

WORKING KIN OF LEGISLATORS TO BE VOTE ISSUE

Congress Pay Rolls Being Scanned; Greenwood's Office Closed.

BY RAYMOND CLAPPER
United Press Staff Correspondent (Copyright, 1932, by United Press) WASHINGTON, July 14.—Employment of relatives on the congressional pay roll is an issue in numerous election fights.
It dramatizes the economy issue.
The farmer whose farm has been foreclosed, or whose taxes are more than his wheat crop sells for, can understand the economy issue in terms of a congressman's relatives.
In the second Oklahoma district, opponents of Representative W. W.
Hastings, Democrat, even have dug back nine years. They charged that in 1923 his daughter drew $120 a month for three months.
The opposing candidate, Alexia Johnston, branded a photograph of the official record from the stump.
Hastings explained that his daughter substituted temporarily for a secretary, who was ill and condemned regular employment of relatives.

Records Scrutinized

The records of other congressmen likewise are being scrutinized. The issue gained increased popularity when Henry Field used it to defeat Senator Smith W. Brookhart in the recent Iowa primaries.
From California have come inquiries from persons who wish to urge an anti-nepotism law in the state legislature at its next session.
Despite the wave of indignation against the family pay roll in congress, many of the 100 or more representatives who have employed relatives are standing pat.
The recent economy law permits them to retain their wives on the pay roll, despite the provisions elsewhere in the bill that wives whose husbands are on the government pay roll shall be dismissed first in any personnel reductions.

Joker Keeps 'Em On

A joker was inserted which permits congressmen to exempt relatives from pay cuts.
One Missouri congressman still retains his aged father-in-law on the pay roll. He never comes to Washington.
Dozens of congressmen are paying clerk hire to political heelers back home.

This correspondent in walking through the corridors of the house office building at lunch time found door after door locked.
The congressmen either had gone home—more than one hundred have left the city to start their re-election campaigns—or else they were on the floor of the house. They are supposed to have two secretaries to keep the office going.

On the door of Representative Arthur H. Greenwood (Dem., Ind.) was a note: "Forward all mail and telegrams to Linton, Ind." This is the home of his wife, who was on his pay roll at the last report.

SEEK TO LINK GIRL TO AMO BANK ROBBERY

Danville Authorities to Quiz Sister of Sentenced Bandit.

Authorities at Danville, Ind., are making efforts to connect Mary Kinder, 23, with robbery of a bank at Amos on April 27, which already has resulted in the sentencing of three persons, including her brother, Earl Kinder, serving a twenty-five-year term in the state reformatory at Pendleton.

The Kinder girl was arrested at the reformatory Tuesday by state police. In company with Margaret Northern, 20, said to be the wife of William Behrens, another convicted bandit, she hitch hiked from this city to Pendleton to visit her brother.

Leola Bellmore, 17, Indianapolis, is the third person convicted in the robbery, which netted loot of $1400.
She was committed to the state girls school at Clermont to remain until the age of 21.

TIMES CARRIERS TO HOLD FROLIC

Annual Outing Will Be Held at Riverside Park.

Next Thursday morning, at 9 o'clock, Indianapolis Times carriers will descend on Riverside amusement park for their annual outing, sponsored by The Times circulation department and the management of Riverside. Plans made for this year's picnic indicate the fun festival will be the biggest and most enjoyable of any ever held.

Facilities of the park have been made ready as never before to make the event a red letter day in the lives of the hustling youngsters who distribute The Times to all parts of the city and county.

Rides on the Riverside fun devices will be absolutely free to all carriers, who will be furnished strips of complimentary tickets, entitling them to ride as guests on the Thriller, Flash, Aerial Swing, Mill Chutes, Canals of Venice, Dodgem, Pretzel, Whip and Merry-Go-Round.

Parents of carriers may feel safe in sending even the youngest of the boys and girls to the park, as the entire Times circulation staff will be on hand to watch the carrier frolic, together with a number of the kids' friends on the police detail.

Many mothers, however, have made it a custom to pack lunch baskets and accompany the youngsters to the park. After a hard mornin' "work" riding the fun devices, a picnic luncheon with mother and sister in the shady grove is highly relished.

Next Thursday morning,
Riverside amusement park.
We'll be seein' you, gang.

Conducted at Broad Ripple by Times.

How would you like to receive a degree of Bachelor of Swimology?
You might not find that in a college catalog, but it is probably far more practical than most of the sheepskins that colleges now are handing out.

The Times and Broad Ripple park have a thousand "degrees" for Indianapolis men, women, and children who qualify and pass tests in quisites are that you attend the fourth annual Learn-to-Swim Week at Broad Ripple pool July 18 to 23.

You won't want to play hooky from this school, and the six-day class schedule is crowded with enjoyment. By the time you complete the course conducted by Bill Tomlin-son and Monty Montgomery, you will know all the fundamentals of swimming.

If you already are a fair swimmer, your faults will be pointed out and you will be shown how to correct them. The course will cover funda-mentals and all strokes of swimming —both racing and distance. Life-saving methods and diving also will be included.

The Learn-to-Swim school is free to readers of The Times. Just clip the coupon and enroll at Broad Ripple park. Three classes will be

'DICTATOR' CHARGE IS HURLED AT HARTZELL

Senators Assail Measure Providing for Moratorium on Bond Issues.

Charge of "dictatorship" was hurled at Senator Lee J. Hartzell (Rep., Ft. Wayne) from the senate floor when he arose Wednesday afternoon to advocate passage of his ten-year moratorium on all bond issues.

The bill is on third reading in the senate today amended to provide a loophole for indispensable issues and leaving the decision regarding their merit in the hands of the state tax board.

Senators assailed the measure on the grounds that it takes from the local government units the power to govern themselves.

"If government is insolvent, this measure will not restore it," Senator Chester A. Perkins (Dem.), South Bend, declared in opposing it.

SENATE NEARLY SLASHES WAGE

Bush Casts 'Deciding' Vote, but There's an Error.

Following an hour of debate Wednesday afternoon senators cut their salaries to $8 a day—almost.
In addition, they offered Lieutenant-Governor Edgar D. Bush an opportunity to be a 'hero' for a moment. Following the debate, a vote was taken on the $8 a day which resulted in the announcement that there were 24 ayes and 24 noes.

Bush promptly voted "aye" and made a speech in defense of his stand.

Then it was discovered that Senator R. Frank Raber (Dem.), Columbia City, was recorded as voting "aye" when he really voted "no." A check of the vote was taken and resulted in defeat of the $8 provision, 25 to 23.

The measure cutting the pay to $9 instead of the present $10 passed to third reading, but is expected to be defeated in the house.

Baby Very Cross. Eczema Covered Head. Healed by Cuticura.

"Not very long ago my baby became very cross and started scratching his head. Then eczema broke out in a little blister that later scaled over.
He kept scratching and the patch became larger, and soon his head was covered with it. His hair was dry and lifeless. He was very restless and could only sleep a few minutes at a time."

"I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment and he was greatly relieved after the first treatment. I continued using them and in one month he was completely healed." (Signed) Mrs. Roy M. Holbin, 8260 S. Dixie Highway,
