

Singer Is on Program for Artists

Mrs. William Ball to Give Recital Here Sunday.

Mrs. William Ball of Muncie will sing Sunday afternoon from 4:30 to 5:15 in the Valencia room of the Spink-Arms as a part of the program of the exhibition of the Indiana Artists Club. She will be accompanied by Mrs. Eugene Osterle. Her program will include "A Zucchini," "Tosti," "Luna," "Tosti," "Dance," "Dance," "Dance," "Zucchini," "Fourrain," "Bohemian Song," "Dvorak," "Champerre," "Poulet," "Le Couer de ma Mie," "Delcote," "Snow Flakes," "Mallinson," "Devotion," "Beresford," "Cradle Song," "Mausorsky," and "Song of the Open." Mrs. Bernard Cunniss is being assisted in arranging the Sunday afternoon musical program by Mrs. Nancy Martens.

Following the close of the exhibit Jan. 21, the Spink-Arms will continue the Sunday afternoon musical program.

Officers of the club are Edward K. Williams, Nashville; Mrs. George Mess, vice-president; Miss Elmina Kempton, Richmond, second vice-president; Miss Lenore Bernholz, secretary; and Carl Lyman, treasurer.

The directors are Mesdames Earle Batt, James Otis Adams, Emma Sangerbo, Helen M. Woodard; Misses Marie Todd, Carolyn Bradley, Messrs. Simon Baus, Frederick Polley and Paul Randall.

Mrs. William Allen Moore is in charge of the galleries and will assist with the sales.

Orchestra Will Play New Blues

Many interesting events await dancers this coming week at the Lyric ballroom.

"Whispering" Jack Wright and his orchestra will continue to entertain dancers in the ballroom.

This week's dance program includes a "Ford" party on Monday night; Tuesday night has been designated as "Studio night," when both present and past students of advance classes from the Stockman dance studio will be invited to the ballroom management, and will give special novel dances and entertainment; Wednesday night will be "waltz" night, and ladies will be admitted free as guests of the management of the ballroom.

Thursday night has been set aside as "celebrity" night, when artists on the stage bill, when Lyric theater will make a personal appearance in the ballroom; Friday night will be "collegiate and waltz" night, and many new arrangements of college medleys will be introduced to dancers by the orchestra.

Saturday and Sunday nights will be "whoopie" nights, when novel surprise entertainment has been planned.

"Blue Hour" will be a feature of each evening, when the orchestra will feature new blue melodies for dancers.

"Blue Hour" will be a feature of each evening, when the orchestra will feature new blue melodies for dancers.

"Blue Hour" will be a feature of each evening, when the orchestra will feature new blue melodies for dancers.

"Blue Hour" will be a feature of each evening, when the orchestra will feature new blue melodies for dancers.

"Blue Hour" will be a feature of each evening, when the orchestra will feature new blue melodies for dancers.

"Blue Hour" will be a feature of each evening, when the orchestra will feature new blue melodies for dancers.

"Blue Hour" will be a feature of each evening, when the orchestra will feature new blue melodies for dancers.

"Blue Hour" will be a feature of each evening, when the orchestra will feature new blue melodies for dancers.

"Blue Hour" will be a feature of each evening, when the orchestra will feature new blue melodies for dancers.

"Blue Hour" will be a feature of each evening, when the orchestra will feature new blue melodies for dancers.

"Blue Hour" will be a feature of each evening, when the orchestra will feature new blue melodies for dancers.

"Blue Hour" will be a feature of each evening, when the orchestra will feature new blue melodies for dancers.

"Blue Hour" will be a feature of each evening, when the orchestra will feature new blue melodies for dancers.

"Blue Hour" will be a feature of each evening, when the orchestra will feature new blue melodies for dancers.

"Blue Hour" will be a feature of each evening, when the orchestra will feature new blue melodies for dancers.

"Blue Hour" will be a feature of each evening, when the orchestra will feature new blue melodies for dancers.

"Blue Hour" will be a feature of each evening, when the orchestra will feature new blue melodies for dancers.

"Blue Hour" will be a feature of each evening, when the orchestra will feature new blue melodies for dancers.

"Blue Hour" will be a feature of each evening, when the orchestra will feature new blue melodies for dancers.

