

Popular City Couple Will Wed Tonight

Miss Dorothy Mae McClellan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy O. McClellan, 3554 Graceland avenue, and Charles O. Cedarholm, will be married in a ceremony to be solemnized at 8:30 tonight in the Fairview Presbyterian church. Mr. Cedarholm's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Cedarholm, 3144 Graceland avenue.

The Rev. Edward Haines Kistler will read the service before a banking of palms and ferns, studded with summer flowers, and lighted with candles.

Mrs. Frank Edenharter, organist, will play, and will accompany Mrs. Ruth Devin, who will sing "I Love You Truly," and "At Dawning."

Wearing Satin Gown

The bride will enter with her father, who will give her in marriage. She will wear a fitted gown of white bridle satin, fashioned simply, with long tight sleeves. Her tulle veil will fall from a lace cap, and will be edged with lace. She will carry a sheaf of lilies.

The matron of honor will be Mrs. F. W. Nichols Jr., who will wear a gown of pink lace, with picture hat to match, and will carry an arm bouquet of cut flowers. Mrs. Stewart Cedarholm will be the bridesmaid. Her gown will be of green lace, and she will wear a hat to match, and carry summer flowers.

F. W. Nichols Jr., will be the best man. Ushers will be Robert McClellan, brother of the bride, and Stewart Cedarholm.

Mrs. McClellan will wear beige georgette and lace, and Mrs. Cedarholm will wear natural colored lace. Each will have a shoulder corsage of summer flowers.

Reception Is Planned

A reception at the home of the bride's parents will follow the ceremony. Baskets of summer flowers and greenery will be used in decorating.

Mr. Cedarholm and his bride will leave after the reception for a motor trip. They will be at home next week at 3631 Graceland avenue. The bride's traveling wardrobe will be green and white, with white accessories.

Out-of-town guests will include Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hamilton, Evansville; Mrs. Flora Dephard and daughter Ruth, and Mrs. Thomas Harry Dephard, Newcastle.

Dinner Parties Will Feature Lawn Festival

Numerous dinner parties will be held tonight at the cabaret dinner at the Propylaeum Club, which will close the lawn festivities which will be held from 3 to 6 this afternoon.

Among the parties is one to be given by Mrs. Benjamin Hitz, who will have twenty-four guests. Mrs. Robert A. Adams will entertain twelve; Mrs. Edwin H. Pory, ten; Mrs. Arthur V. Brown, Mrs. Edson T. Wood and Mrs. Walter C. Marmon, eight. Parties of six have been arranged by Mesdames Jacob Dunn, H. G. Hamer, M. A. Ryan, William J. McKee, Albert Seaton, and Miss Sophie Casey of Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Henry Dillman and Mrs. Dorothy Goodrich will be hostesses at parties of five. Smaller groups will be entertained by Mesdames Ralph Spann, Clarence Allg, Walter Greenough, F. R. Kautz, Thomas R. Kackley, Carl Russell Sullivan, Roy Kahler, Thomas H. Spann, and Miss Hilda Stewart.

Cards will follow dinner. The afternoon party was featured by supervised games, a treasure hunt and other entertainment for members and their families.

ALUMNAE GROUP IS ENTERTAINED

Alumnae of Alpha Phi in Indianapolis and their husbands were entertained at a buffet supper and bridge party given Wednesday night by Dr. and Mrs. James C. Carter, 44 East Fifty-seventh street. The serving table was centered with a bowl of garden flowers. Guests included:

Messrs. and Mesdames Neal Grider, Raymond D. Grimes, P. T. Jenkins, Wood Moll, A. S. Rowe, Horace Townsend, Donald Walker, Horace Wright, Raymond Gill, Bruce McIntosh, Edward Zink, Ross Lindlow, James Ruddell, Mrs. Irwin McDonald, Miss Halsey Mendelhall and E. K. Watson.

