

SLEUTH DENIES USING NAMES IN SHADOW REPORT

Detective Charges Error Made in Story of Slander Suit.

Denial that his company named either Karl Hamilton, 3112 MacPherson avenue, or Mrs. Marie Wininger, 715 East Fifth street, in a detective agency report involved in a recent court case, was made today by Fred B. Carson.

Carson is general manager of the Metropolitan Secret Service, Inc., with offices at 1130 Meyer-Kiser Bank building.

Wednesday a jury in superior court four found against Carson and his company in a $10,000 slander suit filed by Mrs. Wininger. She based her complaint on the fact that she had been involved in an investigation by the company.

The "Times" story of the trial, which resulted in a judgment of $100 against Carson, said that the company's report named Mrs. Wininger and Hamilton.

Refers to "Subject"

The report referred to the man and the woman in the investigation as "the subject" and "a woman," instead of using names. However, Mrs. Hamilton had hired the agency to "shadow" Hamilton.

She testified to this in the trial and also testified that she asked the detective agency if the "subject" in the report was her husband.

Her testimony on this subject was:

"I asked them if there could be any doubt as to it being my husband, but they said it was Mr. Hamilton."

"At no time did the report name either Mrs. Wininger or Hamilton," Carson said. "In addition, The Times referred to kisses in the entrance of a downtown building. That is erroneous. The report stated one kiss took place on the street near the Circle."

Wrong on Auto Rides

"There never was any statement of automobile rides of the man and the woman mentioned in the report."

Carson's assertion about the auto rides is true. The report used in the Wininger case made no mention of rides.

Carson branded as untrue, a quotation by L. Ert Slack, attorney, that the detective agency had admitted a case of mistaken identity.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton have suits pending against his company, Carson said. Carson said that the first will be tried early next month. He also said he did not know whether he will appeal the Wininger case, but "had left that to my attorneys."

NORTH SIDE WIDOW, LONELY, ENDS LIFE

Suicide Note Tells of Desire to Join Her Dead Husband.

Leaving a note expressing desire to join her husband, who died a year ago, Mrs. Luella Kiefer Guedel, 36, of 3868 Ruckle street, committed suicide Sunday by shooting herself through the heart in her home.

Three notes were found on a desk in an upstairs room where the body, fully dressed, lay on a day bed.

Reason for the act was explained in a note addressed to the coroner, which declared that Mrs. Guedel had been lonely since the death of her husband, Dr. Clarence E. Guedel, a dentist.

A second note, addressed to a maid, Miss Alma Schaller, contained weekly wages, and the third gave directions for the funeral.

Quick! Stop That COLD!

Don't Let It Run Beyond The First Stage!

A cold ordinarily goes through three stages: the Dry Stage the first 24 hours; the Watery Secretion Stage, from 1 to 3 days; and the Mucous Secretion Stage. To let a cold run beyond the first stage is inviting danger.

Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine taken at the first sign of a cold will usually stop it in one day. This famous tablet is effective because it does the four things necessary. It opens the bowels, kills the cold germs and fever in the system, relieves the headache and tones the entire system. Anything less than that is toying with a cold. Get Grove's Laxative BROMO QUININE today and accept nothing else. Now two sizes—30c and 50c—at all druggists.—Advertisement.

Schipa Waits to Try 'Surgical Voice'

By NEA Service

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 30.—Tito Schipa, grand opera tenor, will be one man who can tell people about his operation in song.

If it's a success, that is. For Schipa hopes he has traded a sore throat for a gain of from two to four notes in his voice range.

The operation, performed here by Dr. Edward Kellogg, was principally to relieve tonsils and a chronic congestion of the singer's pharynx. But Dr. Kellogg, who performed a similar operation not long ago on Lily Pons, hopes Schipa will gain a higher range through the operation as Pons did.

"I hope," said Schipa, "to be able to sing as high as E flat above high C. I am thrilled at the prospect. Schipa's present high note is B flat."

PASSENGER PLANES WEAR RUBBER BONNETS

Also Boots and Metal Pants Are Sported by T. W. A. Ships.

Passenger planes of Transcontinental-Western Air now wear rubber bonnets, as well as rubber boots and metal pants.

The bonnets and boots represent science victories over ice formation, one of the major perils of aviation. The pants are merely streamline devices to increase speed.

The bonnets are attached to the propeller hubs. They are elastic so that, should ice form on the pro-pellor, the rubber vibrates and cracks the ice.

The boots, attached to the leading edge of the wings, have rubber tubes through which compressed air is forced causing a pulsating action to crack ice formation.

Tests have proven these devices successful in further adding to the safety of flying, air line officials said.

BRITAIN ENVOY TOLD OF 'NEW DEAL' POLICY

Ambassador Hears Views of Roosevelt on Debts at Warm Springs.