"Blue Hour" will be a feature of each evening, when the orchestra will feature new blue melodies for dancers.

"Blue Hour" will be a feature of each evening, when the orchestra will feature new blue melodies for dancers.

"Blue Hour" will be a feature of each evening, when the orchestra will feature new blue melodies for dancers.

"Blue Hour" will be a feature of each evening, when the orchestra will feature new blue melodies for dancers.

"Blue Hour" will be a feature of each evening, when the orchestra will feature new blue melodies for dancers.

"Blue Hour" will be a feature of each evening, when the orchestra will feature new blue melodies for dancers.

"Blue Hour" will be a feature of each evening, when the orchestra will feature new blue melodies for dancers.

"Blue Hour" will be a feature of each evening, when the orchestra will feature new blue melodies for dancers.

"Blue Hour" will be a feature of each evening, when the orchestra will feature new blue melodies for dancers.

"Blue Hour" will be a feature of each evening, when the orchestra will feature new blue melodies for dancers.

"Blue Hour" will be a feature of each evening, when the orchestra will feature new blue melodies for dancers.

"Blue Hour" will be a feature of each evening, when the orchestra will feature new blue melodies for dancers.

"Blue Hour" will be a feature of each evening, when the orchestra will feature new blue melodies for dancers.

"Blue Hour" will be a feature of each evening, when the orchestra will feature new blue melodies for dancers.

World-Famed Lecturers Will Be Brought to City for Series of Talks to Woman's Department Club

John Langdon-Davies

Robert Parker Miles

Frances Homer

Don Blanding

P. T. A. Notes

Crispus Attucks high school will hold its January P. T. A. meeting at 3:15 Friday afternoon. A play, "The Gruesome Ray" written by Miss Clara Rodman, a student in the physics department, will be given. Music will be by the Pistello trio, composed of Roscoe Polin, Weir Stuart and Thomas Elam.

Mrs. Thomas A. Cooper, program chairman of the Indianapolis Parent-Teacher Federation, will speak on "Adventurous Parenthood" at School 3 at 3:15 Wednesday. The Child Study Club of the school will meet from 1:30 to 2:30.

The English and Physical Education classes of the 8A grade at School 8 will present an "Americanization Pageant" at 7:30 Wednesday night. A program of folk dances will be given by the girls of the same group.

Albert Giesler will speak on "Where Are We Going?" at School 13 at 7:30 Wednesday. A musical program will be given, composed of a trombone solo by Mr. Giesler, and a vocal solo by Miss Maxine Moore.

Winfield Miller will speak on "Education Problems" at School 15 at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon. A program of piano selections will be given by Harry Bason, WKBF radio artist.

The Rev. T. J. Simpson will speak at School 16 at 3:15 Wednesday. The Junior high school chorus will sing.

The boys' glee club will provide a musical program for the meeting at School 22 to be held at 3:15 Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Elizabeth Downhour, instructor in natural science in the Butler Teachers college, will speak on natural study work at School 23 at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon. Miss Thelma Doris Leasure of the Butler School of Expression, will give a program of dramatic readings.

Mrs. David Edwards will give a travel-talk, dealing with a visit to the Duke of Bedford's castle, at School 29 at 2:30 Wednesday. Mrs. Harry McNeely will give a group of songs, accompanied by Mrs. Clark Griffith. The Mothers chorus will sing. A social hour will follow.

Miss Belle Schofield of the art department of the public schools will give a talk on "Egypt and the Nile," at School 36 at 3 Wednesday.

Miss Flora Dutcher of the Marion County Tuberculosis society will give an illustrated lecture on "Posture" at School 41 at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon. A musical program will be provided in charge of Mrs. Nell Tyler.

Dr. John G. Benson will speak on "The Ten Commandments of the Gospel of Health" at School 43 at 1:45 Wednesday afternoon. A Red Cross unit has been organized in this school. Work will begin at 9 a. m. Jan. 10. Patrons and friends of the school are asked to enlist their services.

Mrs. Clayton Ridge will give a talk on state and national Parent-Teacher work before the association at School 44 at 2:30 Wednesday. Mrs. Roy Pile will give a group of songs.

Mrs. Julius C. Travis will speak on the training of the preadolescent child at School 45 at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Pauline Maginly will provide piano selections, and the primary band will play.

