

HAMILTON PUT ON STAND TO PRESENT ALIBI

Accused Slayer of Jackson Testifies He Was in Iola, Kan.

LEBANON, Ind., July 14.—Louis J. Hamilton, 26, testifying today in 30-one circuit court here, where he is on trial charged with the murder of Lafayette A. Jackson, Indianapolis chain grocery operator, declared he was in Iola, Kan., his home town, on May 27, 1931, the day Jackson was shot fatally at his main store.

Making the accused a witness was a surprise move by the defense, but his testimony was confined principally to that of those who preceded him on the stand—an effort to prove an alibi.

Hamilton said he lacked but three credits of high school graduation when he was sentenced in Kansas for assault and battery with intent to kill, and he served five months of an eighteen months' term. In 1926 he was given a term of five to fifteen years for stealing an automobile. He served four years and was paroled from the Kansas state prison at Lansing.

Met Witt in Prison

While in prison he met Charles Vernon Witt, who is awaiting execution in the Jackson slaying.

Hamilton left the stand to go before the jury box to exhibit a scar on his forehead. The state contends it resulted from a bullet wound inflicted during a gun battle in the Jackson store. The defense asserts it resulted from an injury received in an automobile accident while Hamilton, Witt and his wife were en route to Iola from Indianapolis.

The defendant's wife, Mrs. Ione Hamilton, and Miss Ardia Mateny, Iola telephone operator, were other witnesses today.

Tells of Phone Call

The wife said Hamilton telephoned her in Iola the night of May 27. Miss Mateny identified a slip recording a telephone call on that date, but said she did not know who talked.

It is probable that the defense will rest early this afternoon. Then the state will offer rebuttal evidence.

Prosecutor Herbert E. Wilson has called Miss Sue Sawyer, Iola invalid and neighbor of the Hamilton family, as the state's chief rebuttal witness.

Four relatives of the accused supported his alibi Wednesday.

The jury used palm fans and newspapers to keep cool during the sweltering court session.

Mrs. Margaret Krupp, sister of the defendant; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hamilton, and sister-in-law, Mrs. Fern Hamilton occupied the stand most of the day.

The witnesses described a birthday dinner, given in honor of Max Hamilton, the defendant's brother, on the day bandits held up the Jackson store.

Prisoner Visited Wife

ROCHESTER, N. H., July 14.—Fred Leonard, doing ninety days for bootlegging, escaped from the county jail. A few hours later he returned, naively explaining that he had merely gone home to visit his wife. In court he was given an additional thirty days.

It was West's opening lead and his partner had bid spades. Generally, the correct lead is the top of your partner's suit, but West has a good suit of his own and the bidding should have indicated to him

WAR OVER PAY PACT

1,500 Stage United Uprising Against Wage Scale.

By United Press
TAYLORVILLE, Ill., July 14. — Bolstered by victory over Christian county police officers, who allowed them to pass through this city after an initial refusal, 1,500 Illinois miners returned to their homes today to fight a proposed wage reduction.

The caravan was returning from a demonstration at Springfield against mine union officials, who submitted the wage proposal.

Threatened violence, aroused by refusal of county police to allow miners to drive through the city on their way to Springfield, was averted when the miners' caravan was met by a deputization of sheriff's officers and 4,000 spectators.

On the promise of the men they didn't mean trouble, the automobiles were allowed to drive through town.

The Springfield demonstration broke up after a fiery meeting at which district officers of the United Mine Workers of America were denounced for submitting a proposal reducing the basic wage scale from $6.10 to $5 a day. The new scale would reopen mines closed since March.

21 CHILDREN DIE IN MAD CRUSH OF FIRE PANIC

Forty Others Are Injured in Stampede During Benefit Show.

By United Press
TALCAHUANO, Chile, July 14.—Twenty-one children among 800 attending a benefit performance at the Esmeralda theater for poor families were trampled to death late Wednesday when the crowd was stampeded by a fire that would have harmed no one.

Forty persons, most of them children between the ages of 6 and 9, were injured in the mad fight to reach the streets.

Panic was the sole cause of death and injury, as the fire in the projection booth was extinguished easily.

The fire started just as the heroine of a serial thrilled the children by diving from the second floor of a house into a pool of water.

The film flickered suddenly, there

Tunes Taunt

By United Press
WASHINGTON, July 14.—Republican cabinet members are being taunted these days with Democratic music.

Joe, an Italian organ grinder, has been paid by a department of agriculture clerk from Texas to play "Dixie," "My Old Kentucky Home," "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia" and "Side-walks of New York" under the windows of the cabinet secretaries.

Joe said he didn't know the name of his employer, but "I'll keep on playing as long as I get my money."

was a spurt of flame from the concrete inclosed projection booth, then the cry of "fire!"

Persons in the balcony nearest the projection booth, jumped to the main floor, and landed on helpless children, too terrified to move. Many victims were found crushed in the places.

Struggling, writhing children jammed the doors and exits while firemen and police fought to get the doors clear.

Soon frantic mothers and fathers added to the wild confusion by trying to force their way inside police lines to learn if their children were among the victims.
