

TALKING IT OVER

BY JOE WILLIAMS

NEW YORK, July 20.—The bean ball seems to have come back to big league pitching in all its pristine contempibility. The young men of the mound are using it as a regular part of their routine.

When in doubt the idea seems to be to throw a fast one at the batter's noddle, on the roughish theory that if it doesn't kill him it will render him temporarily null and void. In many instances this, of course, represents excessive optimism, the run-of-mine skulls being what they are. You can not deny the side of a battler with a pea shooter.

Still, there have been a number of casualties. Some days ago the American League took official cognizance of the growing practice, creating penalties and suspensions for offenders. Up to now the National has taken no action.

NOBODY needs to be reminded that the bean ball is a vicious, cowardly and deadly thing. The lower forms of animal life which infest the prize ring resort to similar tactics when they are being smacked around. They hit below the belt as an easy way out. The bean ball is even more reprehensible than the foul punch because it is loaded with fatal potentialities.

Dizzy Dean of the Cardinals presented an interesting self-portrait of the bean baller the other day. The Brooklyn had begun to hit him. Clyde Sukeforth was at bat. Dean buzzed one past his ears, just close enough to be uncomfortable. This is what the boys call dusting the batter off. Sukeforth registered indignation.

DEAN wound up and shot another fast one at the batter's head. This time his accuracy was better. The ball hit Sukeforth on the top of the head and bounded clear across the field. Sukeforth went down and out.

And what did Dean do? He knicked out of the box and took up a cringing position of security behind his manager, where he remained until Sukeforth had been restored to consciousness and calm.

Historians do not seem to be sure just when and where the bean ball originated. The chances are it was born with the game. The shame is that it lived more than a day.

MRS. SKILLERN ELIMINATES ELIZABETH DUNN 1 UP

Defending Golf Champ Upset at South Bend

Winner Over Indianapolis Star Makes Comeback on Second Nine: Mrs. Snyder, Miss Ellis and Miss English Other Quarter-Final Victors.

BY DICK MILLER
Times Staff Writer

SOUTH BEND, July 20.—Miss Elizabeth Dunn of Riverside, Indianapolis, defending champion in the eleventh annual state women's golf tournament, went down to defeat in quarter-final play today to Mrs. P. G. Skillern of South Bend, who ran "true to form" in ringing up the remarkable upset.

Mrs. Skillern, an always-dangerous contender, was regarded as having a great chance to press Miss Dunn to the limit, but few could have predicted the defeat of the champion, one up.

Miss Dunn fired a snappy 38 going out to be four up at the end of the first nine. Mrs. Skillern had a 42. The South Bend star then started a remarkable comeback and squarred the match on the thirteenth green, after the Indianapolis ace three-putted the eleventh, twelfth and thirteenth.

They halved the fourteenth, but Miss Dunn three-putted again on the fifteenth, and Mrs. Skillern went one up with a par five. She held the lead to the end, Miss Dunn failing for a three on the eighteenth to lose her last chance of squaring the contest.

Meets Mrs. Snyder

As a result, Mrs. Skillern Thursday will meet Mrs. Scott Snyder of Ft. Wayne, who defeated Miss Frances Welter of Gary today, 2 and 1. Mrs. Snyder and Miss Welter shot even 44 on the first nine to finish all even. Then Miss Welter started firing sixes and sevens on the back nine to ruin her chances of advancing to the semi-finals.

Indianapolis still had one player left in the championship flight as Miss Dorothy Ellis of Meridian Hills rang up a 3 and 2 victory over Mrs. D. K. Spitzer of South Bend today.

The young Indianapolis player went out in 46 on the first nine, taking twenty putts. On only one hole did she have one putt, that on the ninth, when she dropped a 35-footer. She ended the match with a par 5 on the sixteenth.

Plays Miss English

Miss Ellis Thursday will battle the consistent young star from Lafayette, Miss Alice Belle English, runner-up in 1931, who defeated Miss Dorothy Gustafson of South Bend today, 4 and 3.

Miss English went out in 42 and held a five-up lead on Miss Gustafson at the half-way mark. Miss English then eased up her game and coasted on to victory.

Miss Ellis has been shooting consistent golf throughout the tournament and is highly favored by the tournament prognosticators. She has been shooting "money golf," coming through when pressure is on. It is her first championship tourney.

At the business meeting following Tuesday's play, Mrs. H. L. Cooper of South Bend was named president for another year. Mrs. Harrison M. Bennett of Highland in Indianapolis was elected vice-president.

Miss Mary Livengood of Coquille, South Bend, was named to the place vacated by Mrs. Bennett.

Men's doubles matches were to complete today's schedule. Erl and Holloway will battle Mayer and Dowling at 1 o'clock and the victors will face Bradford and Stubbs at 5. Horst and Dale will meet Rhoades and Crabb, while Meunier and Demmy clash with Justus and Morgan.

Nearly 1,000 Athletes on Hand for Olympic

BY GEORGE H. BEALE
United Press Staff Correspondent

LOS ANGELES, July 20.—Their ranks increased almost hourly by new arrivals, athletes who will compete in the 1932 Olympic games, July 30 to Aug. 14, started today on the final ten days of training.

