

Star Gazing Feature at Girls Camp

Star-gazing from the roof garden of Blue Triangle hall will be the feature of a program tonight given by the High School Girl Reserve Inter-club Council.

The program will be a part of the day camp activities now being held by high school girls from Broad Ripple, Ben Davis, New Bethel, Beech Grove, Washington, Shortridge, Technical and Manual. A picnic supper will precede the program.

Walter Johnson, local amateur astronomer, will give a talk on stars, and demonstrate telescopes of his own construction to the group, which then will visit the 300-pound telescope erected at Twenty-ninth street and Kenwood avenue.

An outing at Camp Delight, Y. W. C. A. camp for girls on White river, is planned for Saturday. Activities will include swimming at Northern beach, a picnic lunch with the regular campers at Camp Delight, and an afternoon period devoted to reports from the Camp Gray conference at Saugatuck, Mich., attended by the Misses Martha Ann Goodlett, Florence Easterday, Mary Jane Sandford, Dorothea Jamerson, Ruth Hardrick, Wanda Carter and Wilma Hobson. Mrs. Donald D. Hoover will accompany the party to camp.

Future events planned for Thursday morning program include trips to the Real Silk Hosiery Company, Columbia Conserve, and Dilling Candy Company. Discussion periods will be held following the trips for the consideration of vocations, labor laws of Indiana and working conditions for girls and women.

Swimming instruction will be given every Tuesday morning at 10:30 at Central Y. W. C. A., followed by a crafts period.

Miss Jane Colsher, 27 South Irvington avenue, is president of the high school Girl Reserve Interclub Council. Miss Jenna Birks, Girl Reserve director at Central Y. W. C. A., is in charge of the program.

Swimming instruction is being given by Mrs. Robert Brandes, Miss Vonda Browne and Miss Jane Cartwright.

Columbia Club Annual Picnic Slated Today

The family of a Columbia Club member which wins most honors today in various events at the annual picnic held by the club at the Ulen Country Club of Lebanon will be awarded the Henry C. Ulen trophy. This award will become the permanent possession of the family that wins it three times.

Those who have won the trophy once each are Wallace O. Lee, Roy Metzger, Eugene Pulliam and Dr. Carl H. McCaskey.

The program which includes golf, bridge and games began at 11 this morning and will continue until midnight.

DRAMATIC CLUB TO GIVE PLAY TONIGHT

Garfield Dramatic Club, directed by Arthur D. Barnett, will give a three-act play, "The Daughter of Duke of Ballyhoo," tonight and Friday night at the Garfield municipal theater.

Miss Virginia Hildebrand is in charge of a stunt program to be given by children of the Garfield playgrounds.

The Rev. John N. Downey of St. Patrick's church will speak tonight and the Rev. U. S. Johnson, Fountain Square Christian church, Friday night. W. V. Terry, superintendent of the Sunshine mission, will talk.

Dinner Dance Slated

Indianapolis Country Club will entertain its members and guests with a dinner-dance Saturday night. Reservations should be made at the clubhouse. Music for the dancing will be provided by Wing Phillips' orchestra.

—WHAT'S IN FASHION—

Eyelets Make Selves Useful

Directed by AMOS PARRISH

Of course when you're wearing an eyeleted dress, you don't want your accessories to be so drab. Better use plain ones. But with other dresses, you can make a very airy effect by using eyelet-cuffed gloves, kid shoes with eyelet sections, and maybe an eyelet belt.

Or you might dress up a frock that has a pique collar by wearing an eyelet one for a change.

We have directions for making one of the demure Puritan collars which would be smart in an eyeleted material. If you'd like these directions, send the coupon.

INDIANAPOLIS THEATRES

TO THE PEOPLE OF INDIANAPOLIS

I wish to call your attention to "LADY AND GENT," the Paramount picture starring George Bancroft and Wynne Gibson, our new attraction at the Indiana Theatre.

This is the first time during my career in show business that I personally have endorsed an attraction. However, so enthusiastic am I over the entertainment qualities in this production, I wish to go on record as wholeheartedly recommending it.

In my opinion, "LADY AND GENT" is exceeded by no other screen offering of the year in its rich humor and sympathetic audience appeal. Because of its down-to-earth story... because of its inspirations, I feel sure that your reaction to this unheralded triumph will be far more favorable than to the more widely-acclaimed "big name" pictures.

I intend to write Paramount studio officials a letter congratulating them on the selection of this splendid story.

I intend to write George Bancroft a letter praising him for the great performance he gave.

I intend to write Miss Wynne Gibson a letter commending her excellent interpretation of the chief supporting role.

And after seeing "LADY AND GENT" you, too, will want to write a letter.... a letter thanking us for calling the picture to your attention in this unusual manner.

Sincerely,
B.V. Sturdivant
