

TALKING IT OVER

BY JOE WILLIAMS

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—Have you by any chance noticed how the boys are shying away from Rogers Hornsby?

They said he might be named manager of the White Sox. The next day Louis Fonzeca was reappointed manager.

They said there was a good chance that he might take over the Browns. The next day Bill Killefer was given a new contract.

They said there was a spot for him in Philadelphia with the Phillies. The next day Bert Shotton was re-signed, and to be sure there could be no misunderstanding, he was presented with a three-year document.

Which reminds me: Why doesn't some one mention him as the new manager of the Giants? I have written before that he is going to manage the Giants next year. It wouldn't be Hornsby, of course, because he is the manager of the Giants. But since the trick seems to be to mention Hornsby's name and then shun it, I am in favor of putting it to work.

It is conceivable that in due course the customers might learn just where Bill Terry stands.

TERRY at the moment is what you might call the provisional manager of the Giants. He took over the club after John McGraw got weary of it all. He took it over on a verbal understanding that he would be the boss of next year's team.

Verbal understandings are never wholly satisfactory. A firmman would describe them as indications of uncertainty. But Terry, I have written before, is a man of the future. This means the present Giants manager should be planning for the future.

That the Giants as they now shape up fall far short of championship class is reflected in their position in the National League. In a competition where there is not one outstanding club, where the league leaders can drop ten straight games and still top the field, the Giants continue to dawdle along, losing more than they win.

So I say it is curious that Stoneham persists in his attitude that Stoneham is a gentleman. Any way you look at it, it is a reflection on Terry's managerial finesse. Stoneham's hesitancy implies doubt. Even if Terry is ultimately named there will be reason to suspect that he was not the first choice.

STILL they tell me Stoneham and Terry are hitting it off very well. "You are wasting your time puzzling about who's going to manage the Giants next season," a gentleman tells me who is as close to both of them as the hair on your chest. "Terry is the guy. It's in the satchel."

You see, Terry never knew Stoneham before. Nor did Stoneham know Terry. Stoneham, Terry was just a ball player trying to hold him on every spring, and Terry was just a club owner trying to drive a mean bargain. McGraw's resignation brought the two together. Terry is a level-headed young man, energetic, understanding and with a distinct business acumen.

I don't know why Stoneham hasn't come out and announced him as his 1933 manager, but I have my suspicions, and I think it can be traced to the fact that you writing fellows have been talking about it. Stoneham doesn't like to be placed in the position of having his club made for him by the newspapers, and who does?

You can write it down in your book that Terry is Stoneham's man, and that he will be in there running the ball club next year.

Special 'Ladies Night' at Tribe Game Friday

Owner Norman Perry of the Indians announced today there will be a "special Ladies night" at the stadium Friday for the last tilt of the series between Indians and St. Paul. Feminine fans will be admitted free to the grand stand with the payment of the 10 cents federal amusement tax.

No women will be admitted to the bleachers Friday or on other future "ladies' nights" at the stadium. Bleacher seating capacity is only 2,000, and the bleachers crowded out many regular bleacher customers Monday, despite the fact there were seats left in the general admission section of the grand stand, free to women on that night.

Three A. A. Contenders All Triumph Tuesday

Battle for Lead Unchanged as Tribe, Millers and Birds Score Wins; Wingard Hits Homer to Flag Pole; Taitt and Van Gilder Also Shine.

BY EDDIE ASH
Times Sports Editor

Millers, Birds and Indians all won Tuesday, and the one, two, three lineup of American Association flag contenders remained unchanged, Minneapolis clinging to the lead over Columbus by slightly more than one game and in advance of the Tribesmen by about two and one-half games. Minneapolis downed Louisville in eleven innings, Columbus nosed out Kansas City and the Hoosiers galloped to a decisive triumph over St. Paul in the series opener under the lights at Perry stadium, 7 to 3.

The Indians have three more tilts with the Apostles, all at night—tonight, Thursday and Friday—after which Owrie Bush will lead his league pace setters to Indianapolis for a four-game stand, beginning Saturday night. The victory Tuesday was the eleventh scored by the Hoosiers over St. Paul this season in sixteen clashes, and was made at the expense of Slim Harris, string-bean veteran right-hander.