MISS MOORE WINS HONORS AT VASSAR

Miss Sarah Margaret Moore, daughter of Alfred C. Moore, 3706 Washington boulevard, was one of thirty-seven in a class of 270 who was graduated with honor from Vassar college Monday.

Miss Moore was graduated in 1928 from Tudor Hall. Miss Cecile Jack of Decatur, Ill., a classmate of Miss Moore's at Tudor Hall, also was included in the honor group.

Give Surprise Party

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Branham, 1027 Newman street, entertained Wednesday night with a surprise birthday dinner in honor of Miss Vera Miller. Guests with Miss Miller were Miss Mary Branham, Grey Krause, W. L. Johnson and L. B. Robeson. Out-of-town guests were Dr. and Mrs. F. M. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Rose Small and Mrs. Florence Barber, all of Chicago.

A Day's Menu

Breakfast—

Chilled dried apricots, cereal, cream, plain omelet, crisp toast, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—

Cheese, ramkins, lettuce sandwiches, cherry tarts, hot chocolate.

Dinner—

Shin of beef with brown gravy, matinee potatoes, creamed new cabbage, mixed vegetable salad, banana cream pie, milk, coffee.

WHAT'S IN FASHION—

New Cards Intrigue Bridge Fans

Directed by AMOS PARRISH

NEW YORK, June 16.—What- ever else is in fashion, bridge—contract and auction—certainly is. Everywhere you go, folks are playing bridge.

Just lately we've seen it played in some unusual places. In an airplane. On the 8:15 a. m. commuters' express. On a penthouse terrace. On the beach. And—believe it or not—in a special bridge room off the lobby of a New York movie, planned for the use of patrons waiting for seats.

Children are playing it. So are great grandparents. Even blind folks, using cards embossed in Braille and announcing their plays. Your cards can carry your own monogram... a painting or cartoon of your favorite sport—hunting, fishing, sailing, tennis, golf, polo... a picture of your pet dog or flower.

Washington Silhouettes

This Bicentennial year George and Martha Washington have appeared on cards in silhouette. Historical scenes are popular. And there's no end to geometrics and modernistics.

Some cards are labeled "We" on one pack and "They" on the other—or "North-South" and "East-West"—to help remember which pack you've used and who deals.

For children there are cards about 1½ inches long. For use on the beach or in other breezy spots, there are cards some six inches by four or wooden cards the size of dominoes to be stood on racks instead of held in the hand.

So whatever you're like and whenever you play you can have appropriate cards.

Pastel Green Helps Eyes

Some of the newest have pastel green or cream backgrounds which oculists claim are easier on the eyes.

Modernistic faces have appeared, too (one is sketched), and are an interesting change.

If you're a contract beginner, you can have cards with broad instructions on them. Or a table cover with instructions in either the Approach-Forcing or Official system printed before each player's place.

If you have contract score troubles, there are aids. A pencil counts it—not vulnerable, vulnerable, undoubted, doubled or redoubled—when you turn the barrel.

Score Pad Revolves

And a new score pad has an automatic revolving scorer attached.

A new table opens when just one leg is pulled. Another has a drawer on each side that pulls out to hold score pad, ash tray or glass.

Prizes often present a problem. If you'd like suggestions—for men, women, and "boobies"—send the coupon.

(Copyright, 1932, Amos Parrish)

NAME _____
ST. _____
CITY _____
STATE _____

Next: Accessories smart with cotton dress.

PARTY TO BE HELD FOR BRIDE-ELECT

Mrs. Lowell Russell Hess, 826 East Sixty-first street, will entertain tonight at her home in honor of Miss Frances Josephine Walters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Walters, 5934 College avenue, who will be married June 22 to Lewis Hornaday Fickett.

The decorations will be roses and delphiniums. Guests with the bride-elect and her mother, Mrs. Walters, will be:

Mesdames William Weiss, James McClellan, Charles Walker, and the Messrs. Flora Ellen Walters, Mary Margaret Patrick, Henrietta Juncus, Ann Burkett, Frances Smith and Mary Kinneman of Martinsville.

