

SENATE BEER BILL REPORTED

3.05 Measure Constitutional for Revenue, Belief of Committee.

By United Press
WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—The short session beer-wine battle was shifted today to the senate floor with formal senate committee affirmation that proposed Volstead modification would be constitutional and would raise $125,000,000 to $150,000,000 of revenue.

The senate finance committee voted 12 to 5 to report the bill to the senate. The committee left unchanged the 3.05 per cent alcoholic content and the $5 per barrel tax.

Bill Provides Printing of Textbooks at Reformatory

Printing of a state series of textbooks at the Indiana reformatory and their sale at cost to the consumer, is proposed in a bill introduced today in the house by Representative William J. Black and Ross W. Eshelman (Dems., Anderson).

The measure would appropriate $35,000 to carry out its provisions and to pay for compiling. If a proper compilation is offered the state free, it may be accepted.

Eight new bills were introduced today, bringing the session total in the lower house to 234.

Representative Bruce G. Cox (Dem., Evansville) caused a brief flurry of comment when he said he was "tired of intimidation" and demanded a railroad bill be reported immediately by the committee on labor, with or without recommendation.

Representative Wilfred Jessup (Dem., Centerville) immediately branded the demand "disrespectuous" and asserted no member has a right to make such a demand of a busy committee so early in the session.

DELAY FRENCH CABINET CHOICE

Daladier Awaits Decision on Whether Socialists Will Share Posts.

By United Press
PARIS, Jan. 30.—Delay by the powerful Socialist party in deciding whether to participate in the new French government held up the efforts today of Premier-Designate Edouard Daladier to form a new cabinet.

The Socialists overthrew the last two French governments, headed by Edouard Herriot and Joseph Paul-Boncour.

G. O. P. Backs Debtor Aid Bill; House Passage Seen

By United Press
WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—House passage of the drastic La Guardia-McKeown bankruptcy bill for debtor relief was believed assured today when the Republican leadership announced its support of the measure.

Democrats previously had pledged virtually unanimous backing for the bill, being brought up for action today under an emergency suspension of regular procedure.

Representative Bertrand H. Snell (N. Y.), Republican floor leader, formally announced he would throw the influence of his organization behind the bill.

"I have decided to support the bill," he said. "We have got to do something along this line."

Previously, sponsors of the measure had been concerned by Snell's doubtful attitude. He had expressed the opinion the bill was "too sweeping" in its provisions for individual debt relief and corporate reorganization.

AGED WOMAN'S SLAYER HUNTED

70-Year-Old Recluse Killed in Her Home With Club; Money Sought.

By United Press

JASONVILLE, Ind., Jan. 30.—Claude Dozier, an investigator for the state bureau of criminal identification, assisted local officials today in search for the murderer of Mrs. Mary Ellis, 70-year-old recluse living on state Road 59, one mile south of Jasonville.

The woman's body was found by a sister, Mrs. Ethel Saucerman, and Mrs. Virgil Terhune. They had become alarmed Sunday by failure to see Mrs. Ellis around the house.

A window to the small home had been broken and Mrs. Ellis had been beaten with a club which was found near the door. Her body was lying in a corner of the house.
