

TAKING IT OVER

BY JOE WILLIAMS

NEW YORK, June 20.—Having fearlessly and without equivocation predicted the renomination of Mr. Herbert Hoover by the Republicans weeks in advance, I feel that I have no apologies to make as an expert, who calls "em as he sees 'em-and calls 'em right."

I like 'em tough like that. But in the case of the heavyweight championship Tuesday night in the new bowl over in Long Island City, I must beg to pass. Only a skilled psychiatrist should attempt the job.

You know what Schmeling the champion is and what he can do. He typifies all the stolid virtues popularly associated with the German athlete—thoroughness, gaucheness, furor, and a not too much imagination. You can be pretty sure he will run true to type.

But Sharkey, the challenger, is something else. He is a man of a different type, a man with a different nature. He is a man who is not a German, but a man who is a man.

There is no doubt that in time a man can acquire perfect self-control. By now Sharkey may have it. You can tell better when you see him in another tight spot. Sharkey held himself well in hand the first time he fought Schmeling and fouled out after being well in the lead and apparently on the way to the championship.

This particular bit of action occurred right in front of where I sat at the ringside. It was a very close call. I was sitting in the front row, and I was watching Sharkey during the confusion that followed. He stood in his corner with his head bowed, his hands on his knees, and he was looking down at the floor.

Not long afterward I went to see Sharkey fight again. This time against Primo Carnera. In the fourth round, Carnera hit Sharkey with a right hand that sent him reeling. Sharkey was on the ground, and he was looking up at Carnera with a look of surprise.

Within a period of less than twenty minutes the championship will be decided. The crowd good enough to stand up under the punishment of the four-mile grind should be an odds-on favorite to win the Olympic berth.

In 1928, California's mighty boatload in the Poughkeepsie in the record time of 18 min., 35.8 sec., and went on to capture the Olympic assignment and win the world's amateur championship in the international games.

Four years later, Coach J. E. Bright has produced another California wonder crew. He thinks his 1932 boatload is at least as good as the record-breaking combination.

Rated on nearly even terms with California at Syracuse, the favorites are the University of Washington, and Cornell's stalwart Crimmons. The less favored crews are those of the Navy, the defend-

I REGARD Schmeling as a very good fighter, but in no sense a great fighter. Sharkey isn't as good as he is used to be, and I am rating him off his best fight—against Maloney, Wills, Loughran and Carnera. Yet I think if he has one of his good nights he will win. But how are you going to tell in advance that he is going to have one of his good nights? Personally, I'm not going to try.

American Tennis Stars Open Bids for Wimbledon Titles

By United Press

WIMBLEDON, England, June 20.—The United States virtually won the women's singles title but only an even chance for the other four crowns as the British tennis championships opened today on Wimbledon's grass courts.

Mrs. Helen Wills Moody of California was the overwhelming favorite to win her fifth Wimbledon singles title in six years. The American stars were prepared for formidable competition in the men's singles and doubles, women doubles and mixed doubles.

Ellsworth Vines, the American singles champion, defeated Jules Duplaix of France in the opening match today, 7-5, 6-3, 6-4.

BASEBALL CALENDAR

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION	W.	L.	Pct.
Minneapolis	32	28	.53
Columbus	31	29	.51
Indianapolis	31	29	.51
Kansas City	31	29	.51
Toledo	31	29	.51
St. Paul	31	29	.51

AMERICAN LEAGUE	W.	L.	Pct.
New York	32	28	.53
Philadelphia	31	29	.51
Washington	31	29	.51
St. Louis	31	29	.51
Boston	31	29	.51

NATIONAL LEAGUE	W.	L.	Pct.
Chicago	32	28	.53
Boston	31	29	.51
Philadelphia	31	29	.51
St. Louis	31	29	.51
Pittsburgh	31	29	.51

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE	W.	L.	Pct.
Baltimore	32	28	.53
Buffalo	31	29	.51
Newark	31	29	.51
St. Paul	31	29	.51
Wash.	31	29	.51

Games Today	Time
Milwaukee at Indianapolis (nigh.)	7:30
Kansas City at Louisville	7:30
St. Paul at Detroit	7:30

AMERICAN LEAGUE	W.	L.	Pct.
New York at St. Louis	7:30
Philadelphia at Chicago	7:30
Washington at Cleveland	7:30
Boston at Detroit	7:30

NATIONAL LEAGUE	W.	L.	Pct.
Cincinnati at Brooklyn	7:30
Pittsburgh at Brooklyn	7:30
Chicago at Philadelphia	7:30
Only games scheduled.

