COURTS THAT BOW TO POLITICS ARE ASSAILED

Hamilton County Circuit Judge Speaks at City Bar Group's Dinner.

Courts that bow to politics, giving favors here and there, were scored by Circuit Judge Fred E. Hines of Hamilton county, at the annual guest meeting of the Indianapolis Bar Association at the Columbia Club Wednesday night.

"There should be some way to take the judiciary out of politics," he asserted, "and not force the judges to participate in primary elections, bowing to bootleggers and ward heelers."

He declared he favored revision of the state Constitution that would dignify the courts of Indiana.

Judges and members of the bar from seven counties adjoining Marion were present. Supreme, appellate, federal and local court judges also attended.

WAR SPY TURNS MONK

Treibtsch Lincoln Back in Germany in Robes of Buddhist.

BREMEN, Germany, Oct. 6.—Treibtsch Lincoln, famous during the World war as a spy, has arrived here from China, traveling on a Chinese passport as Chao Kung, Buddhist monk.

Lincoln wore the robes of a monk. His head was closely shaved and twelve rings, symbolic of the Buddhist wheel of life, were burned into his scalp.

"Once I sought revenge against England for the execution of my son," Lincoln said when he arrived on the Norwegian steamer Trianon. "But now I have renounced all vengeance. All I seek is peace." His son was executed for murder.

THE TIME TO KILL A COLD

—is in the First Stage, While it is Yet a "Dry" Cold!

Now it is known that a cold ordinarily passes through three stages. The first is the Dry Stage, the first 24 hours. The second is the Watery Secretion Stage, from 1 to 3 days. Doll Collection Shows Varying Beauty Styles

Egypt Hawaii

Symbolizing different standards of beauty in thirty countries of the world, a collection of dolls made by a Polish artist, each attired in the dress of its native country, is on display at the L. S. Ayres & Co. store in connection with sale of Elizabeth Arden beauty preparations.

Of the dozens of dolls in the display, each distinctive in type of facial make-up and attire, one representing the Egyptian woman typifies a nation in which make-up is decidedly in vogue. Others include a likeness of the Hawaiian woman and the Swiss native, whose use of eye-shade, mascara and lip stick is attended with secrecy.

Authenticity of dress of each doll is attested by documents from embassies or legations in respective countries. Arden preparations are sold in each of the countries.

FORMER G. O. P. EDITOR PLEADS FOR VAN NUYS

Rudolph G. Leeds, Richmond, Seeks to Turn State to Democrats.

By Times Special
CENTERVILLE, Ind., Oct. 6.—First shot in his campaign to swing Indiana to the Democratic column was taken by Rudolph G. Leeds, wealthy Richmond newspaper and magazine publisher and agriculturist, at a Wayne county rally here Wednesday night.

Leeds, a Republican for many years, has taken to the stump for the Democratic state and national tickets, and in his introduction of Frederick Van Nuy, Democratic senatorial nominee, flayed the lack of a constructive agricultural program in the Republican platform.

"In 1928," said Leeds, "congress passed a measure for controlling agricultural surpluses called the equalization fee plan; the principle of which Brazil is using right successfully now for controlling her gigantic coffee surplus."

"President Coolidge vetoed that bill!"

"The same measure was passed by congress in 1929 and President Hoover vetoed it!"

"Thereby both those Presidents left the gates wide open for this depression, which is due to price-and-income destroying agricultural surpluses."

"Since then President Hoover has several times threatened to veto any measure that would make for agricultural and industrial stability."
