Snow and Ice Will Be Used Sunday Night at Hillside Christian.

Sunday morning at the Hillside Christian church, the pastor, Homer Dale, will preach on "The Ladder of Prayer."

Something like a ton of ice will be used in the decoration scheme. After the services are over the ice will be distributed free to those who come prepared to take it away.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE THEME ANNOUNCED

"Love" is the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, July 31. Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible:

Do not err; my beloved brethren. But ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves. But who looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed (James 1:22-25). If ye fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself, ye do well (James 2:8).

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health With Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy:

Love for God and man, the true incentive in both healing and teaching. Love is the divine principle, the life of the soul. Right motives, give freedom to thought and action. Love is the principle of the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed (James 1:22-25). If ye fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself, ye do well (James 2:8).

PAPER HANGER IN BATTLE FOR WENDEL RICHES

'Uncanny Resemblance' to Millionaire Cited by N. Y. Official.

By United Press
NEW YORK, July 30.—The "uncanny resemblance" of Thomas Patrick Morris, Bronx paper-hanger, to John Gottlieb Wendel, whose son he claims to be, was attested Friday before Surrogate James A. Foley by John Hencken, a city engineer, who said he knew the late financier well for many years.

Morris seeks to have himself adjudged the son of Wendel, a decision which would place him in line for the bulk of the $30,000,000 estate left by the late Ella von Wendel, sister of John Wendel.

Meanwhile, Morris found encouragement in the surrogate's promise that ample time would be given for obtaining depositions and other evidence in the west and Scotland to support his story that Wendel married Mary Ellen Devine here in 1879 and that he is the issue of that union.

After Hencken had finished his brief testimony, William L. Diaz testified for the estate. He was secretary to John Gottlieb Wendel and later to the Wendel sisters. He identified Wendel's writing on four books of check stubs covering the years 1879 to Wendel's death in 1914.

This was in line with the executor's attempt to show that Wendel was not in Dundee, Scotland, nor in Arizona, at the times Morris testified his "father" visited him.

'SHERIFF' GETS 60-DAY TERM

Embryo Officer's Job Is Postponed by Judge.

Plans of William K. Landers, 41, of 418 Dorman street, to become a deputy sheriff the first of the month, were postponed Friday when Municipal Judge William H. Sheaffer sentenced him to sixty days on the state farm and fined him $5 and costs for assaulting his mother-in-law.

The mother-in-law, Mrs. Emma Cummings, 62, who lives on the Landers home; testified that Sunday Landers struck her a number of times. She exhibited a cut eye.

"My daughter had turned on the radio," Mrs. Cummings said, "and Williams came down stairs and accused us of doing so. After he cursed and threatened me, I threw a pan of water on him, and then he beat me."

Sheaffer asked Landers if he was working. He replied that he was not "just at present."

"Have I seen you hanging around the jail and police headquarters lately?" Sheaffer asked.

"Why, yes, judge. You see, I'm going to be a deputy sheriff the first of the month."

"You were, but not now—sixty days," Sheaffer said.

As the sentence was pronounced, Mrs. Cummings fainted and was carried from the courtroom.

Later, Ralph Hitch, chief deputy sheriff, said that Landers was not listed for appointment, "because there are no vacancies." Hitch said Landers was a deputy six or eight months ago.

FEAR DEMOCRATS MAY PLAY HOOVER'S GAME

Appointment to R. F. C. Board Seen as Good Politics.

By Scripps-Howard Newspaper Alliance
WASHINGTON, July 30.—Gratitude for their appointments may make Democrats on the Reconstruction Finance Corporation board of directors "amenable to White House pressure in behalf of particular loans or projects," even though they are in control, Senator Connally (Dem., Tex.) suggested today.

He characterized appointment of a fourth Democrat to the board by President Hoover as "shrewd White House politics."

The Texas senator praised the new Democratic member, former Senator Atlee Pomerene of Ohio, as a man "of fine character and standing" and "entirely capable to meet the responsibilities of the office."

But Connally remarked that the appointment had aroused "much curious comment" and that by putting Democrats in control Hoover had gone "contrary to the administration's past policies."

Hay Fever Reign Is Near; City Urges Weed Cutting

Season of Sniffing and Sneezing Soon Here for Sufferers.

Merchants today reported heavy sales of handkerchiefs and various sneeze-proof patent medicines, as Indianapolis citizens prepared for the annual hay fever siege.

Here and there a few scattered sneezes and sniffles may be heard, forerunners of the mighty chorus to begin as the season opens formally early in August, when ragweed and other offending plants begin to cast their pollen on the breezes.

While physicians estimate that not more than one in forty or fifty persons is afflicted to any degree with this uncomfortable and annoying ailment, the estimate seems low when the season gets in full swing and red noses and watering eyes become the rage.

Nowhere is the caste system more in evidence than among the ranks of the sniffers and sneezers. A mere occasional sneeze has about as much standing with his worse-afflicted brethren as has a mere tonsil operation booster in a crowd discussing major operations.

While the handkerchief epidemic is looked upon humorously by the unaffected, there is nothing funny about it, according to Dr. Herman G. Morgan, city health officer.

Dr. Morgan today came to the rescue of the hay fever tribe with a plea that all weeds, particularly rag weeds, be cut now, before they go to seed.

A crew of approximately 100 "made-work" laborers is employed in various sections of the city under Street Commissioner Wilbur F. Winslow, cutting weeds on vacant lots and in public places, but will be able to reach only a small part of the weeds in the city before the hay fever season starts.

The city scythe-wielders can not go into back yards and on other occupied property to cut weeds, Winslow said, adding that it is up to occupants of such property to show their interest in humanity and make life more comfortable for hay fever victims by wielding the family scythes.

By United Press

GERMAN VOTERS TO NAME NEW REICH SUNDAY

Four Killed, Ten Wounded in Pre-Election Clashes; Truce Called.

BY FREDERICK KUH
United Press Staff Correspondent

BERLIN, July 30.—Thirty-seven million German voters will march to the polls Sunday to elect a new reichstag. They have to select their choices from the twenty-one different tickets in the field.

They entered the last day of the election campaign geared to a point of excitement seldom equaled in a country that taxes its politics more seriously than any other nation in the world.

Four persons were killed and ten wounded in political clashes throughout the country today.

At midnight tonight a "political truce" will be effective to last for ten days.

Order Political Truce

The truce was established by an emergency decree issued by President Paul von Hindenburg prohibiting indoor and outdoor political gatherings from July 31 to Aug. 10.

The last hours of the campaign before the "deadline" in political activities were featured by an attack on the Von Papen regime by ex-Chancellor Heinrich Brüning, and an address broadcast to the United States by the chancellor.

Groups of Adolf Hitler's brown shirts were mobilized in various parts of the country, but the move was not considered dangerous.

It is Hitler's custom to send his militia to the polls to protect voters from attacks.

Will the Papen-Schleicher cabinet of aristocrats and military chiefs, resting on the authority of the president and the sword of the army, remain in power?

Deny Plans for 'Putsch'

Will Hitler have an opportunity to impose militant Fascism upon the nation?

Will the election produce a deadlock between Fascists and anti-Fascists and leave Germany a victim of civil strife?

Brüning was removed from office—many political quarters claim through the influence of Defense Minister General Kurt von Schleicher—to make way for the Von Papen cabinet of landowners and militarists.

Hitler's Munich headquarters denied reports of a contemplated "putsch" to seize power by force if the Fascists do not obtain a majority in the new reichstag.