Major Leaders	Player	AB	R	H	Pct.
LEADING BATTERS	W. Waver	32	21	42	.382
	W. Waver	32	21	42	.382
	W. Waver	32	21	42	.382
	W. Waver	32	21	42	.382
	W. Waver	32	21	42	.382

HOME RUNS	Player	AB	R	H	Pct.
FOX, Athletics	26	310	45	58	.187
FOX, Athletics	26	310	45	58	.187
FOX, Athletics	26	310	45	58	.187
FOX, Athletics	26	310	45	58	.187
FOX, Athletics	26	310	45	58	.187

HOME RUNS	Player	AB	R	H	Pct.
FOX, Athletics	26	310	45	58	.187
FOX, Athletics	26	310	45	58	.187
FOX, Athletics	26	310	45	58	.187
FOX, Athletics	26	310	45	58	.187
FOX, Athletics	26	310	45	58	.187

HOME RUNS	Player	AB	R	H	Pct.
FOX, Athletics	26	310	45	58	.187
FOX, Athletics	26	310	45	58	.187
FOX, Athletics	26	310	45	58	.187
FOX, Athletics	26	310	45	58	.187
FOX, Athletics	26	310	45	58	.187

ARLETT'S TITLE BATTLE IS 'OUT OF RED'

$146,000 in Cash Reported From Tickets, With $170,000 in Orders

Buzz Arlett Gets 3 Homers—31 for Season

By Times Special

BALTIMORE, June 20.—Buzz Arlett's big bat has brought major league scouts on the gallop to Baltimore. The veteran minor league star, who was sent back by the Phillies after a one-year trial, is leading all home run swatters with a total of thirty-one circuit drives. In addition, the giant fy-catcher is batting at a near 370 clip.

Arlett set the pace Sunday for the heavy-hitting Orioles as they won two games from Toronto and took over first place in the International League. He got two home runs in the first game, and added another in the nightcap.

But Buzz was forced to share Sunday's spotlight with two pitchers. Rufus Meadows, a Yankee farmhand toiling for Newark, pitched a no-hit, no-run game as the Bears defeated Montreal. Meadows is a young southpaw bought by the Yanks last year.

Buffalo tumbled out of the league lead by losing the first game of a twin bill with Jersey City, when Cascarella limited the Bisons to one hit and won a 1-to-0 decision.

Eight College Crews Set for Title Grind

By Stuart Cameron

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 20.—Eight varsity crews, trained to the minute, months of back-breaking preparation behind them, represented eastern and Pacific coast universities today in the thirty-sixth annual Poughkeepsie regatta.

The prizes were the national intercollegiate rowing championship and an inside lane in the quest of the Olympic regatta assignment.

Shortly before the sun dips behind the purple Catskill mountains, the eight slim cedar racing shells will be pushed down the lake course.

Within a period of less than twenty minutes the championship will be decided. The crew good enough to stand up under the punishment of the four-mile grind should be an odds-on favorite to win the Olympic berth.

In 1928, California's mighty boatload in the Poughkeepsie in the record time of 18 min., 35.8 sec., and went on to capture the Olympic assignment and win the world's amateur championship in the international games.

Four years later, Coach J. E. Bright has produced another California wonder crew. He thinks his 1932 boatload is at least as good as the record-breaking combination.

