

TOBACCO JOBS HARD HIT BY MACHINE AGE

Workers Were Losing in Race Long Before Start of Depression.

By Scripps-Howard Newspaper Alliance
WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—Men and women were losing in the race with machines long before the depression began.

The women's bureau, in a study of the cigar and cigarette industries just completed, finds that while these industries were forging ahead between 1919 and 1929, with an increase of 70 per cent in output, wages paid decreased by 23 per cent.

The number of women employed declined by 24 per cent during those years, and the number of men declined by 40 per cent.

Nor did the women who lost their jobs find other work during the era of expansion.

Can't Find Other Jobs

The women's bureau interviewed 1,400 women dismissed because of increased use of machinery, and found that one-eighth of them never had been able to find new jobs, while nine-tenths of them had worked only part of the time.

The women who did find jobs reported reduced earnings. Those who went to work in other cigar and cigarette factories were forced to work for 20 per cent less than they had been earning while those who found a place in other industries did so at 30 per cent less wages.

Highly skilled and experienced workers suffered most from the introduction of machinery, the study disclosed.

Women in this category proved more willing to keep on at less skilled and lower paid jobs than men, and, for that reason fewer of them were displaced entirely.

Labor Costs Cut

Cigars were made by hand almost entirely twenty years ago, the bureau reports.

Cigarettes were made by machinery from the beginning and offered such severe competition for cigars that a machine able to complete the whole cigar-making process was perfected in 1918. By 1929, 3,000 of these were in operation.

Employers told the women's bureau that under average conditions the machine cuts labor costs about one-half, and doubles production with the same space and number of employees.

NAME BANKER TRUSTEES FOR PUBLIX CREDITORS

Irving W. Lemaux Is Selected to Operate Theater Chain.

Irving W. Lemaux, Securities Trust Company president, was named trustee for creditors of Publix-Fitzhenry-McElroy, Inc., operating nineteen theaters in Indiana, at a creditors meeting held Tuesday before Carl Wilde, federal bankruptcy referee.

Publix Enterprises, Inc., a subsidiary of Paramount-Publix Corporation, owns 75 per cent of the stock of the bankrupt firm, Sam Katz, connected with various Publix companies, owning the remaining 25 per cent.

Lemaux will continue to operate the company until sale of assets can be arranged.

The company operates theaters in Crawfordsville, Marion, Hammond, Huntington, Michigan City, Muncie, Newcastle, Richmond, Bloomington and Bedford.

The hearing revealed that whereas income of the firm was reduced greatly in 1930, expenses were the highest in its history.

SHIPWRECK KELLEY'S SON LOST FOR 2 DAYS

N. Y. Cops Didn't Believe Boy's Story That Dad Sat on Poles.

By United Press
NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—Sunday night, Brooklyn police picked up a small boy, found wandering on the streets.

For two days, while they sought to learn his identity, they became more and more convinced that the child was a proficient fibber.

Every time they asked him who his father was he would say that his father goes around sitting on poles, and that he never does much of anything else.

Tuesday, they learned that the boy is John Kelley Jr., son of "Shipwreck" Kelley, the flagpole sitter, whose home is across the Hudson in Jersey City.

"Didn't I tell you?" said John Jr.

POLICE QUESTION BARON

Hollywood Scenario Writer Requests Arrest to Clear Name in Shooting.

By United Press
LOS ANGELES, Feb. 1.—Baron Wilhelm Ferdinand von Brincken, Hollywood scenario writer and former German diplomat, was charged with impeding a police investigation, in a misdemeanor complaint issued by the city attorney's office Tuesday.

The action was taken at Von Brincken's request, the writer declaring he wished to "clear his name" in connection with a report to police that he and his wife were robbed by bandits, and later fired upon.

Police questioned the baron at length when they discovered that a bullet extracted from his automobile apparently had been fired from Von Brincken's own revolver.

Tom Devine Books Bernie Cummins for One Night

Sue Carolyn Will Present Two Groups of Young Artists in Recital Friday and Saturday Nights.

BERNIE CUMMINS and his New Yorkers have been booked for a one-night engagement on the Indiana Roof, Sunday, Feb. 12. It will be the first appearance of the nationally famous dance orchestra in or around Indianapolis.

Cummins' New Yorkers are one of the few pioneer radio orchestras not to lose its appeal during a five year stay on the air, according to Tom Devine of the Roof, who has brought many outstanding musical attractions to Indianapolis during the past four years.

Devine recalls that Bernie Cummins and his New Yorkers first gained notable comment because of their broadcasts from the New Yorker and Biltmore hotels, New York City, over the Columbia Broadcast System.

He says that at the present time they are being featured in the Tri-union ballroom, Chicago, where they are co-featured nightly and on Sunday afternoons with Wayne King and his orchestra during a broadcast from radio station WGN of that city.

The New Yorkers use the melody "Dark Eyes" as the theme for each of their broadcasts.

