

Alumnae of Sorority to Hold Party

Mrs. Hubert Hickam has been appointed general chairman for the opening party of the Indianapolis Alumni Association of Kappa Kappa Gamma, national women's sorority, to be held Saturday afternoon, Sept. 24, in the ballroom of the Marrot.

Proceeds from the party will be used for charities, and a portion of it will be added to the association's scholarship fund.

The affair will feature a showing of gowns which are to be modeled by a group of the organization's members. The gowns will include daytime, street and evening costumes and will be for the mature figure as well as the younger woman. Bridge will follow, for whom care to play.

For those who wish to entertain at luncheon before the party, the hotel is arranging a special menu. Reservations for the luncheon are to be made at the hotel.

Tickets for the style show and bridge party may be obtained from Mrs. Robert M. Brewer, 4449 Guilford avenue, ticket chairman. Table reservations may be made with her and tickets procured at the time of the party.

Others on the committee in charge are:

Miss Elizabeth Hisey, chairman of prizes; Mesdames Charles A. Harris, Everett M. Schofield, James Nelson, Dole, A. Alie, Mark Hanson, Edward J. Boies, William Louden, George H. Loefer, M. Stanley McComas Jr., Henry Brown, Misses Margaret Stitz and Helen Harringer.

Mrs. G. B. Taylor, president, will hold a meeting of the executive board at 10 Tuesday morning in the woman's parlor of the Fletcher American national bank.

Plans for the season will be discussed and arrangements for the first party completed.

CITY SERVICE STAR GROUP TO MEET

A luncheon and all-day meetings will be held Tuesday by the Hamilton-Berry chapter, Service Star Legion.

Mrs. Bruce W. Maxwell, Millersville road, will be hostess at the meeting, which will honor the president, Mrs. D. M. Perry, who recently returned from a trip to France with the Gold Star Mothers. Mrs. Charles K. McDowell has charge of transportation.

As a season for brides, autumn is becoming almost as popular as

June, if the increasing number of engagement and wedding announcements is any indication.

Several prominent Indianapolis women became brides in early autumn ceremonies, all of whom will make their homes in "other cities."

Mrs. J. Franklin Ries, formerly Miss Dorothy Fife, and Mr. Ries will make their home in Chicago, where Mr. Ries has lived for some time. Mrs. Ries is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Fife, 2838 Central avenue.

Mrs. William Weaver Perrin will travel with Mr. Perrin several months before establishing residence, the place as yet undecided.

Mrs. Perrin, whose wedding took place Sept. 5, was Miss Kathleen Hotel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton B. Hotel, 25 West Forty-ninth street. Her attendant was her niece, Miss Helen Persise of Salem.

Mrs. Harry B. Smith was Miss Florence Elymson before her wedding, Sept. 6, at the Broadmoor Country Club. After a Canadian trip Mr. and Mrs. Smith will live at 67 Tyler park, Lowell, Mass.

Mrs. Gustav Klumpp, formerly Miss Louise Sherwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Hartley Sherwood, 2847 North Meridian street, has as her at-home address, 41 Codman avenue, Brookline, Mass.

The approaching marriage in December of Miss Catherine Jane Murdoch to Burchard Carr has been announced by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Murdoch, 924 North Rural street. Mr. Carr is the son of Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Carr, 5255 North Delaware street. Both are graduates of Butler university, where Miss Murdoch is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority, and Mr. Carr of Sigma Chi fraternity.

Meridian Hills to Hold Season's First Luncheon-Bridge Tuesday

Meridian Hills Country Club will entertain with the first luncheon-bridge of the season for women of the club at 1 Tuesday at the clubhouse. Mrs. R. Lochry is chairman of this section of entertainment.

There will be sections for both contract and auction, and when making reservations, the women are asked to designate which they wish to play. The committee in charge is Mesdames H. T. Nolting, L. A. Ensminger and Walter L. Brant.

J. H. Armstrong, senior meteorologist for the Indianapolis weather bureau, will speak on Weather and What We Do With It, at the special Thursday night entertainment next week.

These programs have been held during the summer, preceded by a special family dinner, and have proved very popular at the club. Mr. Armstrong has been in the weather business for thirty years, and has been stationed in Indianapolis for fifteen years. A. D. Hitz, president of the club, will introduce the speaker.

The committee in charge is Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Krick, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Colby, and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh J. Baker.

A swimming meet for younger members of the club was to be held at 2:30 this afternoon in the club pool. The swimming committee, which is in charge, includes Howard E. Morse, chairman; Mrs. A. D. Lange, Mrs. Theodore E. Root, Mrs. James A. Murray, Carl T. Lieber, and J. E. Thompson.

There were to be a number of events for both boys and girls, according to ages, with prize ribbons to be presented to the three winners in each event.

At this time also the "sharp club" medal for swimming will be presented to Ralph Hook, who so far is the only person to meet the qualifications for the medal.

Butler Women's Faculty Club to Hold Tea Tuesday Afternoon

Women's Faculty Club of Butler university will entertain with a tea Tuesday afternoon in honor of all new members of the faculty.

The club, which is composed of women faculty members and wives of the men on the faculty at Butler, entertains once each year at a party when the men are invited.

The reception Tuesday will be informal and will be held in the recreation room at Jordan hall. Hostesses will be Mrs. Willard N.

Clute, chairman; Mesdames J. W. Putnam, Frederick Kirshner, Milton D. Baumgartner, Leo Garber, Nathan Pierson and James H. Peeling.

The new faculty members and their