Rated on nearly even terms with California at Syracuse, the favorites are the University of Washington, and Cornell's stalwart Crimmons. The less favored crews are those of the Navy, the defend-

I REGARD Schmeling as a very good fighter, but in no sense a great fighter. Sharkey isn't as good as he is used to be, and I am rating him off his best fight—against Maloney, Wills, Loughran and Carnera. Yet I think if he has one of his good nights he will win. But how are you going to tell in advance that he is going to have one of his good nights? Personally, I'm not going to try.

The other three members of the United States Davis Cup team were to arrive today, and play Tuesday. They are Wilmer Allison, Francis Shields and John Van Ryn.

Allison and Van Ryn appear the strongest combination in the men's doubles, but they will have serious opposition in Borotra and Brugnon of France, Perry and Hughes of England and Crawford and Hopman of Australia.

Supporting Mrs. Moody in America's bid for women's honors are Miss Helen Jacobs, Miss Sarah Palfrey, Mrs. L. A. Harper and Mrs. Dorothy Burke.

Miss Jacobs and Miss Elizabeth Ryan stand out as the strongest American women's doubles combination.

Schmeling, Sharkey Invade N. Y. for 15-Round Go Tuesday

By United Press

NEW YORK, June 20.—That terrible fighting man, Jack Sharkey, has come to town to "knock the block off" Max Schmeling in their fifteen-round heavyweight title brawl Tuesday night at Long Island City.

The Bostonian, breathing fire and brimstone and vowing every brand of navy and Lithuanian curse upon Maxie's black head, parked himself at a downtown hotel and tried to relax.

Sharkey had little to say except about 10,000 words describing the various methods of mayhem with which he hoped to prove that Schmeling had "stolen" the title from him two years ago by "dropping to the floor and making faces."

Weight in Tuesday

The champion was to arrive today. Both men will weigh in at the boxing commission's headquarters Tuesday afternoon.

Jack and Max concluded their training Sunday at Orangeburg and Kingston, respectively. Neither had been out of bed. Neither suffered hand injuries during the long stage of training.

Despite Sharkey's threats and promises, Schmeling remains a slight favorite in the meagre betting, at odds of 10 to 9.

Sharkey will have at least a ten-pound weight advantage when they climb through the ropes. Jack scaled 200 pounds when he finished his workout Sunday, and Max registered 191. But Schmeling has the new howl in years. He is 26, while Sharkey is 29.

President William F. Carey of the Garden jubiliantly announced that a tabulation showed $146,000 had been received in actual cash and that $170,000 worth of tickets had been received.

Title Scrap at 10 P. M.

"The cash sales alone have yanked us out of the red," said Carey. "The total expense of the fight is slightly less than $100,000, and that includes $100,000 set aside as 'rent' for the new hotel."

Manager Joe Jacobs, trainer Max Machon and Doc Casey, a famous second, will be in Schmeling's corner. Manager Johnny Buckley, Trainer Al Lacey and Trainer Tony Polozolo, will work behind Sharkey.

Approximately 500 police will be on hand to keep the crowd in line.

The main bout is expected to go on about 10 p. m. (E. D. T.), after five preliminaries. The first bout, a four-rounder between Tommy Walsh of New York and Maxie Pinky of New York is scheduled for 8 p. m.

Other preliminaries program: Charles Reisland, Duit, vs. Hans Birkie, Oakland, Calif., 5; James J. Braden, St. Louis, vs. George E. Brown, St. Louis, 5; Lou Barba, New York, vs. John J. McLaughlin, New York, 5; and John J. McLaughlin, New York, vs. John J. McLaughlin, New York, 5.

The following four players with 76 complete the first sixteen after the 16th round. They are: George E. Brown, St. Louis; George E. Brown, St. Louis; George E. Brown, St. Louis; and George E. Brown, St. Louis.

The lineup may change in the first sixteen after the 16th round. They are: George E. Brown, St. Louis; George E. Brown, St. Louis; George E. Brown, St. Louis; and George E. Brown, St. Louis.

Pete Gilgrie of Pleasant Run was the only player scheduled to perform Saturday who could not make the grade. He was allowed to play his round in the 16th round, but he was not able to perform.

There were only one with one score. There was only one with one score. There was only one with one score. There was only one with one score. There was only one with one score.

