Goslin's Single Ruins Whitehill's No-Hit Game; Dickey Breaks Reynold's Jaw as Senators Rap Yankees Twice; Gomez' Winning Streak Broken.

NEW YORK, July 5.—Detroit's Tigers replaced the idle Philadelphia Athletics in second position in the American League Monday when they won both ends of a twin bill from the St. Louis Browns, and Washington replaced Cleveland in fourth position by beating the New York Yankees twice.

The Tigers won the first game from St. Louis, 2 to 0, and the second, 12 to 7. Earl Whitehill yielded only one hit in turning in the first victory. A single by Goose Goslin prevented a no-hit game. In the second tilt, Detroit piled up eight runs in the second and third innings to put the game on ice.

Washington beat New York, 5 to 3, and 12 to 6. The first game was marred by a fight following a collision between Bill Dickey, Yankees' catcher, and Carl Reynolds, Senators' outfielder.

Reynolds was trying to steal home from third. Dickey charged Reynolds used his arms illegally. Dickey struck Reynolds and broke his jaw. Fans rushed onto the field attempting to attack Dickey, and the police intervened. Dickey and Reynolds were banished from the game.

Lefty Gomez' winning streak was broken at eleven straight, when he lost the first game. Babe Ruth drove out a home run in the second contest.

Chicago's White Sox and Cleveland's Indians divided a double-header. Cleveland took the opener, 4 to 2, and Chicago won the second, 2 to 1. Wes Ferrell scored his fifteenth victory of the season by winning the first and Ted Lyons of Chicago won the closing contest, in which the winning run came in the sixth inning when Fothergill singled and scored on Kress' triple.

Philadelphia's double-header at Boston was washed out.

Blue Cinder Stars Leave

Three Butler U. track stars and their coach were en route to Palo Alto, Cal., today to participate in the final Olympic team tryouts. Coach Hermon Phillips, one of the stars of the 1928 United States team, and his proteges left Monday by auto. Bert Nelson, high jumper; Raymond Bears, freshman distance star, and Sunny Burns, dash star, were in the party.

Yanks, Bucs?

NEW YORK, July 5.—New York's Yankees and the Pittsburgh Pirates should meet in the 1932 world series if it is true that the leading major league clubs of July 4 will be the leaders at the close of the pennant season.

The McCathymen have a lead of seven and one-half games, despite their loss of a twin bill to the Washington Senators Monday. Pittsburgh has a lead of only one and one-half games over the Boston Braves, despite the Pirates' double victory Monday over the Chicago Cubs.

Tots Capture Three-I Flag

DECATUR, Ill., July 5.—Officials of the Three-I League voted here Monday to split the league season with the first half ending with games played last Sunday.

As a result Terre Haute, which held a one-half game lead over Quincy, was awarded the flag for the first half. The winner of the second half will meet Terre Haute in a post season series.

Arlett Raps Five Home Runs for Total of 41

BALTIMORE, July 5.—Buzz Arlett, home run king of the International League, drove off five home runs in Monday's double-header, which his Baltimore Orioles won from the Reading Keys, 21 to 10 and 9 to 8.

While this is not a minor league record, it is better than the major league mark of four homers for one twin bill established by Earl Averill of Cleveland, Sept. 17, 1930.

Arlett, left fielder of the Orioles, hit four circuit drives in the opening game in four successive times at bat, and made his fifth in the second contest.

These four-baggers brought his total to forty-one for the season. During both games, sixteen home runs were made by both clubs.

Coast Heavy Trounces Levinsky Before 8,000

RENO, Nev., July 5.—Max Baer, California heavyweight, won a twenty-round decision over King Levinsky of Chicago Monday at Jack Dempsey's improvised arena, thereby joining the group of possible opponents for Max Schmeling in September.

It was Baer's second victory over the Chicago fish vendor in six months. He won with the same pile-driving body attack which gained him a ten-round decision over Levinsky in New York last January.

Baer, one of the hardest hitters in the ring, weakened his opponent with a continuous barrage of stiff hooks to the stomach and short right jolts to the kidneys. In the nineteenth round Baer ripped a savage left hook to Levinsky's body, sending him to his knees. It was the only knockdown.

Baer won twelve of the twenty rounds, three were even, and Levinsky took only five, although he had been the favorite when they entered the ring. Baer weighed 223½, Levinsky 196½.

Referee George Blake's decision was popular with the unexpectedly small crowd of 8,000. The California fighter had more steam in his punches, showed superior stamina and displayed superior ring generalship.

After the fight, Levinsky claimed he injured his right hand in the early rounds.

INDIAN MISSION IS GIVEN $3,000 OF LUX ESTATE

Probate Court Carries Out Wish of Former City Business Man.

