergency order in the Indianapolis Water Company rate case, he reported today.

At the close of the two-day public hearing in the case Tuesday, Cuthbertson went home to study the evidence in the case, he said.

Late at night he was called by telephone, severely censured for his conduct of the case and threatened with mob violence. The man making the call said that the commissioner had not given "suffering citizens a chance to testify."

Cuthbertson said he will continue to write orders as he "deems best in the interest of the public welfare, and I will not be deterred by threats."

Carl Wilde and A. B. Cronk, representing apartment house owners whose rates were increased by the compromise April 1, filed a brief with Cuthbertson today asking that no emergency order be written.

Their clients have obtained an injunction against collection of the increases, and they ask the rates stand until after the injunction suit is tried out on appeal to the supreme court.

Should an emergency rate order be written, they ask that old rates be restored to apartment houses, since an increase only could be granted by showing discrimination on that class of service.

Despite all protests, Cuthbertson stuck to his contention at the close of the hearing that "an emergency does exist" and continued to write order in preparation for the commission conference Friday.

The company petitioned for restoration of old rates, but it is likely that the commissioner may construe the "emergency" in favor of the public rather than the company.

JIM AND WALT ARE BETTER THAN EVER

Harry and Dan Downing Do a Lot of Nice Clowning in 'Oh, Madame,' One of the Bright Spots at Lyric.

BY WALTER D. HICKMAN
It is very plain that Jim and Walt are growing in the show business. They have ironed out nearly all of the rough spots and today have an act full of charm and melody.

One of the nicest bits of their present act is the Little Jack Little impersonation by Jim at the piano. The voice rings true to the original and it is needless to say that Jim knows how to play the piano.

They are improving their showmanship and their material is clean and swift moving. Their work on the radio has broadened this team and has improved them.

Their voices are not exceptional, but they know how to harmonize. Their work reflects hours and hours of hard work in preparing their material.

Harry and Dan Downing go in for some nonsense along the lines of the late Bert Savoy. The roudy female impersonation of one of the men is done on broad but decent lines of burlesque. To me this team is the laugh sensation of the bill.

Frances Dale, Jack Paige and William Pollard have a sketch called "Dog-Gone." The action takes place in a lawyers' office where a man and his wife are seeking a divorce. The bone of contention is a pet dog. Great acting is not demanded by anyone in the cast. The light plot has some laughs, most of them delivered by Paige. The act has a nice set.

A very poor dance and song act is offered by Whiteside, Anita and Brower company. The pianist should be heard and not seen. His over-exaggerated actions does lot of harm to the act.

Bob Witt plays everything from a butcher knife up to a one-man band instrument. I was late and missed the first act.

The movie is "Mystery Ranch." Now at the Lyric.

Other theaters today offer: "The Tenderfoot," at the Indiana; "When a Feller Needs a Friend," at the Palace; "Street of Women," at the Apollo; "Week-End Marriage," at the Circle, and burlesques at the Colonial.