Dr. Herman Morgan of the Indianapolis Board of Health, will give a health talk at School 49 at 2:45 Wednesday. Music will be provided by the junior high school boys' glee club.

"Stunt Day," with the hostess for each room providing a stunt, will compose the program at School 54 at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon.

The Rev. G. O. Carpenter will speak on "Youth and the Home" at School 57 at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon. The school orchestra will furnish the musical program.

Sidney R. Eten of the state conservation department will speak on "State Parks in Indiana" at School 58 at 3:15 Wednesday afternoon. A musical program will be provided by Mrs. Schausen and the Mothers' chorus.

Mrs. John Cunningham will speak on "The Parent in a Changing World," at School 66 at 3:15 Wednesday afternoon.

Dr. Adah Schwartz will speak on "The Safe Way to the Public Health" at School 69 at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon. A program of Scotch songs will be provided by Mrs. A. C. Garnet and Mrs. J. C. Emhardt.

Mrs. David Ross will speak at School 74 at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Mell Jackson will speak on "Appreciation of Music" at School 76 at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Jackson will be assisted by Mrs. Jane Johnson Burroughs, soloist.

The Rev. H. E. Eberhardt will be the speaker for the meeting at School 78 at 2:30 Wednesday. Mrs. Paul Dorsey will sing.

Dr. Jean L. Milner will speak at School 84 at 2:30 Wednesday. A program of harp music will be given by Mrs. Alberta McCain Caunt.

Dr. Henry B. Morrow will speak on oral hygiene at School 85 at 3:15 Wednesday afternoon.

Hostess to Society

Miss Elizabeth Bertermann, 5881 Washington boulevard, will be hostess for the Christmaseve Aid Society at 2:30 Tuesday at her home. She will be assisted at tea by Mesdames Erwin G. Yonnet, Fred S. Boone and Ernest R. Baltzell.

Widely known men and women will be brought to the city by the Woman's Department Club during the coming months as its contribution to the city's cultural development.

The first will be Robert Parker Miles, who will speak Wednesday at the club's general session. He will present his lecture, "Tallow Dips," which has been given more than 3,000 times in every English-speaking country in the world.

The lecture is the result of a tour around the world, when he interviewed Gladstone, Balfour, Bismarck, Leo XIII, President Carnot, King Edward, Kaiser Wilhelm. He is special editorialist and investigator for the New York Journal.

John Langdon-Davies is scheduled for Wednesday, Feb. 8, when he will discuss "An Outside View of American Education." As an author, Davies has made a name for himself and is credited with "Man and His Universe" and "Man Comes of Age."

"Adventuring with Don Blanding" will be Blanding's subject on March 8, when he describes his world travels. He originated Lei day in the Hawaiian islands, one of their prettiest customs.

Character sketches will be portrayed by Frances Homer when she appears before the club April 12. Her repertoire contains original monologues of American life, impressions of famous stage stars in their recent roles and full length readings of modern classics.

East Park M. E.—The Rev. A. A. Urey, pastor. Morning theme, "Why?" night, "The New Birth." Church night, "Things Shaken and Unshaken."

Christian and Missionary Alliance—The Rev. James Harper, pastor. Morning theme, "The Church," night, "Things Shaken and Unshaken."

St. Paul's Reformed—The Rev. William H. Kiermer, pastor. Morning theme, "The Church," night, "Things Shaken and Unshaken."

Trinity Reformed—The Rev. William H. Kiermer, pastor. Morning theme, "The Church," night, "Things Shaken and Unshaken."

NOTED MAN TO SPEAK SUNDAY

Approximately 300 young people are expected to attend the vespers services at the Immanuel Reformed church Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock to hear Dr. J. C. Massee give an address on "God in Our Love Affairs."

Invitations have been extended to all south side churches and the College of Religion of Butler university, and to the students of Indiana Central college. Cedric White, president of the Immanuel Young Peoples' organization, will preside at the meeting.

Dr. Massee was principal speaker at the Winona Lake conference last year, and is in Indianapolis this week in conjunction with the national convention of evangelists.

Preceding the address, George Joslin, department head, will lead the group in several songs. The Rev. W. C. Massee, pastor, will assist the hostess, Mrs. C. Brooker is music chairman.

