

YOUTH STARBED; 24 OTHERS ARE INJURED ON 4TH

Fight Follows Row Over
Fireworks: One Held for Clubbing.

Twenty-five persons are suffering from injuries today as a result of the celebration of July 4 in Indianapolis and vicinity. This does not include persons hurt in automobile accidents.

Robert Walton, 18, of 1725 Calvin street, is the most seriously injured. He may die of stab wounds in the back, said to have been inflicted by Ed Twyman, 17, of 1411 Campbell street, who was slashed on the arms and body. Both are held at city hospital on charges of assault and battery with intent to kill.

Walton, shooting fireworks at Villa avenue and Minnesota street, told police Twyman stepped on fuses and a fight followed.

Club Attack Charged

Ernest McNew 20, of 1517 Gerard street, incurred a scalp wound, and Frank Birke, 55, R. R. 3, is held on an assault and battery charge, after alleged attack by Birke with a club. Birke said McNew and other youths threw firecrackers at his cows.

Right eye of James Senteney, radio patrolman, was injured seriously when struck by a torpedo as he sat in a police car. Another torpedo victim was Mrs. Harry S. Mackey, 1135 South Meridian street. She was burned on the right arm. Burns on a hand were incurred by Captain James R. Kennedy, Pt. Benjamin Harrison, while he was showing his children how to set off firecrackers.

Many Are Burned

Others injured, most of whom received burns, are:

George Kilmer, 56, of 1112 Udel street; Harold Neely, 10, of 64 North Pershing avenue; J. H. Armon, Drexel Arms hotel; Mrs. Edie Henry, 24, of 716 West Ninth street; Lester Tate, 16, of 238 Minkner street; Sheldon Watson, of 2529 North Delaware street; Morris Redwine, 8, of 1636 Ingram street; Adolph Alexander, 6, of 914 South Capitol avenue; Lester Cavanaugh, 12, of 912 Paca street; Edward Brodham, 10, of 824 North Missouri street; Robert Curi, 14, of Blake street; Arthur Alexander, 346 West Twenty-fifth street; Stanley Stevenson, 518 West St. Clair street; Edward Brachman, 824 South Missouri street; and William Davis, 1222 Brookier street.

Names of three persons treated by Dr. Herman H. Glick, 2705 East Michigan street, and one by Dr. A. L. Leatherman, 1531 Broadway, were not obtained.

Bullets pierced three homes during the celebration, those of Frank Hollis, 338 Hanson avenue; Mrs. Clara Mosier, 1538 Reinsler street, and Mrs. Lydia Harding, rear of 544 Myer street.

Municipal airport authorities have omitted an investigation of the Jester case, due to a belief that he fired from a plane. After tearing a hole in the roof, the bullet, which was of .45 caliber, was found imbedded in the floor.

Dry Millionaire Loses N. Carolina Post in Senate

Senator Cameron Morrison

Wet, in Old Ford and $2
Cash, Is Victor in Primary Vote.

RALEIGH, N. C., July 5.—Robert H. Reynolds, who started his campaign for the Democratic senatorial nomination in an old Ford on a wet platform and with $2 cash, has defeated the millionaire, Cameron Morrison, who ran as an ardent dry, by more than 100,000 votes.

Morrison, however, long has been charged with an alliance with the power trust through his Duke power interests. The mixup in the state's wet-dry political alignment is seen in the fact that the dry candidate for the gubernatorial candidate won by a narrow margin.

Returns from 1,664 of the state's 1,825 precincts gave Reynolds a lead of 104,000, the largest majority ever given a candidate for a major office in a North Carolina primary.

The vote: Reynolds, 220,472; Morrison, 116,558.

In the November election, Reynolds' Republican opponent will be Jake F. Newell, Charlotte, uncompromising dry, who bolted his party's national resubmission plank. Newell overwhelmed his wet opponent, George W. De Priest of Shelby in the first primary.

Senator Morrison has wired Reynolds, conceding defeat, and pledging his active support in the November contest.

The Republicans hope to use the prohibition issue to give them victory, but North Carolina has not had a Republican United States senator since 1898.

Injuries incurred when an automobile he was driving collided head-on with a street car in the 4700 block, East Washington street, Sunday night, proved fatal to Walter Wiley, 47, of 218 North Walcott street, city fireman, who died Monday in city hospital.

His death is the fifty-first traffic fatality in the county since the first of the year.

Collision of two autos on United State road No. 31 southwest of the city Monday, resulted in injury of five persons, none seriously.

Mrs. Lulu Underwood and daughter Mary, 21, of Frankfort, incurred cuts on the face; Mr. and Mrs. John Langueil, also of Frankfort, bruises, and Fred Sharp of Lebanon, shock. F. W. Abell, 4237 Graceland avenue, driver of the second car, was uninjured.

15,000 HUNGRY BONUS TROOPS GO ON PARADE

Move on Capitol as Chief of Army Flies for Food Supply.

WASHINGTON, July 5.—The hungry bonus expeditionary forces, 15,000 strong, marched up Capitol Hill and then marched down again today, concluding a brief demonstration on the senate steps during which President Hoover was booed.

With Walter W. Waters, their commander, in New York seeking supplies, the veterans conducted an orderly demonstration at the Capitol in an attempt to persuade the senate to reconsider its rejection of the Patman bill calling for immediate payment of the bonus.

Most of the veterans who marched out of their camps this morning were on short rations, and those who were fortunate enough to get

Mile after mile of them paraded through the streets, held in line by their own military police who swung clubs and sticks as outward signs of their authority.

The army broke ranks when it reached the capitol and congregated around Harold Foulkrod, their legislative representative.

"Do you want me to make you a real speech or a patriotic speech?" Foulkrod shouted.

"A real one," his comrades replied.

"All right, how many of you are going to vote for Hoover?" There were loud boos.

Even the veterans themselves seem to realize they were fighting for a lost cause. The senate rejected the Patman bonus bill after it had passed the house.

A high-winged Lockheed monoplane, similar to the one she used in her first attempt, is being rebuilt especially for the flight at the Jersey City factory of Clarence D. Chamberlin, trans-Atlantic flier and Miss Nichols' advisor.

It is expected to be ready for the flight within a month. Miss Nichols expects to carry 650 gallons of fuel, and to start her flight from Floyd Bennett field.