'MISS PARK'

Miss Genevieve Smith will be "Miss Roberts Park" in the pageant to be presented at the Roberts Park lawn festival to be held Friday on the church grounds at Vermont and Delaware streets.

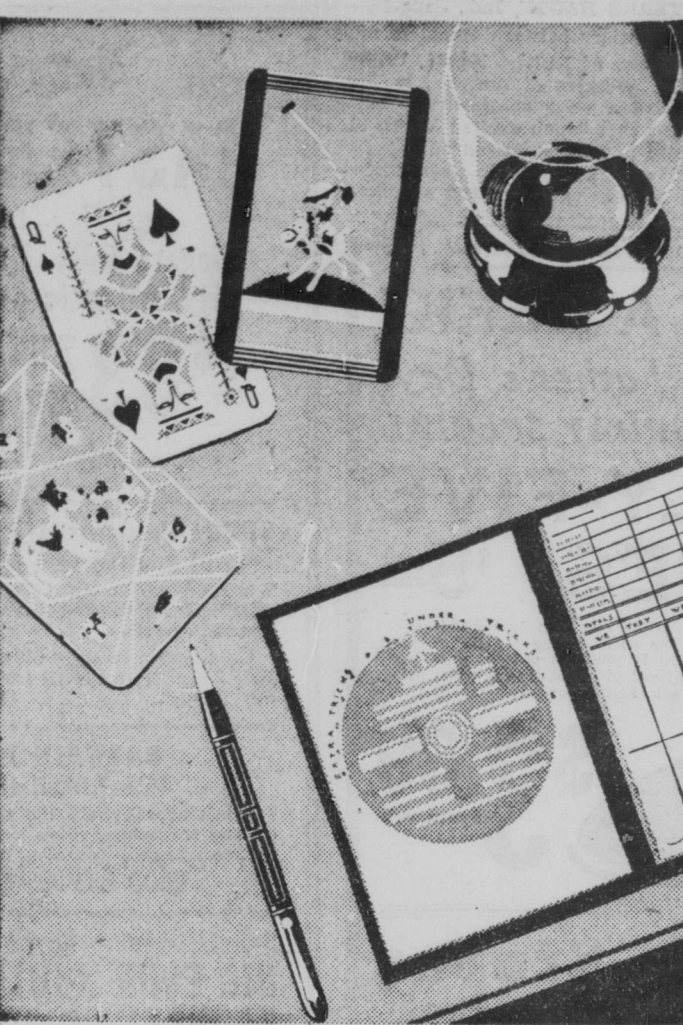

All departments are co-operating sponsoring the event, which will begin at 6:15 with a dinner served by women of the church under direction of Mrs. Jesse South.

The pageant will portray the history of the church. A playlet entitled "A Maker of Dreams," has been arranged by Mrs. J. H. Smiley, also director of the pageant. Leading parts in the playlet will be taken by Miss Margaret Smith, Harold Gill and Robert Brock.

Music will be provided by a boys' band.

Sorority to Meet

Gamma Phi Zeta sorority will meet tonight at the home of Mrs. Ernest McDonald, 4921 West Fifteenth street.

MANNERS AND MORALS

By JANE JORDAN

If you find life an ordeal, write to your situation to Jane Jordan. Her comments on your letter will be published in this column.

Dear Jane Jordan—I've admired your broadmindedness and wonder if you could advise me how this can be acquired. I am asking about the same thing. I have been dating a fellow steady for a year and a half. We are both truly in love and would be married by now if financial conditions would permit.

In the meantime, I have been much too busy as all women in love are, and allowed him to take liberties with me which no good girl would permit. Always have been decent before, too decent, I suppose, for he is just too "fast" for me. I've tried everything to rouse his sense of decency.

