

AUTO DEATHS IN COUNTY MOUNT TO 60 IN YEAR

Fatal Injuries Are Incurred by William Mankovitz, Struck by Car.

Fatal injuries were incurred Wednesday afternoon by William Mankovitz, 50, of 834 South Missouri street, city park employee, when he was struck by an automobile in the 500 block, Fletcher avenue.

His death brought the 1932 traffic fatality toll in Marion county to sixty.

John Fahey, 34, of 541 North Dearborn street, a city fireman who was driving the car, is held on charges of involuntary manslaughter, drunken driving and reckless driving.

A companion, Martin Devney, 54, of 2211 East New York street, is held on a drunkenness charge.

Steps Into Auto Path

Mankovitz, police were told, stepped into the path of the automobile while watering flowers in a parkway in the middle of the avenue. Parked automobiles on either side of the parkway left but little space for passage.

Reports vary as to speed of the automobile. Some witnesses said it was traveling thirty to thirty-five miles an hour, and others fifteen miles.

Fahey told police that Mankovitz stepped backward in front of the car and there was not time enough to stop.

Another motorist arrested Wednesday was Everett Kelly, 27, of 316 North Walcott street, alleged to have driven away after his car struck Mary Louise Hobbs, 10, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Hobbs, 19 Bloomington street, at 1310 West Washington street. Her injuries are not serious.

Taxi Driver Is Held

Kelly is held on a charge of failing to stop after an accident. Police said he told them he did not think it was necessary to stop.

Fred Snyder, 2513 Prospect street, was arrested on an assault and battery charge after a taxi cab he was driving struck Thomas Smith, 58, of 1130 East Ninth street, at Illinois and Maryland streets. Smith incurred a severe head wound.

HOOVER IS QUIZZED

Bishop Blake Asks Dry Law Stand Explanation.

Issues raised from the dry point of view on the prohibition stand of President Herbert Hoover are subjects of several questions submitted to him today by Bishop Edgar Blake of the Detroit area of the Methodist Episcopal church, which includes Indiana and Michigan. He is a former bishop of the church's old Indianapolis area.

"Certain misgivings have arisen in many minds," the letter states, "as to the wisdom of your proposal for the repeal of the eighteenth amendment and the surrender of the control of the traffic in liquor to the several states."

Terms used in Hoover speeches on prohibition are referred to in the questions, including "sane solution" and "practical measures."

Specific explanation of the terms is asked.

In conclusion the bishop wrote: "If the past has anything to teach us, and we are capable of being taught, we have nothing to expect from legalizing the breweries and distilleries, the parents of the saloon with all its vicious influence and power, but the corruption of our politics, the undermining of the state, the debauching of our homes and the eventual destruction of society itself."

BILLY JOLLY VICTOR IN BANJO CONTEST

11-Year-Old Lad Gets $20 Award at Circle Theater.

Billy Jolly, 11, of 902 North Arlington avenue, was awarded first prize in the Eddie Peabody banjo contest at the Circle theater Wednesday night. Billy received from the management $20 in cash and a wrist watch from Rogers Jewelry Company.

Second prize $10 in cash, went to Jack Hysler. His playing of "Russian Rag" went over well with the audience and he was a very close second. The last four prizes of $5 each went to Bill Akin, 321 North Drexel avenue; Bernays Thurston, 2238 Ashland avenue; Robert Green, 5440 Central avenue, and Alfred Putnam, 2268 Randall street.

The contest was staged after the last show and was conducted personally by Eddie Peabody, who made the awards on the stage directly after the audience had selected the winners.

Strike Salute

Here is the "salute" of the mid-west's army of farm strikers, being given by a member of the "general staff" near Sioux City. The empty pocket has been adopted by leaders of Iowa's contingent as their countersign in their "holiday" for higher prices for farm products.

OPEN BANDITS DRIVE

Scotland Yard Out Is to Crush Holdup Men.