Dick Snyder and his Detroiters are the Roof's current musical attraction. In addition to their dance music, the Roof management will introduce a new floor show this evening at 10:30 o'clock.

Wednesday is the Roof's weekly "Waltz Night" when every other dance is a waltz.

WOMAN FAINTS; AUTO RUNS INTO HEAD-ON CRASH

Drivers Escape Injury in Smash: Five Others
Hurt in Spills.

Fainting at the wheel of her car after avoiding one collision, Miss Bronza Greenstein, 25, of 262 North Gray street, was shaken when her auto crashed head-on into another driven by Dr. Otto Bakemeier, 37, of 5503 East Washington street, at Bosart avenue and Tenth street, Tuesday night. Although both cars were damaged, neither driver was hurt.

Maxine Hinton, 18, of 842 North Capitol avenue, and Walter Harbough, 20, of 649 North New Jersey street, were bruised early today when the car in which they were riding skidded and struck a utility pole at Fourteenth and Illinois streets.

Mrs. Lottie Albrecht, 40, of 2938 1/2

Northwestern avenue, suffered a shoulder injury Tuesday night when the car driven by her husband was struck by another driven by Harry Lindsay, 50, of 1212 North Senate avenue, at Fifteenth and Missouri streets.

Louis Wagschall and Lulu Lambert, both of Indianapolis, were recovering today in St. Vincent's hospital of injuries incurred in a head-on collision with a truck near Greenfield, Tuesday afternoon.

Greenfield authorities did not arrest William Hutsinger of Mays, driver of the truck, who was said to have turned into the path of Wagschall's car to avoid striking a third.

LAS VEGAS, Nev., Feb. 1.—Bela Lugosi, stage and screen "horror" actor, eloped from Hollywood Tuesday and married Lillian Arch, 21, resident of Los Angeles.

The noted portrayer of "Dracula" and other supernatural roles gave his age as 50, named Baron Lugosi as his father, and said he was born in Lugos, Hungary. It was his third venture into matrimony, he declared.

SELF-INFLICTED BURNS FATAL TO DIVORCEE

Despondent Since Divorce,
She Tells Doctors
Before Death.

Burns received in a spectacular suicide attempt Tuesday afternoon at 1328 Sturm avenue, caused death of Mrs. Nettie C. Davis, 50-year-old divorcee.

After igniting her clothing with matches in the home of friends, Mrs. Davis ran into the street, throwing herself in front of a truck as flames enveloped her body.

When the driver of the vehicle halted the truck with its wheel a short distance from her body, Mrs. Davis pleaded with the driver to run over her.

"Please run over me. I want to die," she screamed.

The shouts were heard by a neighbor who seized a blanket and dropped it over the suffering woman in an attempt to smother the flames. The blanket caught fire and a second one had to be applied before the fire was stopped.

Mrs. Davis was burned on the face, arms, shoulders and chest.

She told physicians and police that she had been despondent since being divorced and she felt she was imposing on Mr. and Mrs. Ross Mitchell, friends, at whose home the tragedy occurred. They had provided a home for Mrs. Davis since the divorce decree was issued ten days ago. The couple was away from home when the suicide attempt was made.

City hospital physicians said Mrs. Davis had been treated recently for a mental disorder.

Is This Too Good for Your Cough?

Cremulsion may be a better help than you need. It combines seven major helps in one—the best help known to science. It is made for coughs or colds that hang on, for quick relief, for safety.

Mild coughs often yield to lesser helps. No one can tell. No one knows which factor will do most for any certain cough. So careful people, more and more, are using Cremulsion for any cough that starts.

The cost is a little more than a single help. But your druggist guarantees it, so it costs nothing, if it fails to bring you quick relief. Coughs are danger signals. For safety's sake, deal with them in the best way known. (adv.)

"EXCEPTIONAL RESULTS"

Capitol Clothes Shop
10 EAST WASHINGTON ST.
INDIANAPOLIS

January 30, 1933

Mr. E.A. Tapscott
The Indianapolis Times
Indianapolis, Indiana

Dear Mr. Tapscott:

Permit me to compliment you on your "Opportunity Day" and the splendid way in which it was promoted. The wholehearted and enthusiastic way in which the men of Indianapolis responded to our full page advertisement in the TIMES last Saturday on Capitol suits, topcoats and overcoats at $11 is something I shall long remember.

The crowd of enthusiastic shoppers started the moment the doors opened at 7:30 A.M. and brisk activity continued throughout the day until we closed at 9:00 P.M.

The tremendous success of this, our FIRST sale, definitely proves that Indianapolis men agree with us when we say Capitol Clothes at $11 are great values.

The TIMES was the only newspaper that carried this sale story, which proves your reader audience has a keen sense of values and are keen to respond to them.

Exceptional values (Capitol Clothes) advertised in an exceptional newspaper, the TIMES, produced exceptional results.

Very truly yours,