I've refused him kisses, tried to keep him interested otherwise, but to no avail. He is 26 and I am 22 and we get along fine. Both of us have a lot of sense, as a whole. I don't think we ever would get over it if I quit him for good, which I don't want to do. However, I'm afraid it will be that. I simply can't go on like this. Please give your advice. I should suggest. This means as much as life and death to me.

C. A.

Dear C. A.—Your request is comparable to asking me whether you should lock the stable door after the horse is stolen. Now that you are involved, heart, body, and soul, in a love affair without benefit of clergy, I do not know whether you are headed toward eventual happiness in marriage, or whether your love will collapse in disillusionment and misery.

If I stand pat with the conventions and draw aside my skirts in holy horror while I admonish you to deny your natural impulses, you may blame me bitterly in some lonely future time as the murderer of your love affair.

If I side with Bertrand Russell and encourage you to go on as you are, I take an equally serious risk. For if the young man degenerates, as so many do, you will face the same dilemma, have done before.

When you feel that I should have saved you this final humiliation. Probably the best solution is for you both to take a chance on the financial side and get married. If both of you work, why can't you make the grade?

I feel the greatest sympathy for your predicament, but I can not advise you. You are in a situation where no one can guide you but yourself. Hundreds of other young couples face the same dilemma. Whereas they are madly in love, they can not marry, because of economic difficulties. What shall they do?

Self-denial has its advocates. But the greater number are gathered together on the side of self-denial. It is always safer to line up with the majority, and easier to live in harmony with it.

Whereas they are madly in love, they can not marry, because of economic difficulties. What shall they do?

Self-denial has its advocates. But the greater number are gathered together on the side of self-denial. It is always safer to line up with the majority, and easier to live in harmony with it.

Whereas they are madly in love, they can not marry, because of economic difficulties. What shall they do?

Self-denial has its advocates. But the greater number are gathered together on the side of self-denial. It is always safer to line up with the majority, and easier to live in harmony with it.

Whereas they are madly in love, they can not marry, because of economic difficulties. What shall they do?

Self-denial has its advocates. But the greater number are gathered together on the side of self-denial. It is always safer to line up with the majority, and easier to live in harmony with it.

Whereas they are madly in love, they can not marry, because of economic difficulties. What shall they do?

Self-denial has its advocates. But the greater number are gathered together on the side of self-denial. It is always safer to line up with the majority, and easier to live in harmony with it.

Whereas they are madly in love, they can not marry, because of economic difficulties. What shall they do?

Self-denial has its advocates. But the greater number are gathered together on the side of self-denial. It is always safer to line up with the majority, and easier to live in harmony with it.

Whereas they are madly in love, they can not marry, because of economic difficulties. What shall they do?

Miss Moore Honored at Tea-Shower

Mrs. Edward H. Kelly, 5047 Capitol avenue, entertained this afternoon with a "hostess" tea and shower for Miss Florence Moore, who will become the bride of Floyd James Meeker, Ft. Wayne, Saturday.

Miss Victoria Montani, harpist, who was a guest, played several selections during the afternoon.

At tea time the table was centered with pink and white roses, and greenery and lighted with cream colored candles, carrying out the bridal colors. Baskets of shasta daisies, delphinium and other garden flowers were arranged about the house. Mrs. J. Robert Shideler poured, assisted by Mrs. Gerald Redding, sister of the bride-elect, and Mrs. Ruth Eiteljorg.

Others guests were Mrs. A. H. Moore, mother of Miss Moore, and Mesdames Don D. Webster, Royal Oaks, Mich.; Russell Lowry, New York; Don H. Smith, Roy Pape, Earl R. Hubbell, Harry F. Reeds, Paul Feraszon, Neal Grider and Miss Mary Caswell.

Miss Moore's parents are Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Moore, 3641 North Pennsylvania street. The wedding will take place in the McKee chapel of the Tabernacle Presbyterian church.