LONDON, Sept. 1.—Moving with military precision, Scotland Yard today began the biggest police campaign on record to crush the modern outlaw counterparts of England's most notorious highway robber, Dick Turpin.

Designed to end an alarming wave of road holdups which were believed to have been increased by arrival of gangster deportees from the United States, the police flying squads closed all approaches to London, stopped and inspected thousands of automobiles and placed a wide area under rigid supervision.

In contrast to the blunderbuss and steel of the original Dick Turpin, who terrorized the highways 200 years ago, the modern bandits have fast automobiles and many automatic pistols.

The British police are not armed, but there have been many demands by the public lately that they be provided with pistols.

Trance Gospel

Sermons by Farmer While Rigid, Flat on Back Astound Pastors.

MONROE, La., Sept. 1.—The strange "trances" of Charlie Richardson, farmer, have begun to astound the city's most prominent pastors.

When Richardson is seized with the attacks, he lies flat on his back, his body rigid, while with eyes staring heavenward, he begins to preach. Crowds quickly gather, and stand in hushed and respectful silence.

The sermons are delivered in perfect dictation. His quotations are numerous and perfectly correct, in minute detail, according to pastors who have heard him.

These attacks occur sometimes as often as twice a day. Again they do not occur for months at a time.

No Postmarks From Rapidan

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—Guests at President Hoover's Rapidan camp who write letters just for the camp's mail box might as well enjoy the scenery. A marine truck takes the Rapidan mail to Washington, where it receives a regular Washington postmark.

Gone, but Not Forgotten

Automobiles reported to police as stolen belong to: W. H. Middleton, 961 North Meridian street, Chevrolet sedan, 52-573, from in front of home; Edward White, 1409 North Drexel avenue, Buick sedan, 48-127, from Delaware street, between Market and Ohio streets.

G. O. P. GRIEF GROWS IN FALL OF SHORTRIDGE

California Primary Causes Democrats to Class State as Doubtful.

BY MAX STERN

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—Returns from California's Tuesday primaries are worrying Republican stalwarts here, and encouraging the Democrats to place the Hoover state in the doubtful column.

Defeat of Senator Samuel M. Shortridge, one of the Hoover faithful, was brought about by a split field of two southern California drys, and an avalanche of wet votes in the north.

Yet it is considered an omen in that Shortridge, administration senator of twelve years' service, should have run far behind the winner, late Senator Tallant Tubbs, a comparative unknown, whose chief plank was repeal.

The next test of Republican conservatism will be in Washington state, where Senator Wesley ("Five-and-Ten Law") Jones came up for renomination as a dry on Sept. 13. Ohio regulars on the anxious bench are Senators Smoot in Utah, Steiwer in Oregon, Oddie in Nevada.

Shortridge's defeat is believed due to his indecision. Formerly endorsed by the Anti-Saloon League, he switched in the midst of the last session to resubmission and modification. He stood firmly on the party's prohibition plank.

Irate, the Anti-Saloon League endorsed Representative Joseph Crail in his stead.

The wet Republicans, instead of voting for him, flocked to Tubbs. Thus, he fell in between the two factions he tried to placate.

Although he spoke ardently for the Hoover policies he switched to oppose the wet court.

He voted both for and against the bonus.

Badly divided, also, were the California Democrats. Wet and Al Smith factions supported Justus Wardell.

The drys backed William Gibbs McAdoo, who, with his large southern California dry following, beat Wardell by 2 to 1.

Sue for Estate Accounting

Heirs of Christian Wismier filed suit in superior court two Wednesday asking an accounting from Schuyler A. Haas, local attorney, for funds derived from the Mt. Jackson sanitarium, a part of the estate. The suit alleges Haas owes the heirs approximately $5,000. He was removed as trustee several months ago.

Mr. GOOD MALT SYRUP

Something for nothing. Not in malt syrups. Low price usually means adulterants—glucose, corn grits. Mr. Good may cost a little more. It is worth much more. For it's all selected barley malt—nothing else. A little goes farther.
