

BROWNS WIN SEVENTH IN EIGHT TILTS WITH SENATORS

Lowly St. Louis Club Raps Nat Slab Stars

Washington Tumbles, 17 to 3, as Athletics Beat Tigers and Move Into Second Place Tie; Jimmy Foxx Clouts Two Homers.

NEW YORK, June 15.—Walter Johnson's Washington Senators were snowed under again Tuesday by the St. Louis Browns, 17 to 3.

On May 18, just after Bill Killefer's partisans had inflicted four humiliating defeats upon the Senators, the Big Train moaned: "St. Louis is our Jonah. We can beat the top-notch clubs, but we are putty in the hands of the lowly Browns. Something must be done; they are spoiling our pennant chances."

Tuesday's defeat, which allowed Connie Mack's Athletics to move into a second-place American League tie with the Senators, marked seven losses for Washington in eight starts this season against St. Louis. In the eight games played, the Browns have converted 101 hits into 56 runs, while the Senators turned 65 hits into 27 runs.

Returns for Stadium Bout

Ray Trumble

AREMATCH brings Ray Trumble, Illinois middleweight, back to Indianapolis. He is to meet Sammy (Kid) Slaughter under the floodlights at Perry Stadium next Tuesday night. Last winter the pair put up a sensational ten-round battle at the Armory, Trumble winning the decision from Bud Taylor's protege. Slaughter is state middleweight champion.

Schmeling Is 10-9 Choice

NEW YORK, June 15.—Champion Max Schmeling is a 10-to-9 favorite to defeat challenger Jack Sharkey in their fifteen-round title bout at Long Island City Tuesday night.

Jack Doyle, Broadway betting commissioner, quoted 3 to 2 against a knockout, 3 to 1 that Schmeling would not knock out Sharkey and 2 to 1 that Sharkey would not knock out Schmeling. He said he expected the 10-to-9 odds to carry the men into the ring, although heavy money placed on either man might change the figures because of the light betting.

Ellis Captures Butler Crown

In the final tussle of the Butler university golf tournament, Don Ellis defeated Elbert Gilliom, 7 and 6, to win the 1932 title. The thirty-six-hole final match was held at the Meridian Hills course.

The match terminated the annual links tourney at the Fairview school in which more than twenty-five entries participated. Ellis is a junior and a former member of the Shortridge high school golf team. The tourney this year was sponsored in an effort to stimulate interest in the sport. It is probable that golf will be added to competitive college sports at Butler next year.

Wild Bill Cummings to Pilot Boyle Valve Special at Roby

CHICAGO, June 15.—Wild Bill Cummings, heavy-footed Indianapolis youngster, will be at the wheel of Mike Boyle's Miller in the 100-mile national championship dirt track classic at Roby-Chicago speedway Sunday.

It is the same Boyle Valve Special which the popular Billy Arnold rode in his spectacular comeback victory at Roby on May 8 and in which Lou Moore qualified for the pole position at the Indianapolis 500-mile grid.

The speedy Cummings is anxious to pull through with a victory at Chicago Sunday to beat back the challenges of Howdy Wilcox, Ira Hall, Bob Carey and other newcomers to the big time, whom Wild Bill formerly raced into defeat on the "bull ring" tracks, but who have pushed the Hoosier youth back in their 1932 big league meetings.

Fred Frame, Wilcox, Carey, Byron Saulpaugh and many other stars who raced at Indianapolis on Memorial day, are in Sunday's race at Roby.

Tribesmen and Blues Open 7-Game Series

BY EDDIE ASH

Times Sports Editor

Eddie Zwilling, the former fly chaser who used to clout the ball over the fence for the Indians in the days before the ball was loaded with rabbit, invaded Perry stadium today with his Kansas City Cowboy Blues for a seven-game series with Emmet McCann's Indians. The teams have met six times this season and the games were shared, each club winning three. Eddie Zwilling's past-timers are in fifth place and the Indians are in third.

The Blues were weakened by injuries some time ago, but are showing power again and a lot of excitement is promised during their long stay at the Tribe park. Two tilts were carded this afternoon, the first at 1:30. It was "boys' day" at the stadium and all lads under 16 were admitted free.