State P. E. O. to Name Heads at Convention

By Times Special

VALPARAISO, June 16.—Election of officers and committee reports will receive attention today at the final meeting of the Indiana P. E. O. Sisterhood, which has been convening here.

Mr. Jennie Hearst, Greencastle, second vice-president, and Mrs. Horace Boggy, state organizer, spoke at the banquet held Wednesday night at the Dunes park hotel following a motor trip to the Dunes state park.

Mrs. Gladys Bassett, Thorntown, first vice-president, spoke at the morning session when reports, given by state officers and honor guests, were introduced.

Read and Broaden Your Mind

attachment, although I tremble as to your wisdom. Women are poor losers in love. A broken affair which leaves only a momentary mark on a man's mind sometimes sears the woman beyond her ability to recover.

If you want to broaden your views, read "The Right to Be Happy," by Mrs. Bertrand Russell; "The Conquest of Happiness," by Bertrand Russell, and the books of Judge Ben Lindsey. But make up your own mind, for I can not help you.

Dear Jane Jordan—I wrote to you once before and received a very satisfactory answer. I am asking about the same thing. I have been dating a fellow steady for a year and a half. We are both truly in love and would be married by now if financial conditions would permit.

In the meantime, I have been much too busy as all women in love are, and allowed him to take liberties with me which no good girl would permit. Always have been decent before, too decent, I suppose, for he is just too "fast" for me. I've tried everything to rouse his sense of decency.

I've refused him kisses, tried to keep him interested otherwise, but to no avail. He is 26 and I am 22 and we get along fine. Both of us have a lot of sense, as a whole. I don't think we ever would get over it if I quit him for good, which I don't want to do. However, I'm afraid it will be that. I simply can't go on like this. Please give your advice. I should suggest. This means as much as life and death to me.

C. A.

Dear C. A.—Your request is comparable to asking me whether you should lock the stable door after the horse is stolen. Now that you are involved, heart, body, and soul, in a love affair without benefit of clergy, I do not know whether you are headed toward eventual happiness in marriage, or whether your love will collapse in disillusionment and misery.

If I stand pat with the conventions and draw aside my skirts in holy horror while I admonish you to deny your natural impulses, you may blame me bitterly in some lonely future time as the murderer of your love affair.

If I side with Bertrand Russell and encourage you to go on as you are, I take an equally serious risk. For if the young man degenerates, as so many do, you will face the same dilemma, have done before.

When you feel that I should have saved you this final humiliation. Probably the best solution is for you both to take a chance on the financial side and get married. If both of you work, why can't you make the grade?

I feel the greatest sympathy for your predicament, but I can not advise you. You are in a situation where no one can guide you but yourself. Hundreds of other young couples face the same dilemma. Whereas they are madly in love, they can not marry, because of economic difficulties. What shall they do?

Self-denial has its advocates. But the greater number are gathered together on the side of self-denial. It is always safer to line up with the majority, and easier to live in harmony with it.

Whereas they are madly in love, they can not marry, because of economic difficulties. What shall they do?

Self-denial has its advocates. But the greater number are gathered together on the side of self-denial. It is always safer to line up with the majority, and easier to live in harmony with it.

Whereas they are madly in love, they can not marry, because of economic difficulties. What shall they do?

Self-denial has its advocates. But the greater number are gathered together on the side of self-denial. It is always safer to line up with the majority, and easier to live in harmony with it.

Whereas they are madly in love, they can not marry, because of economic difficulties. What shall they do?

Self-denial has its advocates. But the greater number are gathered together on the side of self-denial. It is always safer to line up with the majority, and easier to live in harmony with it.

Whereas they are madly in love, they can not marry, because of economic difficulties. What shall they do?

Self-denial has its advocates. But the greater number are gathered together on the side of self-denial. It is always safer to line up with the majority, and easier to live in harmony with it.