Dr. Paul T. Hurt will defend his Columbia club championship at Avalon Thursday in the first of three major tournaments planned for club members during the season. Play will be on a 100-yard basis with many worthy awards for net and gross scores. Players may complete their round any time during the day from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m.

Dr. Paul T. Hurt will defend his Columbia club championship at Avalon Thursday in the first of three major tournaments planned for club members during the season. Play will be on a 100-yard basis with many worthy awards for net and gross scores. Players may complete their round any time during the day from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m.

The annual Columbia Club picnic and golf tournament, the first of three major tournaments planned for club members during the season. Play will be on a 100-yard basis with many worthy awards for net and gross scores. Players may complete their round any time during the day from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m.

The annual Columbia Club picnic and golf tournament, the first of three major tournaments planned for club members during the season. Play will be on a 100-yard basis with many worthy awards for net and gross scores. Players may complete their round any time during the day from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m.

The annual Columbia Club picnic and golf tournament, the first of three major tournaments planned for club members during the season. Play will be on a 100-yard basis with many worthy awards for net and gross scores. Players may complete their round any time during the day from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m.

The annual Columbia Club picnic and golf tournament, the first of three major tournaments planned for club members during the season. Play will be on a 100-yard basis with many worthy awards for net and gross scores. Players may complete their round any time during the day from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m.

The annual Columbia Club picnic and golf tournament, the first of three major tournaments planned for club members during the season. Play will be on a 100-yard basis with many worthy awards for net and gross scores. Players may complete their round any time during the day from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m.

The annual Columbia Club picnic and golf tournament, the first of three major tournaments planned for club members during the season. Play will be on a 100-yard basis with many worthy awards for net and gross scores. Players may complete their round any time during the day from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m.

The annual Columbia Club picnic and golf tournament, the first of three major tournaments planned for club members during the season. Play will be on a 100-yard basis with many worthy awards for net and gross scores. Players may complete their round any time during the day from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m.

The annual Columbia Club picnic and golf tournament, the first of three major tournaments planned for club members during the season. Play will be on a 100-yard basis with many worthy awards for net and gross scores. Players may complete their round any time during the day from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m.

The annual Columbia Club picnic and golf tournament, the first of three major tournaments planned for club members during the season. Play will be on a 100-yard basis with many worthy awards for net and gross scores. Players may complete their round any time during the day from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m.

Collins Quits Red Sox; McManus Named Pilot

Marty McManus

NEW YORK, June 20.—John (Shano) Collins, disheartened by his inability to blast the Boston Red Sox out of the doldrums, has resigned as manager in favor of Marty McManus, the Red Sox aggressive second base veteran.

Collins took over the job last year. The Sox finished in sixth place. After this season started, defeat piled on defeat, until his team had been beaten forty-four times in fifty-five starts. And Sunday, on McManus' first day as pilot, the Sox lost two more games to the Cleveland Indians, 9 to 3 and 6 to 3.

Collins watched the play from the grand stand. He had wired his resignation to President Bob Quinn at Boston, suggesting that McManus former Detroit star, be named his successor. Ill health and discouragement over the job were given as his reasons for quitting. Quinn tried to get Collins to reconsider, but Shano was "through."

Collins took over the job last year. The Sox finished in sixth place. After this season started, defeat piled on defeat, until his team had been beaten forty-four times in fifty-five starts. And Sunday, on McManus' first day as pilot, the Sox lost two more games to the Cleveland Indians, 9 to 3 and 6 to 3.

Collins watched the play from the grand stand. He had wired his resignation to President Bob Quinn at Boston, suggesting that McManus former Detroit star, be named his successor. Ill health and discouragement over the job were given as his reasons for quitting. Quinn tried to get Collins to reconsider, but Shano was "through."

Collins took over the job last year. The Sox finished in sixth place. After this season started, defeat piled on defeat, until his team had been beaten forty-four times in fifty-five starts. And Sunday, on McManus' first day as pilot, the Sox lost two more games to the Cleveland Indians, 9 to 3 and 6 to 3.