The Thursday and Friday battles will be played at night, the Saturday fray in the afternoon and the series will close with a second twin bill next Sunday afternoon.

new Red Bird park, where right field was sold short.

In the only other action in the American Association Tuesday the Milwaukee Brewers noosed out the Toledo Hens, 4 to 3. The St. Paul at Louisville game was washed out and the Minneapolis-Indianapolis tilt billed for Tuesday was played off in last Sunday's double-header.

Owne Bush and his Millers are leading the A. A. flag chase by three games over the Birds and three and one-half games over the Indians. Bush had his crew in Toledo today.

St. Paul drew the opening night game at Columbus. The bulls will be turned on in the Red Bird park Friday of this week. It will be the first after-dark contest ever staged in the Buckeye capital and the club officials there are preparing to handle a great crowd.

Minneapolis picked up another catcher today in Paul Richards, purchased from the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Don't mistake the moaning you hear next week for wind. It will be the baseball pass holders giving vent to anguish over the 10 cents they will be docked under the new federal amusement tax regulations.

The tail-end Saints are a mysterious outfit. They released pitcher Ace Elliott and he signed with the Philly Nationals. Jimmy Reese, second baseman, was benched for light hitting and the St. Louis Cardinals made an offer and obtained him. Now several big league clubs are bidding for the services of Marty Hopkins, clever Apostle third sacker. Clubs mentioned as interested in Hopkins are Athletics, Browns, Reds and Cubs. It is said Owner Bob Connery is on the point of making a deal and will ask plenty for Marty as a means of balancing the Apostle budget.

Hopkins is one of the best fielding third sackers of A. A. history, and this season has been batting around or above the .300 mark.

Johnny Kroner, owned by the Indians, is playing third for Terre Haute. He was returned by Albany of the Eastern League and the Tois took him on.

Bill Thomas, Tribe righthander, optioned to Knoxville in the Southern Association early this season, hauled a 4 to 0 shutout for the Smokies the other day.

GOLF STARS RETURN

NEW YORK, June 15.—Three members of the American women's golf team that recently played aboard the Olympic. They were Miss Virginia Van Wie of Chicago, Mrs. Harley Higbie of Detroit, and Miss Marion Hollins of California. Other members of the team returned last week.

Farmer Named Yale Director

By United Press

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 15.—Malcolm (Mac) Farmer of Hartford, Conn., former Yale half back, has been selected as the new chairman of the board of athletic control of the Yale Athletic Association, effective July 1.

Farmer, for the last two years a member of Yale's alumni football committee, will assume some duties of both the chairman of the board and the graduate director of athletics.

Cochet, Vines Likely Rivals in Net Finals

By United Press

WIMBLEDON, England, June 15.—Tennis experts today foresaw a Vines-Cochet match as a likely finish to the lawn tennis championships starting here Monday.

The draw made today placed Ellisworth Vines of California, United States national champion, in one half and Henri Cochet, French internationalist, in the other.

Vines, whose name was the first drawn, faces A. Duplax of France in the first round. Frank X. Shields of New York will play the Egyptian Davis cupper, Pierre Grandguillot in a first round match in Cochet's half of the draw. Sidney B. Wood of New York will play a comparative unknown, A. M. Wedd, also in Cochet's bracket.

Bunny Austin, Britain's great star, also is in Cochet's half, while Jean Borotra of France and Jack Crawford of Australia are in Vines' bracket. Gregory S. Mangin of Newark, N. J., drawn in the Cochet half, first will meet the Czechoslovakian Davis cupper, Ladislav Hecht.

Mrs. Helen Wills Moody and Miss Helen Jacobs, both of California, were regarded as likely finalists in the women's division. Mrs. Moody, along with Mme. Rene Mathieu of France, Miss Betty Nuthall of Great Britain and Miss Sarah Palfrey of Brookline, Mass., drew first-round byes.

Miss Palfrey will meet Miss E. M. Dearman of England in the second round. Miss Nuthall and Mme. Mathieu, who are in Miss Jacobs' half of the draw, also are to meet in the second round.

Mrs. Moody will play Miss Rollin Conquer of Holland in the second round. Among others in Mrs. Moody's half of the draw are Mrs. Eileen Bennett Whittingstall of England, Miss Elizabeth Ryan, formerly of California, now of London, and Mrs. Lawrence A. Harper of California.
