Five Other Persons Are Hurt in Week-End Crashes in City.

Marion county's auto death toll for the first month of 1933 stood at ten today following deaths of a man and a girl during the week-end from injuries received when they were struck by cars. Other accidents resulted in injury of five persons and arrest of two drivers.

Ruth Poynter, 10, of 1455 1/2 North Delaware street, died early Sunday in city hospital of injuries suffered when she was struck by an auto Saturday night near her home.

The child, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Poynter, was a pupil at School 45.

After investigation of the accident, police said that Daniel W. Clapp, 24, of 3429 North Keystone avenue, driver of the auto, was not to blame.

Funeral services for the child were to be held at 2 today at the home. Burial will be in Memorial Park cemetery.

Fireman's Injuries Fatal

Appointed to the fire force three years ago, McHugh for many years was an employee of the Indianapolis Abattoir Company. He was a member of St. Catherine's Catholic church and fireman's post of the American Legion.

Survivors are the widow, Mrs. Ella Hahn McHugh; the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph and Mary McHugh; two brothers, John McHugh, member of the fire department, and James McHugh, and a sister, Mrs. James Wade, all of Indianapolis.

'No More Marriage for Me,' Says Marion Talley

Marion Talley and her former husband, Michael Rancheisen

'Fraud and Deception' Laid to Her German Singing Coach When Annulment Is Obtained.

By CECIL B. BROWN

United Press Staff Correspondent

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 30.—The annulment of Marion Talley's marriage to Michael Rancheisen ended forever her ventures into matrimony, the famous young former Metropolitan opera singer said today.

Separation from her former German singing coach, whom she married after her sudden retirement at the height of her career, "was the only logical course to take," she said.

The annulment, granted Friday in a Long Beach court, was based on charges that Rancheisen married her under "fraud and deception."

The Kansas singer, who made her debut and sensational success at the age of 17, married Rancheisen at White Plains, N. Y., July 1, 1932, she said.

"Friction between Mr. Rancheisen and my mother and sister began within a month of the marriage," he claimed.

Impossible to Live Together

Miss Talley charged in her complaint that the German singing instructor agreed to welcome the mother and sister into their home "with courtesy."

"He did not do that," Miss Talley declared. "No, there were no specific instances. It just became impossible for the four of us to live together, and there appeared no way to adjust matters."

"I never shall marry again. I am not in love now, and I shall see that I do not fall in love again. It isn't because I am absorbed in my career. That is past."

"My marriage is over, Mr. Rancheisen has gone back to Germany," "We loved one another," she said. "We were interested in the same things. It was my first serious love affair—and my last."

Plans for Future

Although when she retired to her 1,600-acre farm in Kansas where she ended her musical career, and claimed "it is the only real sort of existence," Miss Talley said she would not go back there to live.

"I have no definite plans for the future. Really none whatever," she insisted. "I don't know of any opera role that could lure me back. If I should return it would be to the concert stage. I am not studying music, although my voice is just as it always has been."

"Yes, it is true that perhaps I should return to singing out of gratitude to the thousands who like my voice. So many people want me to," she said.

She said she would go back to Kansas in July to witness the harvest at her farm which now is operated by three tenants.

FINANCE FIRM AGENT ESCAPES FARM MOB

Sheriff Comes to Rescue at 'Sympathy' Auction.

BOWLING GREEN, O., Jan. 30.—Sheriff Bruce Pratt Saturday prevented violence against the agent of a finance company during a public auction sale on the farm of Wallace H. Kramp.

About seven hundred farmers gathered on the farm, near here, on an agreement to buy Kramp's equipment at not more than 15 cents an article and return it to him to prevent the foreclosure of an $800 mortgage on which Kramp is forced to pay 36 per cent interest, it was said.

The first article put up for sale was a spring harrow on which one farmer bid 15 cents.

John Crom, a representative of the finance company, forced the bidders up to $1.30 before he was recognized.

A group of angry farmers seized Crom and tried to eject him from the premises.

Sheriff Pratt, who accompanied Prosecutor Raymond Ladd to the sale in anticipation of trouble, rescued Crom, who left the premises and the sale proceeded peacefully.

ACCIDENT TOLL DROPS HEAVILY

9,500 Lives Are Saved by Depression, Safety Council Estimates.

By United Press

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—The depression helped save 9,500 lives in the United States last year, according to the annual accident report issued today by the National Safety Council.

The 1931 reduction in accidental deaths was the greatest in years, the council reported. Only twice before since 1920 had there been any reductions at all. The council attributed the reduction partly to the depression, which reduced motor traffic and kept many workers out of factories.

GRANGER ROUGH CUT PIPE TOBACCO

When we started out to make Granger we decided to make a tobacco for pipes and for PIPES ONLY...

WE found out, first, that there was a kind of tobacco that grew in the Blue Grass section of Kentucky called "White Burley," and that there was a certain kind of this tobacco which was between the tobacco used for cigarettes and the tobacco used for chewing tobacco. It is this tobacco which is best for pipes.

And this is what you smoke in Granger. The best pipe tobacco grown—made by the right process, the famous old-time Wellman Method—cut right. It smokes cooler, lasts longer and never gums the pipe.
