

Jean Schad Wedded in Church Rites

Christ Episcopal church on Monument Circle was the scene this morning of the marriage of Miss Jean Ann Schad, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Schad, to John T. Thatcher, son of Mrs. Eva Thatcher.

The Rev. E. Ainger Powell, rector of the church, performed the ceremony. Vases of summer flowers decorated the altar. A program of bridal airs was played preceding the ceremony by the church organist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a fitted gown of white lace, designed with short sleeves, with which she wore a short jacket of the lace, with white slippers and gloves, and carried white roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Miriam Schad was maid of honor for her sister. She wore a sleeveless gown of yellow net and ecru lace, with short jacket having short puffed sleeves. Her large picture hat, slippers and gloves matched her gown, and she carried yellow roses and delphinium.

Miss Eleanor Egan, the bridesmaid, wore a gown of blue net and ecru lace, fashioned like that of the maid of honor. She wore a large blue hat and accessories, and carried yellow roses.

Thomas E. Neale was best man, and ushers were Lester Nicewander and Donald Steinberger.

Mrs. Schad wore pale blue chiffon with white accessories, and the bridegroom's mother wore blue flowered chiffon. Both wore shoulder corsages of roses and sweet peas.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, 331 North Arsenal avenue, with a luncheon for members of the bridal party and the two families. The house and table were decorated with yellow roses and blue delphinium, carrying out the bridal colors.

Mr. and Mrs. Thatcher were to leave this afternoon for a week at their cottage on a lake in northern Indiana, the bride traveling in an ensemble of white silk, with white accessories. They will be at home at 2718 Winthrop avenue.

The bride attended Butler university.

A NEW FILM CRITIC IS CHOSEN FOR DAY

Miss Merita Warner Is Winner of "What Price Hollywood" Review Contest Conducted by Movie Editor.

BY WALTER D. HICKMAN
MISS MERITA WARNER is movie critic for today as I turn over my chair for this issue to her. She is the movie critic for today because I declare her winner of the review on "What Price Hollywood," the current offering at the Indiana.

Last Monday in this department, I reviewed the stage show only at the Indiana, stating that I wanted to hear from readers of this department. I wanted the readers to be critic for this Constance Bennett movie. I promised that I would give the winner a surprise. Well, I am the one who is surprised because 481 people answered my invitation to Meridian street, Apt. 2; Richard Miller, 1009 North New Jersey; Kathryn L. Mason, 52 North Fifteenth street; Miss Martha Culel, 5228 Beechwood avenue, and Edith Myers, 660 North Colorado avenue.

Miss Warner's winning review is as follows:
Constance Bennett is one of those rare movie stars who is always more interesting than her pictures. She embodies for us, 2,000 miles away, what we believe is Hollywood—glitter, wealth, wit, beauty, clothes, and the ability to wear them.

And to cap all that, she is actually learning to act.
Her latest picture, "What Price Hollywood," at the Indiana, is a frothy comedy telling the story of Mary Evans, an ambitious young girl who emerges from the obscurity of a waitress' existence to the glare that surrounds a movie star.
She finds that such brilliance can be so cruelly blinding, it shuts out all depth and softness.

Constance gives a good performance. She has to, in order to keep ahead of Lowell Sherman. He enacts the role of formance of "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm" at 8:30 are invited to be the guests of the theater at the special showing of "Bachelor's Affairs."

Based on James Forbes' successful stage play, the new film tells the story of a middle-aged and wealthy bachelor who, through the machinations of the girl's sister, marries a youthful flapper of the beautiful but not too brilliant type. Events soon prove to him that he has made a serious mistake and he sets about to extricate himself from the entanglement in which he has found himself.
Minna Gombell, thought to be one of the outstanding comedienne of the screen, appears in the leading role of the gold-digging sister, and Joan Marsh, vivacious platinum blond, portrays the role of the girl. Other favorites in important roles are Irene Purcell, an Indiana girl; Allan Dinehart, Herbert Mundin, and Arthur Pierson.

Pimples for Years. Healed by Cuticura in Four Months.

"I was troubled with pimples on my face for about four years. They first started on my forehead and then my cheeks became affected. The pimples were in blotches and festered and scaled over. They itched and burned and when I scratched them they spread all the more. They made my face look horrid."

"I tried everything but nothing helped me. I had about given up when a friend advised me to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I sent for a free sample of each and got results. I purchased more and was completely healed in about four months." (Signed) Mrs. Leland Kotas, 204 So. Peach St., Marshfield, Wis., Feb. 12, 1932.