Whereas they are madly in love, they can not marry, because of economic difficulties. What shall they do?

Self-denial has its advocates. But the greater number are gathered together on the side of self-denial. It is always safer to line up with the majority, and easier to live in harmony with it.

Dainty Summer Bracelet

A bracelet of antique gold, exquisitely chased, is shown here worn by Louise Grady, musical comedy star. The large cabochon turquoise is encrusted with a design of seed pearls. Such a bracelet proves a charming accessory to a simple organdy frock for the summer evening dance.

Card Parties

Ladies' Society, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, will give a card party at 8:30 tonight in the hall, English avenue and Shelby street.

Comanche council 47, Degree of Pochontas, will give a benefit card party at 8:30 Friday night at Red Men's hall, Morris and Lee streets.

Indianapolis chapter, Women of the Moose, will hold a card party at 2:30 Thursday at 135 North Delaware street. Mrs. William Anderson is chairman.

STATEHOUSE CLUB GIVES LAWN PARTY

Statehouse Women's Democratic Club entertained with a lawn party Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Sylvia Searcy, 601 North Wallace street.

Guests were Mrs. Irene Myrick and Marie Spindler also were hostesses. The speakers were William O'Neil, William Storen and R. Earl Peters. Ninety-seven guests were entertained. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Bert Eppart and daughter of Brazil, and Mrs. Jack Edwards, wife of Marion's mayor.

ANNA J. BASH TO PRESENT RECITAL

Anna J. Bash, piano pupil of Miss Alice B. Cooper, will be presented in a recital at 8 Friday by the Irvington School of Music.

Assisting on the program will be Harold Bryant, pupil of Miss Adelaide Conte, and other pupils of Miss Cooper in a musical fantasy.

SORORITY CLOSES MUNCIE MEETING

Psi Iota Xi sorority closed its two-day national convention in Muncie with election of officers Wednesday night. Mrs. Anne Duemling, Ft. Wayne, was named national president. More than 200 delegates attended. Other officers elected were:

Mrs. Margaret Oliver, Muncie, vice-president; Mrs. Elizabeth Colvin, Princeton, secretary; Mrs. Margaret Loveless, Thorntown, treasurer; Mrs. Margaret Rainier, Seymour, conductress; Miss Margaret Crow, Petersburg, editor, and Mrs. Wanda Frederick, Kokomo, charity chairman.

Name Party Hosts

Hosts and hostesses for Avalon Country Club's June dinner-bridge Saturday night will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wands, Mr. and Mrs. George Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hanson and Mr. and Mrs. William Bookwalter. Members may invite guests.

DON'T GO RATTLING, CLICKING TO OFFICE

Earrings, bracelets that rattle, heels that make the foot totter, and sleeveless dresses are decidedly out of place in a business office, according to a series of rules for the 1932 business girl, which have been determined by the Katharine Gibbs school in New York City.

Feminine attractiveness is important in obtaining a position, they agree, but useless accessories detract from a business woman's position.

MARIE SHARKEY BECOMES BRIDE

Miss Marie Sharkey, niece of Mrs. James Hession of Brownsburg, was married at 8 this morning to John Linbeck of Dubois, Pa., at St. Malachi's church at Brownsburg. The Rev. James Shea read the nuptial mass.

A wedding breakfast was held at the Hession home. The couple will be at home at Dubois after July 1, when they will return from a motor trip.

Pledges to Entertain

Pledges of Alpha chapter, Omega Phi Tau sorority, will entertain with a bridge party at 8 Friday night at the Hoosier Athletic Club. All members of the sorority and their friends are invited.

COMMITTEE HEAD

Mrs. Eder Hostess
Mrs. Henry Eder, 713 North Lincoln avenue, will be hostess for a meeting of Beta chapter, Iota Psi Omega sorority, at 8 tonight.

Delta Omegas to Meet

Miss Martha Karns, 4164 Park avenue, will be hostess for a meeting of Delta Omega sorority at 8 tonight.

