

STOVE LEAGUE OPENS WITH USUAL RUMORS AND DENIALS

Trade Talk Pops Early

Fuchs and Mack Explode Reports; Several Cubs Due to Go.

By JACK CUDY

United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—Baseball's rumor season is off to a magnificent start, with reports of sales and officials broadcasting hot denials. The situation always develops when the writers relax after the world series and try to outguess baseball presidents and managers. The boys send out their "trial balloons" and the officials puncture them with bristling statements.

Since the last series out was called in Chicago Sunday, the boys have shifted the St. Louis Cardinals to Montreal, transferred Babe Ruth to both the New York Giants and Boston Red Sox as player-manager, sold Wesley Ferrell to about six different clubs, sent Jim Bottomley over to Cincinnati to manage the Reds, sold the Boston Braves, dismantled the entire Philadelphia Athletics and shaken the Chicago Cubs to pieces. And the stove league has just opened.

Fuchs and Mack Kick Back

Judge Emil Fuchs, owner of the Braves and Connie Mack, manager of the Athletics, blew up the reports about their clubs. Judge Fuchs denied emphatically that the Braves had been sold to Charles F. Adams, owner of the Boston Bruins Hockey Club and part owner of the Braves. He branded the report as "ridiculous."

At Philadelphia, Connie Mack denied reports that he intends to dismantle his 1932 Athletics. This report had started when he sold three players, Simons, Dykes and Haas to the Chicago White Sox.

"No player belonging to the Athletics will be sold or traded to another major league club before the end of the 1933 season," Mack said. "If a player is sold or traded it will be only to a minor league club."

Won't Deal With Leaders

"Furthermore, any deal that I make after the close of next season will not be with any of the first five clubs of the American League. As long as I am connected with the A's none of the first five teams will be able to buy or trade with me. I have come to the conclusion that the first five clubs are as strong as I want to see them."

Mack said financial conditions had caused the sale of his three players to Chicago, and that now "I am entirely satisfied with my ball club."

As the Chicago Cubs disbanded there was a flurry of reports that the veterans, Burleigh Grimes, Bob Smith and Johnny Moore, and young Stanley Hack, would be traded to bring to the Cubs a good left-handed pitcher and a heavy hitting outfielder. No statement was forthcoming on this matter.

The removal of Walter Johnson as Washington manager, announced Tuesday night, was not a surprise. This change was rumored several weeks ago, but it is the first big definite news item of the stove league.

Cincy Mentor Shifts Lineup

By Times Special
CINCINNATI, Oct. 5.—Dana M. King, Cincinnati U. football coach, is making changes in his lineup as the Bearcats prepare for Saturday night's tussle with Butler of Indiana.

King believes his line is weak at the tackle posts, and has replaced Frank Ruck and George Smith with Paul Kauffman and Red Hessel. Carl Williams was moved from half back to guard, where he will be used to run interference. Bud Hell was shifted from end to the back field, and White Davis from the back field to end. Other shifts may be made later this week.

Ubl Winning Death Battle

By United Press
MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 5.—Myron Ubl, University of Minnesota football star, today announced he would hold his own in a battle with death, but his condition remained serious.

Physicians said he had rested during the night, but was only slightly better from pneumonia which set in while he was under treatment with a fractured bone in his chest. The bone was fractured during football practice.

THE FIFTH ARMED LEGION basketball team, would like to hear from strong clubs for an opening game at First Christian Church, 110 W. 11th St. A. C. Gray, care of the Armory, Tipton, Ind. is desired for the entire season.

Senators Fire Johnson

Walter Johnson, one of baseball's immortals, was released Tuesday as manager of the Washington American League club.

Three Yank Stars Desert Bachelor Ranks—Two Left

By United Press

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—Sammy Byrd, outfielder of the champion New York Yankees, is married and honeymooning in New York; catcher Bill Dickey will marry some time this week, and Vernon (Lefty) Gomez, will walk to the altar Saturday.

Byrd was married Tuesday to Miss Rachel E. Smith of Birmingham.

With these three gone, only two of the old guard remain in the Yankees' bachelor ranks—Lou Gehrig and Charley Ruffing. Ben Chapman and Lyn Lary were married last year.