Collins watched the play from the grand stand. He had wired his resignation to President Bob Quinn at Boston, suggesting that McManus former Detroit star, be named his successor. Ill health and discouragement over the job were given as his reasons for quitting. Quinn tried to get Collins to reconsider, but Shano was "through."

Eighty Open Action in City Links Title Play

With several late entries signed up at the first tee this morning, Mrs. E. William Lee, president and starter for the annual Indianapolis Women's Golf Association city championship, estimated more than eighty feminine masher wielders would take part in the eighteen-hole qualifying round over Broadmoor course today.

Rains during the night slowed up the course but George Soutar, club pro, had the mowers busy early and when Miss Elizabeth Dunn, city champion, hit the first drive from the tee at 8:30 the course was declared to be in perfect shape. Soutar himself proved the course to be in the pink Sunday.

On nights after tonight when the players will be grouped into the flights of sixteen, with the low sixteen scorers making up the championship flight, and the others competing for match play to begin early Tuesday.

On nights after tonight when the players will be grouped into the flights of sixteen, with the low sixteen scorers making up the championship flight, and the others competing for match play to begin early Tuesday.

Baseball Tax Goes On Tuesday; Prices Boosted

Federal tax agents will go to the baseball firing line beginning Tuesday and start collecting from the fans. In other words grand stand customers and pass holders will be compelled to pay the new amusement tax of 10 per cent as part of the government's scheme to balance the budget. Bleacher fans in Indianapolis will escape the fee, paying 25 cents flat as usual.

The law does not affect prices at the series opener between Brewers and Indians at Perry stadium tonight. Starting with Tuesday's doubleheader, stadium prices will be as follows:

General admission grand stand—83 cents, up from 75 cents.

Reserved seats, Sundays, holidays, "ladies' nights"—$1.10, up from $1.00.

All passes—Ten cents, covering tax of 8 cents and service charge.

At games where women are admitted to grand stand, covering tax on 75-cent grand stand ticket will be 35 cents, covering tax on 75-cent seat and service charge.

Children under 12 are admitted to grand stand for 25 cents and it is said they will share the tax. On "ladies' nights," ladies under 16 are admitted free, they will be seated in the bleachers at no tax.

The Lexington A. C. defeated Hollywood A. C., 11 to 6. Smith and Robinson led the Lexington team. The Lexington team defeated Hollywood A. C., 11 to 6. Smith and Robinson led the Lexington team.

J. W. Bader Indians downed Marx Hill A. C., 11 to 6. Bader led the Indians team. The Lexington team defeated Hollywood A. C., 11 to 6. Smith and Robinson led the Lexington team.

Anderson, Ind.—Anderson Indians were smothered under an avalanche of sixteenth-inning hits by the Lexington team. The Lexington team defeated Hollywood A. C., 11 to 6. Smith and Robinson led the Lexington team.

Anderson, Ind.—Anderson Indians were smothered under an avalanche of sixteenth-inning hits by the Lexington team. The Lexington team defeated Hollywood A. C., 11 to 6. Smith and Robinson led the Lexington team.

Anderson, Ind.—Anderson Indians were smothered under an avalanche of sixteenth-inning hits by the Lexington team. The Lexington team defeated Hollywood A. C., 11 to 6. Smith and Robinson led the Lexington team.

Anderson, Ind.—Anderson Indians were smothered under an avalanche of sixteenth-inning hits by the Lexington team. The Lexington team defeated Hollywood A. C., 11 to 6. Smith and Robinson led the Lexington team.

Anderson, Ind.—Anderson Indians were smothered under an avalanche of sixteenth-inning hits by the Lexington team. The Lexington team defeated Hollywood A. C., 11 to 6. Smith and Robinson led the Lexington team.

Anderson, Ind.—Anderson Indians were smothered under an avalanche of sixteenth-inning hits by the Lexington team. The Lexington team defeated Hollywood A. C., 11 to 6. Smith and Robinson led the Lexington team.

