

FRANCE MAY BE NEW EUROPEAN ALLY OF JAPAN

Nippon Seeking Huge Loan to Carry on Her Big Manchurian Venture.

By WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS
Scripps-Howard Foreign Editor

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—In desperate need of funds and war materials with which to carry on her adventure in Manchuria, Japan is reported to be seeking a huge loan, or credits in lieu thereof, in France.

This had led to rumors that France soon may replace Great Britain as the European ally of Japan, or something closely resembling that.

The Anglo-Japanese alliance ended a decade ago, as a result of new treaties entered into at the Washington conference of 1922.

Department of commerce information is that the Japanese government plans to expend no less than half its entire next year's budget of approximately $1,000,000,000 on its army and navy—the greatest such peace-time expenditures in the history of the empire.

Country's Resources Taxed

The proposed $500,000,000 outlay beyond question, seriously will tax the country's resources, coming as it will, on top of the $300,000,000 expenditures of the present year, itself a colossal sum for a comparatively poor nation. Last year's figures for the army and navy were only $209,000,000.

Japan's gold reserves have shrunk from $425,000,000 in July, 1931, to about $210,000,000 at the present time.

Recently the government attempted to float a domestic loan of $300,000,000, or 600,000,000 yen at 100, but this proved too much for the people to absorb. The Japanese national bank took over the amount and new paper money was printed.

Gold Deposits Shrinking

As a result of the situation, the yen has fallen in value from half a dollar to 22 cents.

This makes it extremely difficult for Japan to obtain the necessary exchange to finance purchases abroad, and as her foreign gold deposits already are small and still shrinking, an early foreign loan appears urgent.

Approximately two-thirds of the total of world supply of gold is in the hands of the United States and France.

One or the other of these countries, therefore, must supply Japan's needs, if these needs are met. And for the present, there seems little likelihood of a loan in the United States.

Leaving Manchuria entirely out of the picture, bankers admit that foreign loans in this country now are suspected generally.

French Attitude Friendly

France, however, not only possesses about three times as much gold per capita as the United States, but from the beginning has maintained an extremely friendly attitude toward Japan's seizure of Manchuria.

Possessing, perhaps the greatest colonial empire in the world, since Britain's dominions became independent, some of her most cherished possessions are within striking distance of Japan.

Indo-China is particularly important to France, and promises to be increasingly so with her perilous quarrel with Germany, France has much to gain by an entente with Japan.

There is talk of a $100,000,000 French loan to Japan. This figure is regarded as high by observers here.

But some sort of arrangement whereby Japan could obtain credits, either in France or in Czechoslovakia, Indo-China and other allied countries and dependencies, might serve to tide Japan over.

Japan is said to have placed an order for $10,000,000 worth of war materials in Czechoslovakia recently, and France likewise is reported to have received orders for more.

RAILMEN AID LA GUARDIA

Labor Leaders Are Aroused by Tammany Hall Attacks.

By Scripps-Howard Newspaper Alliance

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—Labor and progressive leaders are aroused at reports that Tammany Hall is "ganging up" to defeat Representative Fiorello H. La Guardia, Republican progressive of New York City.

Announcing unanimous indorsement of the twenty-one standard railroad labor organizations, representing 1,200,000 railroad workers, A. F. Whitney, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, said:

"He (La Guardia) can be depended upon to put up a hard and intelligent fight at all times for righteous legislation, and always is at the front, battling against legislation inimical to the interests of the common people."

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Indictment of Samuel and Martin J. Insull on charges resulting from collapse of their utilities left their status as social registers unchanged today.

The 1933 edition of the Social Register appeared today listing the brothers among 2,998 others as leaders of Chicago society.

Listed as living at a Lake Shore drive address, Samuel Insull is now a fugitive at Athens, Greece. His brother, Martin, for whom a local address also is given, is a refugee at a tiny Ontario village.

Adding-Machine Dog Shows His Wares to City

Bozo, knocking at The Times door.

A MYSTERY to scientists, Bozo, mathematical "wonder dog," is in the city today to "show the folks" how to add and subtract in a brand new way.

Bozo doesn't profess to be an expert at reading and writing, but when it comes to figures, he's a champion.

Bozo not only adds and subtracts small figures in terms of barks, but he has the psychic power of revealing ages of his admirers as well as numbers of hidden playing cards.

A cross between a Scotch collie and a Chinese chow, Bozo, at the age of 2½, has a theater record almost as long as that of the famed Rin-Tin-Tin, but he plays a different part.

E. C. Lower of Tampa, Fla., his owner, but this proved too much for the people to absorb. The Japanese national bank took over the amount and new paper money was printed.

Lower says that the dog's peculiar gifts were discovered when he was but 9 months old. The dog has been examined by 200 scientists, and dog experts, who are at loss to explain his abilities. Bozo even has baffled Ripley, in whose office he correctly answered simple mathematical problems for two hours last summer. He is valued at $100,000, according to his owner, who pays $27.65 a week for insurance.

ERROR FOUND; FREED

Negro Is Kept in Jail Nine Months Because of Law's Mistake.

Because the law apparently made a mistake in his case, Charles M. Dickerson, 21, Negro, 2446 Cornell avenue, remained in the county jail nine months charged with murder of a friend, Clayburne Hester.

Dickerson was freed Tuesday when his case came to trial in criminal court and the state's witness failed to appear.

Moreover, Deputy Prosecutor John C. Kelly informed the court, there is no evidence of Dickerson's guilt. Dickerson called police when his friend was shot following a scuffle nine months ago.

HELENE WINS SON'S CUSTODY PART OF TIME

Prince Michael to Remain
With Mother Six Months
Each Year.

By United Press

BUCHAREST, Nov. 2.—Princess Helene, divorced wife of King Carol, won her fight today for partial custody of her son, 11-year-old Prince Michael.

An official communique announced that complete agreement had been reached regarding Michael, as well as regarding Helene's civil list—the amount she receives from the crown for her support. Details of the agreement will be published after Helen leaves Bucharest within a few days.

It was understood that Princess Helene was granted custody of her son for six months annually, and was left free to determine whether the boy would be with her in Roumania or abroad.

It was also said that Princess Helene was guaranteed that her civil list would be restored to 8,000,000 lei, ($48,000) at present exchanges, annually, with assurance of regular payment. She was also promised a gold adjudication of 20,000,000 lei ($120,000) long overdue.

It was also said that Helene would leave here Thursday, probably for Italy, after Michael tells her goodbye.

Helene was understood to have waived the right to determine the form of her son's education.

EVENING DRESS BANNED FOR HOOVER SPEECHES

G. O. P. Orators Given Tip to Shun
Tail Coat.

By Scripps-Howard Newspaper Alliance

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—President Hoover has set the fashion of wearing a dinner jacket instead of evening dress when he delivers campaign speeches at night, and there is a tacit understanding that this rule must be followed by other Republican speakers.

Word quickly has circulated that the white tie is taboo. Even at formal banquets, Republican orators eschew the tail coat. These accoutrements of supposed plutocracy are frowned upon as bad taste before election.

The President addressed members of the American Bar Association here today on the Carl Quigley farm near Newton, Fountain county.

An elimination contest among county winners was held Tuesday to determine the ten highest contestants who will participate in the contest today.
