

PURDUE BATTLES KANSAS STATE, INDIANA FACES OHIO U.

Open Grid Campaigns

Notre Dame Idle; De Pauw, Wabash and Franklin in Action.

Two of Indiana's "big three" of the collegiate gridiron show go on parade for the first time this season Saturday.

Purdue, favored to gallop away with the 1932 Big Ten laurels, faces a bitter battle from the start, taking on Bo McMillin's speedy Kansas State eleven at Lafayette.

Indiana also passed up a soft touch for the opener and takes on tough Ohio university, a team which has won twenty-six of its last twenty-seven battles.

Notre Dame remains idle until next Saturday. Meanwhile, eleven other state college teams will line up for action tonight and Saturday.

Graham Is Kansas Ace

Purdue's big problem Saturday will be to stop "Ramming Ralph" Graham, Kansas' all-Big Six full-back in 1931. Graham is the key-man of the famous "five-man back-field" which Bo McMillin, former all-American quarter back, is using.

A veteran back field and speedy line will carry the Kansas victory hopes. Outstanding members of the forward wall are Walter Zeckler, the 165-pound guard, and L. W. Michels, 185-pound center.

Purdue, with a group of fleet veteran backs, is the favorite despite an inexperienced line which has shown defensive flaws in recent practice sessions.

I. U. Prospects Bright

With prospects for the best season in years, Billy Hayes' Indiana warriors will be at full strength for Ohio U. The Crimson noted out the Buckeyes, 7 to 6, in the 1931 lid-lifter, the only setback sustained by Ohio in three years.

With most of last year's combination back in service, Ohio hopes to even the count.

Veterans will predominate in the Hoosiers' starting lineup despite a wealth of sophomore material. Don Veller, triple-threat quarter back, is the only rookie considered for a starting berth against the Buckeyes.

Franklin at Wabash

Franklin's powerful eleven invades Crawfordsville to take on Pete Vaughan's Wabash pastimers, De Pauw, 1931 state secondary champs, face trouble with Manchester at Greencastle. Central Normal invades Valparaiso and Ball State takes on Earlham at Richmond in other Saturday battles.

Rose Poly invades Hanover and Evansville plays Southeastern Missouri at Girardeau, Mo., in games tonight.

He's I. U. Powerhouse

Otis Edmonds

When Indiana U. opens its gridiron campaign Saturday against Ohio U. at Bloomington, Otis Edmonds, husky full back, will be in there ramming the Buckeye line. He also kicks and passes above par.

Third Tilt at Newark

Millers and Bears Resume Play Today; Leave for West Tonight.

By Times Special

NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 30.—The local end of the junior world's series was scheduled at Ruppert stadium this afternoon and both Bears and Millers were keyed up for a strenuous fight. The International champs and American Association pennant winners had an off-day Thursday and many of the players attended the big series tilt in New York.

The "little series" was even as the rivals squared off for the third clash today, Newark winning the opener Tuesday and Minneapolis finishing ahead Wednesday.

Pete Jablonowski, righthander, was slated to hurl for the home nine this afternoon and Manager Bush of the Millers indicated he planned to start Frank Henry, southpaw.

The teams will depart for Minneapolis tonight and play the fourth tilt in the western city on Sunday. The series will be concluded in the west. It is a scheduled seven-game event.

EARLY FOOTBALL

St. Patrick's eleven will open the Em-Roe Senior League season Sunday at 2:30 against the strong R. P. C. squad at Penny park. The feature battle will be preceded by a game between the Boys' Club team and Riley Cubs at 12:30. The St. Pat's will practice tonight at the school hall and players expecting to play Sunday must be present.

Twelfth Ward Democratic Club will play in the Em-Roe City League under the name of the A. I. Service. Practice will be held at Garfield park tonight at 7:30. All players and tryouts attend.

Four Events on Hall Mat Bill

The indoor wrestling season will open at Tomlinson hall tonight, starting at 8:30 p. m. with a program of four fast bouts. Gordon Arquette, clever young Indian middleweight, and Buck Weaver, former Indiana university star, will grip in the feature fray. The card follows:

Buck Weaver, Terre Haute, vs. Gordon Arquette, Tacoma, Wash., middleweights; two falls out of three.
Lola Shima, Japan, vs. Irvin Hecht, Cincinnati; middleweights; one fall.
Black Panther Mitchell, Louisville, vs. Ed Baker, Indianapolis; middleweights; one fall.
Johnny (Suede) Carlin, Indianapolis, vs. Jack Hollenbeck, Los Angeles; lightweights; one fall.

HANOVER BATTLES ROSE

HANOVER, Ind., Sept. 30.—The Hanover college football team will meet Rose Poly under the floodlights here tonight.