Mandaly chapter will meet with Mrs. Maude Schaub, 323 Northern avenue at 1:30 Wednesday.

Panamaian chapter will be entertained with an all day meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. Edward C. Wischmeyer, 510 North Riley. Mrs. Charles Turner and Mrs. Effie Rogers will assist the hostess.

Flemish Flanders chapter will meet at 7:45 Wednesday at the home of Mrs. John M. Whitehead, 2301 Nowland avenue. Mrs. Horace Johnson will assist the hostess. Miss Garnet Roberts, program chairman, will have charge of the musical program.

Jeanne D'Arc chapter will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Rosa Pearson, 1210 North Tuxedo at 12 Friday. Miss Edith Pearson will assist the hostess. Roll call will be New Year resolutions.

Lucerne chapter will meet at 10:30 Friday at the Spink-Arms for the regular meeting. Mrs. K. G. Whitney, 5889 Lowell avenue, will preside.

Anglo India chapter will meet at the home of Mrs. Homer W. Cox, 5356 Broadway, for a 1 o'clock luncheon Saturday. Assistant hostess will be Mrs. James Molin. The luncheon will be followed by the regular business meeting.

Venetian chapter met at the home of Mrs. James A. Kreglo, president, 2322 Nowland avenue, Monday afternoon. The candlelight service was for three new members. Each member and guest received a lighted candle as a symbol of strengthening their chain of friendship. Mrs. J. Edward Rogers read "Greetings," by Both Tarkington. Mrs. Kreglo received as a surprise a birthday cake from the chapter, and a silver loving cup from Mrs. Artman. The refreshments were flower pots consisting of ice cream in small cones the shape of flower pots with colored candies on top to represent flowers. Tea was poured by Mrs. Rogers.

The Children's Sunshine Club of Sunnyside will meet in the Fletcher American parlors, Mrs. August Soutter, first vice-president, will preside.

THURSDAY

Mrs. Omar Brannell, 1436 Lawton, will be hostess for a covered dish luncheon of the Ladies' Federal Club. The committee is composed of Mesdames E. J. Whitaker, F. A. Lorenz and C. H. Tuttle.

A paper on Music Shocks by Mrs. W. W. Payne will be given by Mrs. W. R. E. Payne will be subjects for the Current Events Club. Mrs. L. E. Scherb will be hostess, assisted by Mrs. P. C. Lumley.

A debate on "Resolved: There Shall Be Equal Rights for Men and Women," will form the program of the meeting of the Indianapolis Business and Professional Women's Club at the Woman's Department Club.

International Study Club

Chapters of the International Travel-Study Club, Inc., are studying Central America with Mrs. S. R. Artman, this month. Her subject next week will be Yucatan—It's Nunneries and Monasteries.

Elsinore chapter will be entertained at 1 Monday at the home of Mrs. Frank N. Daniel, 5889 Lowell avenue.

Princess Mary chapter will be entertained at the Irvington School of Music by Miss Adelaide Conte and Miss Alice Cooper at 7:30 Monday. Mrs. D. V. S. Glubka and Mrs. Max Norris will have charge of the meeting.

Elidewich chapter will be hostess to the Alpina chapter Tuesday with a 6:30 o'clock dinner at the Washington. Both chapters will have an initiation service for new members. Miss Clara Henry will have charge of the meeting.

Australian chapter will meet Tuesday with Mrs. Vaughn Cooke, 6040 East St. Joe street, for a 1 o'clock luncheon. Mrs. Wilbur Washburn and Mrs. L. A. Stevens will assist the hostess. Mrs. Frank Kenzie, program chairman, will be in charge of the program. Mrs. C. Brooker is music chairman.

Mandaly chapter will meet with Mrs. Maude Schaub, 323 Northern avenue at 1:30 Wednesday.

Panamaian chapter will be entertained with an all day meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. Edward C. Wischmeyer, 510 North Riley. Mrs. Charles Turner and Mrs. Effie Rogers will assist the hostess.

Flemish Flanders chapter will meet at 7:45 Wednesday at the home of Mrs. John M. Whitehead, 2301 Nowland avenue. Mrs. Horace Johnson will assist the hostess. Miss Garnet Roberts, program chairman, will have charge of the musical program.