Anderson, Ind.—Anderson Indians were smothered under an avalanche of sixteenth-inning hits by the Lexington team. The Lexington team defeated Hollywood A. C., 11 to 6. Smith and Robinson led the Lexington team.

Anderson, Ind.—Anderson Indians were smothered under an avalanche of sixteenth-inning hits by the Lexington team. The Lexington team defeated Hollywood A. C., 11 to 6. Smith and Robinson led the Lexington team.

Anderson, Ind.—Anderson Indians were smothered under an avalanche of sixteenth-inning hits by the Lexington team. The Lexington team defeated Hollywood A. C., 11 to 6. Smith and Robinson led the Lexington team.

A. A. Race Tightens; Brewers Here Tonight

Opener Under Lights With Milwaukee Free to Women; Indians Beat Blues in Twin Bill and Gain on Leaders; Pitchers Shine.

By Eddie Ash

Regaining third place in the exciting A. A. race by taking both ends of the Sunday double header from the Kansas City Blues, 3 to 2 and 2 to 1, the Indians will go back to the lights tonight for a series opener with the Milwaukee Brewers at 8:15. The contest will be free to women, it being regular "ladies' night."

The league leading Millers lost two at Toledo on the Sabbath, Columbus split a twin bill with St. Paul and Brewers and Colonels divided their bargain attraction at Louisville. The outcome of the Sabbath tilts placed the Indians within two and one-half games of the top and moved Columbus back on the heels of Owne Bush's pace setters less than one-half game behind.

Milwaukee, riding fourth, is pressing the Tribesmen and the Brewer Tribe series consisting of six games and opening tonight is expected to supply a lot of action at Perry stadium. Double headers will be played Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons, at 1:30, and a single fracas Thursday night will wind up the Brewer visit. Boys under 16 will be guests of Owner Norman Perry at Wednesday's twin attraction.

The Sabbath-day crowd, numbering 6,040 paid, saw an exhibition of great pitching by Bill Burwell and Archie Campbell, Tribe right-handers. In the afternoon's first fray Burwell held the Blues to five safeties and in the second struggle Campbell let down the Kaws with six blows.

The Burwell victory was an errorless contest. Ernie Wingard's double drove in two Tribe runs and Doug Taitt, batter in the other market with a single. A double by Boken scored the two Kansas City tilts. Harold Smith, curve ball artist, gave the Indians a real fight and only six hits were collected off his offerings in seven innings. Dawson, who pitched the eighth for the Blues, Smith retiring for a pinch hitter.

Campbell Tightens

The second attraction developed into another mound battle between Osborne and Campbell. The Blues chalked up their lone run in the second on Grigsby's double, Boken's safe punt and Snyder's single. During the remainder of the way, however, Campbell allowed only two blows, one in the third and one in the ninth after two were down.

The home nine tied the count in its half of the second when Taitt and Rosenberg worked the double steal, the former scoring. In the fourth what proved the winning run over. Taitt led off with a double, advanced on an out by Sny-afoos and scored when Smith uncorked a wild pitch. Smith was guilty of three wild pitches, two of the heavens coming in Tribe scoring innings.

Taitt in Linelight

Taitt's all-around performance in the closing tilt was brilliant. He collected three hits, one for two, cushioned by a sacrifice, and pilfered two bases and played a marvelous fielding game in the deep right position, twice making long runs to the wall to drag down tremendous drives out of the blinding sun.

The Indians lost the long series, three games to four, but felt some new life stirring today as a result of grabbing the Sunday twin-header. The Indians had lost four double bills preceding the Sunday bargain. Eddie Zwilling's Blues annexed Saturday's tilt, 5 to 2. Bolen was wild on the Tribe slab and was touched for twelve blows. The Indians were held to six hits.

LOTT, MRS. HACK WIN

CINCINNATI, June 20.—George Lott, national clay court champion, and Mrs. Dorothy W. Hack of Sacramento, Cal., today held tristate tennis singles crowns.

Lott, defeated Frankie Parker, 16-year-old Milwaukee boy, 5-7, 6-2, 4-6, 6-0, 3-