Some sixty-two competitors came in today and boosted to almost 1,000 the number of athletes on hand.

The first newcomers today were five members of Norway's team and the Norwegian flag was hoisted at once at Olympic Village. Later eight additional Argentinians came in and the United States swimming team. The Argentine and United States flags already were in place.

Spearing the air in the most difficult of dives, 15-year-old Katherine Rawls of Miami Beach, Fla., displays here the form which won for her the ten-foot springboard dive during the Olympic swimming and diving trials at Jones Beach, N. Y. She has been diving since the age of 6.

Going down! Dorothy Foynt gracefully floats from the platform in a perfect swim dive during the Olympic aquatic trials at Jones Beach, N. Y. This Hollywood (Cal.) star surprised spectators by defeating Miss Georgia Coleman, 36 to 33.70 points, in the fancy diving event.

Bench Warmer in 1931, Cub Youth Sets Burning Pace

By Times Special

CHICAGO, July 20.—A bench warmer a year ago, Lon Warneke, Chicago Cubs' gangling right-hander, suddenly has developed into the National League's most effective pitcher this season. He has won fourteen games, and lost only three—the second best record in the majors and the third highest number of games won, Wesley Ferrell topping him with seventeen, and Lefty Gomez with sixteen.

Warneke's record is all the more remarkable when it is considered he has been pitching only five years, and that last year he won only two out of six games. His rapid rise to pitching fame is attributed to his acquisition of control after long hours of practice at Catalina Island last spring.

Manager Rogers Hornsby started Warneke against Cincinnati in the opening series of the year.

"You're the pitcher today and you're going nine innings," Hornsby said.

Since then Warneke has pitched sixteen complete games out of the eighteen he has started, and has beaten every club in the league. When he turned back the New York Giants Tuesday, 5-4, he hung up his seventh straight victory.

Traders Point next Sunday. All players report for practice this afternoon at 2:30. The Cubs will play the Cardinals at Traders Point.

Indians Pound Ball for Pair of Wins; Mix in Two Games Today

30 Hits!

Tribe Shaves Millers' Lead to Four Games, With Aid of Louisville: Hoosiers Comb Sphere for Twelve and Eighteen Hits.

JOE NORRIS JOINS INDIAN SQUAD

Joe Norris, crack second baseman purchased from the Terre Haute Three-I League team, joined the Indians in St. Paul today. He was obtained from the Tots after the Three-I loop disbanded, and the records list him as a swift fielder and consistent hitter. Norris is rated a "rounder" under American Association rules and his presence on the roster went beyond the Tribe squad over the official player limit.

ST. PAUL, July 20.—Combining the sphere for twelve hits in the first half of Tuesday's double-header with the Saints and for fifteen blows in the second battle, the Indians of Emmet McCann annexed both ends of the bargain attraction, and with the aid of Louisville, who downed the Millers across the river, 8 to 2, whittled the league lead of Ownee Bush's Minneapolis pastimers to four games. The Tribe triumphs Tuesday were 10 to 3 and 14 to 6.

Hoosiers and Apostles were to wage another twin program today. It's a difficult series for the pitchers, but the Indians made the task easier for their twirlers Tuesday by knocking the ball all over Lexington park, and in the second tilt Sigafos and Rosenberg sent the horsehide sailing out of the lot. For the Saints, Norman connected for the circuit in the afternoon lid lifter and Hopkins cleared the fence once in the night-cap.

The Indians jumped off in the lead in the opener and never were headed. Bob Logan, rookie southpaw, was battered out of the box in the sixth and Joe Heving relieved him, stopped the enemy and then the Tribesmen sent Slim Harris to the showers in the seventh and piled up a commanding advantage. No runs were scored against Heving, but the victory was credited to Logan, who was ahead when he retired in the sixth.

Quick Tribe Comeback

In the second conflict, the home nine blasted two runs off of Burwell in the initial stanza, but the Indians came right back and scored four times in the second and convinced the Apostles fans they were out to do some tell hitting to make up for their meager total of six on Monday when they were nosed out by the tail-enders. Burwell went the route on the Tribe mound and was scored against in only three frames, the first, fifth and eighth.

The Hoosiers compelled Manager Leifeld to derrick a youngster, Trow, in the third round and Lefty Orwoll went in and took a lacing, especially during the last half of the struggle. The Tribesmen registered four markers in the second, one in the third, three in the sixth, one in the seventh and eighth and four in the ninth.

Total of 45 Bases

The Tribe hit total for Tuesday was thirty, including seven doubles, one triple and two homers for a total of forty-five bases. The team also fielded in splendid style and marvelous plays were turned in, especially by Goldman and Sigafos. The lone Tribe error was chalked in the first tilt and it was on Taitt on a ground ball. Burwell was hit on a round ball. Burwell was hit on a round ball.

In the nightcap fracas all Indians, except Goldman, collected two or more safeties, with Fitzgerald and Wingard poling three. Hale walloped three hits in the opener and two in the windup.