Jeanne D'Arc chapter will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Rosa Pearson, 1210 North Tuxedo at 12 Friday. Miss Edith Pearson will assist the hostess. Roll call will be New Year resolutions.

Lucerne chapter will meet at 10:30 Friday at the Spink-Arms for the regular meeting. Mrs. K. G. Whitney, 5889 Lowell avenue, will preside.

Anglo India chapter will meet at the home of Mrs. Homer W. Cox, 5356 Broadway, for a 1 o'clock luncheon Saturday. Assistant hostess will be Mrs. James Molin. The luncheon will be followed by the regular business meeting.

Venetian chapter met at the home of Mrs. James A. Kreglo, president, 2322 Nowland avenue, Monday afternoon. The candlelight service was for three new members. Each member and guest received a lighted candle as a symbol of strengthening their chain of friendship. Mrs. J. Edward Rogers read "Greetings," by Both Tarkington. Mrs. Kreglo received as a surprise a birthday cake from the chapter, and a silver loving cup from Mrs. Artman. The refreshments were flower pots consisting of ice cream in small cones the shape of flower pots with colored candies on top to represent flowers. Tea was poured by Mrs. Rogers.

The Children's Sunshine Club of Sunnyside will meet in the Fletcher American parlors, Mrs. August Soutter, first vice-president, will preside.

THURSDAY

Mrs. Omar Brannell, 1436 Lawton, will be hostess for a covered dish luncheon of the Ladies' Federal Club. The committee is composed of Mesdames E. J. Whitaker, F. A. Lorenz and C. H. Tuttle.

A paper on Music Shocks by Mrs. W. W. Payne will be given by Mrs. W. R. E. Payne will be subjects for the Current Events Club. Mrs. L. E. Scherb will be hostess, assisted by Mrs. P. C. Lumley.

A debate on "Resolved: There Shall Be Equal Rights for Men and Women," will form the program of the meeting of the Indianapolis Business and Professional Women's Club at the Woman's Department Club.

THURSDAY

Mrs. Omar Brannell, 1436 Lawton, will be hostess for a covered dish luncheon of the Ladies' Federal Club. The committee is composed of Mesdames E. J. Whitaker, F. A. Lorenz and C. H. Tuttle.

A paper on Music Shocks by Mrs. W. W. Payne will be given by Mrs. W. R. E. Payne will be subjects for the Current Events Club. Mrs. L. E. Scherb will be hostess, assisted by Mrs. P. C. Lumley.

A debate on "Resolved: There Shall Be Equal Rights for Men and Women," will form the program of the meeting of the Indianapolis Business and Professional Women's Club at the Woman's Department Club.

THURSDAY

Mrs. Omar Brannell, 1436 Lawton, will be hostess for a covered dish luncheon of the Ladies' Federal Club. The committee is composed of Mesdames E. J. Whitaker, F. A. Lorenz and C. H. Tuttle.

A paper on Music Shocks by Mrs. W. W. Payne will be given by Mrs. W. R. E. Payne will be subjects for the Current Events Club. Mrs. L. E. Scherb will be hostess, assisted by Mrs. P. C. Lumley.

A debate on "Resolved: There Shall Be Equal Rights for Men and Women," will form the program of the meeting of the Indianapolis Business and Professional Women's Club at the Woman's Department Club.

THURSDAY

International Study Club

Chapters of the International Travel-Study Club, Inc., are studying Central America with Mrs. S. R. Artman, this month. Her subject next week will be Yucatan—It's Nunneries and Monasteries.

Elsinore chapter will be entertained at 1 Monday at the home of Mrs. Frank N. Daniel, 5889 Lowell avenue.

Princess Mary chapter will be entertained at the Irvington School of Music by Miss Adelaide Conte and Miss Alice Cooper at 7:30 Monday. Mrs. D. V. S. Glubka and Mrs. Max Norris will have charge of the meeting.

Elidewich chapter will be hostess to the Alpina chapter Tuesday with a 6:30 o'clock dinner at the Washington. Both chapters will have an initiation service for new members. Miss Clara Henry will have charge of the meeting.

Australian chapter will meet Tuesday with Mrs. Vaughn Cooke, 6040 East St. Joe street, for a 1 o'clock luncheon. Mrs. Wilbur Washburn and Mrs. L. A. Stevens will assist the hostess. Mrs. Frank Kenzie, program chairman, will be in charge of the program. Mrs. C. Brooker is music chairman.

