

NUDIST VOGUE EVEN SPREADS TO CITY PRISON

Women Can Keep as Cool as They Can While in 'Cooler.'

BY ARCH STEINEL
Indianapolis has a police-regulated nudist colony.

When they join up they must fore-swear cigarettes, cosmetics, and haircombs for twenty-four hours, but if they want to forewear clothing that's their business.

But this colony differs from those of the nudists in New York state and Germany in that it is for women only, and is protected from prying eyes by bars and policemen.

The colony is located in the women's quarters at the city prison.
When a modern Eve gets "pinched" she has rights in the city jail these hot days that she couldn't get on a city bathing beach.

In "Nifties" or Nothing She may live the twenty-four hours of incarceration in the bake-oven jail in "nifties" or nothing.
Sure she's barred from smoking cigarettes and her cosmetics can be obtained only through special request, but as for her hours of waiting for her moment in court they're hers to be as cool in the "cooler" as possible.

"Sometimes," explains Mrs. Mary Cantlon, police matron, "we're compelled to go inside and warn some of them they've got visitors to see them."

"When it's 90 on the street it's close to 100 inside their quarters what with the sun beating in from either the east or west side. You can't blame them."

Not at County Jail Women quartered there are held but twenty-four hours while at the county jail they may be serving a sentence or awaiting trial.

But at the county jail they must quit their back-to-nature movement.

"The least possible dress on a hot day," says a county jail matron, "is a thin dress."

But the thermometers in the county jail register 10 degrees below street heat.

In the city jail the women can have their "cookes" and other special brands of soft drinks, but in the county holdover, milk and coffee are the only beverages.

Cigarettes Are Barred Cigarettes are barred in both domiciles for the erring damsels.

"If they were permitted rouge, they'd paint up like derbies," explains a county jail matron of the order against cosmetics and perfume.

"Face powder we let them have,"
she amended.

Where electric fans in corridors cool off the county jail cell blocks, the inmates of the city prison have recourse to folded newspapers.

And the moral, if there be a moral, is expressed by one miss who knows her patrol wagon drivers with, "It's a tough life with your woollens on."

BOYS TO GIVE OPERETTA Camp Crosley Cast to Present Annual Play July 16.

By Times Special
CAMP CROSBY, LEESBURG,
Ind., July 8.—The annual Camp Crosley operetta will be presented Saturday night, July 16, at 8 o'clock in the camp auditorium. The operetta to be presented is "The Old Man of the Mountains," a one-act comedy, written especially for presentation by boys by William Stuart Baines.

Most of the parts will be taken by the thirty choir boys from St. John's Episcopal church, Lafayette. These boys have been coached in their parts for the last two months by Professor Harry Metzger, Purdue university organist, and director of the boys' choir, who is serving his third season as musical director of the camp.

Looks and Feels 100% Better

Mrs. William Slean, 739 Burns St., Cincinnati, O., asked her druggist's advice on how to reduce. He recommended the French Lick method.
"I now look and feel 100 per cent better," writes Mrs. Slean.

Let the French Lick plan of food selection and moderate exercise help you to win back slender beauty and health.
Avoid sluggishness.
Fight fatty tissues caused by a sluggish system. Take a little French Lick Salts
each morning before breakfast. It flushes away the stagnant body wastes.

French Lick Salts is a blend of the same restorative salines found in the renowned waters of French Lick Springs. It is more than a laxative. It's a systemic regulator that benefits young and old.
Its restorative salines stimulate liver and gall bladder activities.
Keep "regular"—take French Lick Salts at least once each week. As pleasant-tasting as a fountain beverage. Today, at your druggist's, a generous bottle, 50c.