Fans at the stadium Tuesday received bargain entertainment, supplied by Ernie Wingard, Doug Taitt and Elam Van Gilder. The first named crashed a circuit drive inside the park in the fourth stanza, and the sphere sailed high and far over the head of Cedric Durst, Apostle center fielder, took a couple of bounces and wound up in the flag pole corner, 500 feet from the home plate. Wingard scored standing up, behind Jack Kroner, who was on base when Ernie connected.

VET PILOT IS KILLED

By United Press

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 10.—Veteran of innumerable speedway races without a single serious accident, Nick Martino, 30, widely known driver, was dead today because of his desire to give a free thrill to a group of children.

He raced his own small coupe at high speed around a baseball park. The machine skidded, turned over eight times and crushed Martino to death.

through the first round bouts were Eddie Flynn, welterweight; Joseph Lang, bantam, and Louis Salica, 17-year-old flyweight. Other wearers of the red, white and blue emblem have yet to show their mettle in today's matches.

The heavier boxing events are scheduled today with Carmen Barth, United States middleweight, and Fred Peary, America's heavyweight, leading the fray.

Stars to Enter 3-Mile Swim

Indiana-Kentucky A. A. U. distance swimming championship will be at stake in the eleventh annual three-mile White river swim next Sunday morning.

A star field is expected to battle in the event, which will start at Sandy Beach at 10 a. m. and finish at Green City boathouse. Championship medals will be awarded with first three to finish the next Sunday morning.

Van Gilder put on the brakes after three runs were in, and with runners on first and second with nobody out. He struck out Beck and caused Harris to hit into a double play. The big fellow fanned eight Apostles and the two hits against him were Hopkins' bad hopper in the eighth and Jeffries' single in the ninth. It was Van Gilder's third win since joining the Indians.

Rookie Jack Kroner, holding down third for the Tribe, got two hits Tuesday and batted in one run. He is doing a fair job at the position, and batting better than promised by his previous record. The youth has a powerful wing and his throws whistle.

Mickey Walker Next Rival for Max Schmeling

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—Negotiations virtually were completed today for Max Schmeling, former heavyweight champion, to meet Mickey Walker in a fifteen-round bout at the new Long Island bowl on Sept. 19 or 26.

Plans for the bout were rushed through Tuesday after the New York state athletic commission had reinstated Joe Jacobs, Schmeling's manager.

The commission appointed Jacobs after his public apology for charging over the radio that Schmeling had been "robbed" of his title in the Sharkey bout.

Schmeling, who now is in Germany, will leave for New York in about a week.

Of the eleven Indianapolis youths who qualified Monday, seven were eliminated in the first round and one in the second before today's action.

WHEREVER you are . . . those wireless cigarette ads will find you! Each urging its own special claim!

Milder! Fresher! Kinder! Good words, but do they constitute proof?

Forget the adjectives for a moment . . . and listen to the findings of Science.

A great testing laboratory recently made 75 tests* of 4 leading brands. These tests, verified by scientists of two universities, definitely proved that the smoke of an OLD GOLD is cooler . . . and hence more appealing and easier on the throat.

COOLNESS is the key to quality in a cigarette. The finer the tobacco . . . the cooler the smoke. The PURER the tobacco . . . the cooler the smoke. The more artificial flavoring . . . the HOTTER the smoke.

When Science found O. G. the coolest cigarette, it simply verified the fact that OLD GOLD is made of PURE tobacco; the choicest Grade "A" domestic and Turkish leaf, with no artificial flavoring. That's the reason for OLD GOLD'S superior flavor, throat-ease and taste appeal. Smoke the coolest cigarette . . . and you smoke the best.

*This is to certify that in 75 repeated tests made of four leading cigarette brands . . . measuring the heat content of each cigarette by the Calorimeter method . . . it was shown that OLD GOLD is from 112 to 156 B. T. U's. COOLER than the other brands. Careful measurement of the heat of the smoke further confirmed the fact that the smoke of OLD GOLD is definitely cooler.
