

FARMERS WILL HIT AT HOOVER ON TRIP WEST

Demonstration Planned by 20,000 for Address at Des Moines.

By United Press
DES MOINES, Ia., Sept. 22.—Call for a demonstration by 20,000 farmers when President Hoover speaks here Oct. 4 and a warning that "a dictatorship" or "revolution" are the alternatives to adequate farm relief were made by leaders addressing the Iowa Farmers Union convention here Wednesday.

John A. Simpson, national president of the Farmers Union, shouted from the stage of the old Princess theater that farm relief must be forthcoming during the next presidential term "or the next President of the United States will be the last."

"Every one is entitled to food, clothing or shelter," he cried. "If the system under which we are ruled will not provide them, go take them. Human rights are superior to constitutions and law."

Milo Reno, bushy-haired president of the National Farmers' Holiday Association, which is launching a movement for holding farm produce off the market until prices rise, revealed plans for a gathering of "unsatisfied" farmers to greet Mr. Hoover when he makes the first major speech of his campaign.

He criticized Hoover's agricultural policies. "It is time we educated those responsible for this condition," Reno declared. "We have a right to portray the real condition that exists in this country, and we have the right to hold Hoover responsible."

County chairmen of his organization, Reno announced, will meet today to plan the reception for Hoover, which is to be peaceable and confined to a parade.

TOY ROULETTE WHEELS HAVING HEAVY SALE

Home Is Becoming Monte Carlo, Storekeepers Reveal.

Contract bridge is riding the amusement rumble seat, if some city storekeepers are to be believed.

The home has become a Monte Carlo. Roulette wheels, advertised as 89 cents with a mat for making bets, are reported as being sold rapidly.

Dice are in vogue with games to accompany them. Even cigarette ash trays have gone "Roulette" with some shown in the shape of a dice.

"But the only thing they use for bets is the family match box," one dealer averred.