Gift of $3,000 that will provide for completion of a mission in India and fulfill the wish of a former Indianapolis business man for his church, was allowed today in a probate court ruling.

Judge Smiley N. Chambers held the mission should receive enough funds to pay for work already completed on the project in the foreign land.

The will of Frank Lux, Indianapolis business man, who died in June, 1930, was set aside by agreement in court. The Catholic church was to receive $10,000 to erect the mission, by terms of the will.

Funds in the estate were insufficient to fulfill all provisions of the will, which was set aside on basis that Lux was of unsound mind when he executed it.

He left nearly $50,000 for church purposes. Net value of the estate, however, is estimated at only $10,000.

One-third of the net amount will go to an adopted daughter, Mary Katherine Lux of this city, who contested the will.

Remainder will be divided equally between the church and brothers and sisters of Lux.

Lux, a devout church member, willed nearly $40,000 for masses for himself and wife.

Heads Kiwanis

Ohio is the "home of presidents," but the city of Huntington, Ind., is claiming the presidential honors for international service clubs. Carl E. Endicott, above, banker and manufacturer of Huntington, was elected president of Kiwanis International at the organization's convention in Detroit. Five years ago, Arthur H. Sapp, Huntington attorney, was elected head of Rotary International.

FINISH FIRE HOUSES

Completion of three new fire stations at a cost of $59,174.51 was reported to the safety board today by William F. Hurd, city building commissioner.

REVIEW BOARD DENIES WAR ON VALUATION CUT

McCloskey's Authority to Slash Assessments Not Questioned.

County board of review members today firmly denied a report that they were questioning authority of John C. McCloskey, center township assessor, to enforce a 20 per cent decrease in township property assessments.

It was reported the board would get an opinion from County Attorney Charles B. Clarke regarding McCloskey's powers.

McCloskey ordered the blanket decrease a few days ago. It cut township valuations $82,000,000 and sliced revenue in 1933 about $2,400,000.

"He has the right to decrease or increase until he hands his books over to the board of review," Robert E. Sloan, county assessor and board president, declared.

Sloan, indicating he favored the blanket decrease, said "the board would review McCloskey's assessments and adjust them on basis of true cash value of property."

"That may mean further decrease for center township property," he continued.

Charles R. Grossart, county auditor, branded the report as "unsubstantiated and not given out by any member of the review board."

A storm of protest from various county taxing and budget-making officials has fallen upon McCloskey since he ordered the valuation reduced.

Dummy Game

"Tramp, tramp," the Clermont boys marched this morning back home from the county jail, and deputy sheriffs who Monday night found a dummy hanging from the Big Eagle creek bridge at Fifty-fourth street had the last laugh.

Five Clermont youths fastened a lifelike dummy of a man so that it swung from a high girder. Soon the sheriff's office received a report that a man had hanged himself from the bridge.

Deputies went to the scene. Saving the exertion of removing the dummy, the officers shot it down. From a hiding place the youths looked on and laughed. One officer went into hiding after apparently leaving with the others. He arrested the youths.

After spending the night in jail, the youths were released this morning with the command "Beat it—on foot."

HEIR STILL IS HELD

Youth in Kidnapers' Hands Over 100 Hours.

ST. PAUL, Minn., July 5.—Haskell Bohn, 20, son of a wealthy refrigerator manufacturer, today had been in the hands of kidnapers, who demand $35,000 ransom, for more than 100 hours.

Gebhard C. Bohn, father of the youth, has been in contact with the abductors several times by telephone and received several communications from them. So far as police could learn, however, all attempts at personal contact have failed.

POLICE REPULSE HUNGER RIOT AT RELIEF STATION

Jobless Steel Workers Cry 'We Want Bread for Our Families.'

CHICAGO, July 5.—Police reserves battled with 200 hungry steel workers who sought to storm a relief depot in Kensington today.

The men, out of work and with hungry families, gathered in front of the relief station at 50 West One hundred ninth street, not far from the Pullman works and shouted: "We want bread and meat."

The two policemen on duty sent in calls for aid. Lieutenant Garrett Coan dispatched a detachment of policemen and motorcycle officers. When the mob pushed the police back and started pelting bricks through the windows of the station, a call to downtown stations brought five squads of police in automobiles and a large detachment of motorcycle police.

The augmented police detachment drove the men back and order was restored.

Lawrence Bahno, 42, was arrested. Police charged that he threw a brick through a window.

Hauling Protest Given State

Petition of property owners on North State avenue, between New York and Michigan streets, protesting against heavy hauling by Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company trucks, presented to the board of safety today, was referred to the secretary of state.