Beta Chapter to Meet

Beta chapter of Delta Tau Omega sorority will meet at 8 Friday at the Antlers.

Now Stop All Pain Instantly

Just one drop does it—then corn soon lifts off

FREEZONE

An amazing liquid has been discovered that actually ends all worry over corns. One tiny drop stops pain instantly... and a few more drops make the corn so loose you can lift it off with your fingers. It's FREEZONE—the safe, quick way to get rid of hard and soft corns and callouses. Get a bottle from your druggist and try it.

WATCH REPAIRING

Watch Cleaning ..... 99c
—Round Crystals ..... 9c
—Fancy Crystals ..... 25c
—Main Spring ..... 99c
—Jewels ..... 99c
All Work Guaranteed for 1 Year
DEE JEWELRY CO.
18 N. Illinois St.
Claypool Hotel Bldg.

WATCH REPAIRING

Finest Quality
All Work Guaranteed—Estimates FREE
Lowest Possible Prices
LEO KRAUSS CO.
Jewelers Since 1900
108 W. Wash. St. Claypool Hotel Bldg.

WATCH REPAIRING

Finest Quality
All Work Guaranteed—Estimates FREE
Lowest Possible Prices
LEO KRAUSS CO.
Jewelers Since 1900
108 W. Wash. St. Claypool Hotel Bldg.

WATCH REPAIRING

Finest Quality
All Work Guaranteed—Estimates FREE
Lowest Possible Prices
LEO KRAUSS CO.
Jewelers Since 1900
108 W. Wash. St. Claypool Hotel Bldg.

Taxation Is Discussed by Vote League

Points of a program to be backed during the special assembly of the legislature were discussed by the Indianapolis members of the legislative steering committee of the Indiana League of Women Voters, which met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Thomas D. Sheerin, 4330 Central avenue.

Problems of poor relief and tax reduction received careful study. A plan of poor relief used at Tulsa, Okla., was presented by Mrs. Edwin F. McNally. Mrs. Smiley Chambers, F. McNally, Mrs. Daniels and Mrs. J. W. Moore reviewed phases of the local situation. No action will be taken on various proposals for revision of the poor relief laws until additional study is made.

Mrs. S. Greenough, local president and secretary of the national organization, reported on the Wagner relief bill. This proposal is approved by the national league, with the exception that it recommends more careful safeguarding of the distribution of funds to the states.

The seventeen-point program for tax reduction and distribution published by the citizens' tax committee was studied. Other members of the committee which attended were:

Mrs. Warren K. Mannon, chairman, and Mesdames Jane Murrav, Dorothy Goodrich, Fletcher Hodges, reported on then, H. H. Coburn, S. N. Campbell, E. C. Ellis and Misses Sara Lauter and Florence K. Kirlin, state executive secretary.

EVELYN GOFF TO WED H. E. ABBOTT

Marriage of Miss Evelyn Goff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stillman Goff, Rockville, to Horace E. Abbott, Indianapolis, will take place at 3 this afternoon at the home of the bride's sister.

After the ceremony the couple will take a short wedding trip, and will be at home after June 25 at 10 Maplewood court, 37 Johnson avenue.

The bride is a graduate of De Pauw university and a member of Alpha Phi sorority. Mr. Abbott is a graduate of Purdue and Cornell. He belongs to Sigma Pi, Epsilon Sigma Phi, Phi Delta Kappa and Scabbard and Blade. He is the Marion county agricultural agent.

SORORITY SISTERS TO ATTEND DINNER

Miss Ellen Margaret Esterline, 5105 North Meridian street, who was graduated from Butler university this week, will entertain graduating members of the Alpha Delta Theta sorority at a dinner tonight.

Guests will be Misses Edith Barnhill, Emma Lou Mann, Ruth Wilcox, Edith Gauld, Katherine Maurer and Gilberta Heid.

</