

ELEVEN GIVEN JAIL TERMS IN MINE OUTBREAK

Men Are Found Guilty of Attack on Nonunion Shaft at Dugger.

By United Press
TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Sept. 30.—The first jail terms imposed as a result of the long series of riots in Indiana coal fields were meted out here Thursday by Federal Judge Louis Fitzhenry of Springfield, Ill. All the men either pleaded guilty or were convicted on charges of violating a federal restraining order at the Hoosier mine, near Dugger.

The attack on the non-union shaft occurred April 6, when workers were beaten and property destroyed. Fitzhenry had issued a restraining order against interference with operation of the mine on Feb. 27. Men given jail terms, all of whom live in Sullivan county, were: Charles Ashburn, thirty days, suspended; Elmer Rooksberry, Ray Keesee, thirty days; Opal Hixon, six months; Albert Irvin, ninety days, placed on probation; Lloyd Gillespie, Michael Convey, Bond and James Hickman, ninety days each; Ide Medley, ninety days, suspended, and Oll Tribbly, sixty days.

The remainder of the original twenty-two defendants were found not guilty.

BOOK REVEALS ROCKNE AS SUPER-SALESMAN

New Publication Lists Late Coach's Sense of "Human Values."

By United Press
NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—A new phase of the character of the late Knute Rockne—his ability as a salesman—is revealed in a new book that leaves the press as a new football season starts.

McReady Huston, member of the New York World-Telegram staff, writes that the famous coach was "one of the greatest salesmen this country has ever seen," in his book, "Salesman From the Sidelines," published by the firm of Ray Long and Richard E. Smith.

The writer reveals that at the time of his death, Rockne had signed a contract with one of the leading automobile concerns and that although he never sold an automobile in his life, he "knew human values and instinctively knew the methods of selling which would operate just as well with automobiles as they did with a football team."

According to the book, Rockne addressed his team of fellow salesmen with the same type of inspirational talks that had inspired his Notre Dame teams.

U. S. SEEKS TO HURRY ACTION ON ARMS CUT

Division of Forces Into Two Classes Is Proposed at Geneva.

By United Press
GENEVA, Sept. 30.—Division of armies into police forces necessary to maintain internal order and defense forces large enough to protect against external aggression was proposed to the world disarmament conference today by the American delegate, Hugh Wilson.

Wilson asked the subcommittee on effectiveness of the general steering committee to "examine as expeditiously as possible the proposal of President Hoover with the view of bringing about strict limitation and real reduction of effectives."

The American move was considered unusually important because the sub-committee is composed of political members and not experts, and also because if the powers decide to disarm, they must agree to methods of slashing land forces and navy personnel.

The outstanding proposal of the Hoover plan was a straight one-third armament cut.

The memorandum submitted today established the guiding principles for calculating reductions of armies, but admitted that determination of the actual number of effectives for each nation would be left for settlement when a comparable basis for calculation is obtained.

CALLS FOR HOOVER AID

Roosevelt Election Would Prolong Depression, Says Dale Spencer.

Pointing out things President Hoover has done in an attempt to end the depression, Dale B. Spencer, Greenfield editor and Eleventh district Republican nominee for representative to congress, declared Thursday night the program now in effect depends on Hoover's re-election.

Election of Franklin D. Roosevelt, Democratic nominee, only would prolong the depression because Roosevelt has no constructive program to offer, Spencer asserted in an Irvington rally at the home of Charles Heathco, 5142 Maple lane.

A bachelor tax on priests and members of monastic orders has been voted by one Spanish province.

MRS. DREAR AND MRS. CHEER

Mrs. Drear: I don't mind cooking, but washing dishes gets me down. I can hardly enjoy a meal for thinking about messy plates and greasy pots and pans.

Mrs. Cheer: I don't let myself think about it. Dishwashing is something that has to be done, like paying bills, and going to the dentist. So I take the easiest way. I use Oxydol and get it over in a jiffy.

• Oxydol is the best cure for those Dishpan Blues, and is as easy on hands as can be. Half again as much suds as other soaps, it cuts grease like lightning, whisks away all the dirt, gets you out of the kitchen in short order. And Oxydol is great in the washtub or washing machine—it doesn't ball up—every particle dissolves instantly into rich foamy suds. That's why it's so economical. And what a time and work saver too!