Mandaly chapter will meet with Mrs. Maude Schaub, 323 Northern avenue at 1:30 Wednesday.

Panamaian chapter will be entertained with an all day meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. Edward C. Wischmeyer, 510 North Riley. Mrs. Charles Turner and Mrs. Effie Rogers will assist the hostess.

Flemish Flanders chapter will meet at 7:45 Wednesday at the home of Mrs. John M. Whitehead, 2301 Nowland avenue. Mrs. Horace Johnson will assist the hostess. Miss Garnet Roberts, program chairman, will have charge of the musical program.

Jeanne D'Arc chapter will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Rosa Pearson, 1210 North Tuxedo at 12 Friday. Miss Edith Pearson will assist the hostess. Roll call will be New Year resolutions.

Lucerne chapter will meet at 10:30 Friday at the Spink-Arms for the regular meeting. Mrs. K. G. Whitney, 5889 Lowell avenue, will preside.

Anglo India chapter will meet at the home of Mrs. Homer W. Cox, 5356 Broadway, for a 1 o'clock luncheon Saturday. Assistant hostess will be Mrs. James Molin. The luncheon will be followed by the regular business meeting.

Venetian chapter met at the home of Mrs. James A. Kreglo, president, 2322 Nowland avenue, Monday afternoon. The candlelight service was for three new members. Each member and guest received a lighted candle as a symbol of strengthening their chain of friendship. Mrs. J. Edward Rogers read "Greetings," by Both Tarkington. Mrs. Kreglo received as a surprise a birthday cake from the chapter, and a silver loving cup from Mrs. Artman. The refreshments were flower pots consisting of ice cream in small cones the shape of flower pots with colored candies on top to represent flowers. Tea was poured by Mrs. Rogers.

The Children's Sunshine Club of Sunnyside will meet in the Fletcher American parlors, Mrs. August Soutter, first vice-president, will preside.

THURSDAY

Mrs. Omar Brannell, 1436 Lawton, will be hostess for a covered dish luncheon of the Ladies' Federal Club. The committee is composed of Mesdames E. J. Whitaker, F. A. Lorenz and C. H. Tuttle.

A paper on Music Shocks by Mrs. W. W. Payne will be given by Mrs. W. R. E. Payne will be subjects for the Current Events Club. Mrs. L. E. Scherb will be hostess, assisted by Mrs. P. C. Lumley.

A debate on "Resolved: There Shall Be Equal Rights for Men and Women," will form the program of the meeting of the Indianapolis Business and Professional Women's Club at the Woman's Department Club.

THURSDAY

Mrs. Omar Brannell, 1436 Lawton, will be hostess for a covered dish luncheon of the Ladies' Federal Club. The committee is composed of Mesdames E. J. Whitaker, F. A. Lorenz and C. H. Tuttle.

A paper on Music Shocks by Mrs. W. W. Payne will be given by Mrs. W. R. E. Payne will be subjects for the Current Events Club. Mrs. L. E. Scherb will be hostess, assisted by Mrs. P. C. Lumley.

A debate on "Resolved: There Shall Be Equal Rights for Men and Women," will form the program of the meeting of the Indianapolis Business and Professional Women's Club at the Woman's Department Club.

THURSDAY

Mrs. Omar Brannell, 1436 Lawton, will be hostess for a covered dish luncheon of the Ladies' Federal Club. The committee is composed of Mesdames E. J. Whitaker, F. A. Lorenz and C. H. Tuttle.

A paper on Music Shocks by Mrs. W. W. Payne will be given by Mrs. W. R. E. Payne will be subjects for the Current Events Club. Mrs. L. E. Scherb will be hostess, assisted by Mrs. P. C. Lumley.

A debate on "Resolved: There Shall Be Equal Rights for Men and Women," will form the program of the meeting of the Indianapolis Business and Professional Women's Club at the Woman's Department Club.

THURSDAY

G. O. P. SPENDS $2,670,652 IN LAST CAMPAIGN

Party Deficit of $195,000 on Dec. 31 Reported to House Clerk.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The Republican national committee spent $2,670,652 in its unsuccessful attempt to win the last national election, it reported Friday to South Trimble, clerk of the house.