By RAY TUCKER

Times Staff Writer

WARM SPRINGS, Ga., Jan. 30.—Sir Ronald Lindsay, the British ambassador, will sail for home this week carrying word to his government that Great Britain is expected to make concessions on tariffs, disarmament and possibly stabilization of exchange in return for downward revision of the $4,000,000,000 she owes the United States.

The principal in the unprecedented conference here Sunday between the President-elect and the British ambassador, let the world guess about their talk on debts, world economics and disarmament except for this joint statement:

"The British ambassador and Mr. Roosevelt have had a wholly informal and unofficial but very satisfactory conversation concerning tentatively the arrangements for the coming meetings in Washington. It is hoped that it will be possible to start these meetings early in March."

But Mr. Roosevelt made clear in diplomatic language to Sir Ronald the general principles upon which he wishes to react after March 4 concerning debts, and what he regards as related subjects.

It is understood Sir Ronald reinforced his government's recent statement that it preferred to talk nothing but war debts in Washington conferences with the Roose-

FACE BIG TASK ON PROBLEM OF DOUBLE TAXES

Governments Jealous of Their Powers: Need Seen by Roosevelt.

By MARSHALL M'NEIL

Times Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—Legislators from most of the forty-eight states, tax experts and perhaps many members of congress will meet here Feb. 3 and 4 to seek a sensible way out of the tax muddle.

Their problem is specific: The fact that tax chaos and duplication exist as an accepted fact.

But how to deal with the issue is quite another thing, for no other power is more jealously regarded by any government than its power to levy taxes. How to get a co-ordinated system? How to allocate the tax field?

One step, and a small one, was taken by congress when it enacted the inheritance tax system. All states now impose such taxes; they collect concurrently, with the states getting about 80 per cent of the federal scale.

Would it be as practical to levy a higher federal income tax and apportion the revenue among the states?

A prospectus of the impending conference suggests that, in theory, what the congress and the forty-eight state legislatures need is a "gentleman's agreement" on taxation. But it states this only as a hope.

"What the actual solution will be," this same statement goes on, "no man knows. If worst came to worst, congress might be compelled to adopt coercive measures throughout the entire field of taxation similar to the straitjacket which it applied in the limited field of inheritance taxation. But every one, including the members of congress, would deplore such an arrangement.

"The first step should be the development of a sort of semi-official formula prescribing the limits within which the taxing governments should confine their money-raising operations. This formula should represent a consensus opinion arrived at (so far as possible) by congress and by the states jointly.

"The next step should be to crystallize public opinion to exert public pressure to induce congress and each state legislature to keep its program of taxation within the bounds thus prescribed."

To End a Cough In a Hurry, Mix This at Home

Saves $2. No Cooking! So Easy!

Millions of housewives have found that, by mixing their own cough medicine, they get a purer, more effective remedy. They use a recipe which costs about one-fourth as much as ready-made medicine, but which really has no equal for breaking up obstinate coughs.

From any druggist, get 2½ ounces of Pinex. Pour this into a pint bottle, and add granulated sugar syrup to fill up the pint. The syrup is easily made with 2 cups sugar and one cup water, stirred a few moments until dissolved. No cooking needed. It's no trouble at all, and makes the most effective remedy that money could buy. Keeps perfectly, and children love its taste.

Its quick action in loosening the phlegm, clearing the air passages, and soothing away the inflammation, has caused it to be used in more homes than any other cough remedy.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway Pine, famous for its healing effect on throat membranes. It is guaranteed to give prompt relief or money refunded.

ILLUSION:

In this startling trick, the magician seemingly pushes a huge threaded needle through the body of an assistant, pulling the needle out the other side, followed by the thread.

EXPLANATION:

Under the clothes of the victim is a pipe, extending around one side of his body from front to back. The needle, which is flexible, is inserted in the front end of the pipe, is carried around the body and emerges from the pipe in back. This operation is performed so quickly that the audience does not notice that the needle and thread are momentarily shortened during the act.

KEPT FRESH IN THE WELDED HUMIDOR PACK

We like tricks...but we prefer to keep them out of business.

Here's one that's interesting...The illusion that by some obscure magic certain cigarettes are "COOLER" than others.

THE EXPLANATION: Coolness is determined by the speed of burning. Fresh cigarettes burn slowly. They're cool. Parched, dry cigarettes burn fast. They're hot.

Camels are carefully wrapped in moisture-proof cellophane...in the famous, air-tight Humidor Pack. Camels are cool because they're fresh and full of natural moisture.

A cigarette blended from choice non-irritating tobaccos also gives a cooler effect than one that is harsh and acrid. The finer the tobacco the less irritating it is, and therefore the "cooler."

It is a fact, well known by leaf tobacco experts, that Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand.

This is why Camels are cool and mild, non-irritating—full of flavor. This is why Camels have given more pleasure to more people than any other cigarette ever made. It's the tobacco that counts.

Keep the famous welded Humidor Pack on your Camels. It assures you a fresh, cool smoke.
