

SEEK TO KEEP 'YOUNG TEDDY' IN ISLAND JOB

Hawes, Hare and Other Democrats Talked for Philippine Post.

BY MAX STERN
Times Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—Efforts are being made to induce President-Elect Franklin D. Roosevelt to retain his distant cousin, "Young Teddy" Roosevelt, in his place as governor-general of the Philippines.

Heretofore this place has been one of the fattest plums in the gift of a President.

In the past, it has been a stepping stone to cabinet posts, ambassadorships, even the White House. Such men as Dwight Davis, W. H. Taft, General Leonard Wood, Ambassador Forbes, Secretary Henry L. Stimson and others have considered it worth the taking. Today, its tenure is not only less secure, but less attractive.

Tenure Less Secure

In July, the insular legislature will vote on acceptance of their independence under the Hawes-Cutting act.

Should they accept it and set up a commonwealth government, the new appointee as governor-general might have to pack up and return to the mainland, perhaps within two years from now. Meantime, the office would be the center of endless agitation.

Those urging Governor Roosevelt's retention argue that he has won the confidence of the Filipino people, that he has done as good a job there as he did as Governor of Puerto Rico, that he has so far taken no sides for or against the independence bill.

Many Are Mentioned

It is significant that one of those said to be urging his retention is Manuel Quezon, the Philippine No. 1 patriot. Senor Quezon is en route to Washington, and may urge such a course personally upon the President-elect.

Among Democrats mentioned for the place are Representative Butler Hare of South Carolina, Senator Hawes of Missouri, Robert W. Bingham, Louisville publisher; Henry Morgenthau, Brigadier-General Pelham D. Glassford and Charles Martin Hay, St. Louis attorney.

PETTIS HEIRS VICTORS IN FIRST COURT TILT

Probate Judge Chambers Paid for Them in Suit Against Foundation.

Heirs of the estate of Alphonso P. Pettis, Indianapolis financier, who died several years ago in France, won the first round of their court battle contesting Pettis' will Monday. Probate Judge Smiley N. Chambers found for them in a suit against the Indianapolis Foundation.

The foundation was ordered by Chambers to pay Leo M. Gardner, administrator, $77,500 to satisfy claims of the heirs.

Prior to his death Pettis in 1920, treated a trust fund of $700,000 with the foundation, interest of which was to become an annuity for a friend of the family. Heirs contested legality of the annuity, charging Pettis was of unsound mind when the trust was established.

GIRL, 21, TRIES SUICIDE

Despondency Over Ill Health Blamed For Swallowing Poison.

Despondency because of ill health is believed the reason for an attempt at suicide by Miss Margaret Faney, 21, of 3528 Rockville road, who swallowed poison at her home Monday night.

She was taken to city hospital, where it is said she may recover.

Let's Explore Your Mind

BY DR. ALBERT EDWARD WIGGAM, D. Sc.

1. IS A WOMAN'S HUSBAND OR SWEETHEART CONVICTED OF CRIME, IS SHE JUSTIFIED IN LEAVING HIM?

2. SHOULD WE JUDGE OTHER PEOPLE BY OURSELVES?

3. DO YOU BELIEVE IT ADVANTAGEOUS TO PLANT POTATOES OR ROOF HOUSES IN THE LIGHT OF THE MOON?

In the movies the answer is usually, yes. My answer in most cases would be, no. Usually a man commits a crime because he wants success without working for it. He wants to swagger and have money, but tries to escape the hard work and I go through to secure success.

He needs to rebuild his mental habits under the guidance of a psychologist. By assisting in re-

Dr. Wiggam will be glad to answer questions dealing with problems of conduct, morals, beliefs, husband and wife, parent and child—any question in the field of human relationships. Questions of general interest will be answered in this department. If personal reply is desired enclose stamped, (3c) self-addressed envelope. Address Dr. Wiggam in care of The Indianapolis Times.

Stamp Collectors Write Experiences in Contest

Letters Pour In From Fans, in Race for Seventeen Good Prizes.

Stamp collecting is one of the most fascinating of hobbies and scores of Indianapolis fans are attesting to this fact in The Times' big stamp contest, which now is hitting the peak in interest.

Every mail brings letters from hobbyists, competing for the seventeen prizes which have been posted in the contest.

You need not be a literary genius to have a chance to win one of the awards. Just sit down and write 15 words or less, telling why you like to collect stamps.

For the seventeen best letters on the subject, "Why I Am Interested in Collecting Stamps," the following prizes will be given:

First—An International Postage stamp album for foreign and United States stamps. Has space for 22,000 stamps. A splendid prize. Donor, P. Vernon Smith, Inland Hobby Shop.

Second—One package of 1,000 foreign stamps, all different. Donor, Inland Hobby Shop.

Third—Album for United States stamps. Donor, Stewart Book Store, Inc.

U. S. SHARE OF SOUTH AMERICA TRADE PERILED

Radical Steps at Once Seen as Only Hope to Save Export Market.

This is the third and concluding article of the foreign trade analysis written by Harry W. Frantz of the United Press foreign department.

BY HARRY W. FRANTZ
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—Like the fabled "Atlantis," South America soon may become a "sunk continent" so far as United States export trade is concerned, unless radical steps are taken to regain that once rich commerce.

The present slump and the potential opportunity of United States trade in Latin America strikingly are indicated by the fact that exports to the tiny island of Puerto Rico, with 1,500,000 people, now are greater than shipments to such wealthy and populous countries as Argentina, Brazil, Peru, Chile, Mexico and Cuba.

If figures do not lie, the export statistics strongly suggest that there has somewhere been a misdirection of United States commercial policy toward the twenty American republics.

Vast Slump in Exports

A long series of Pan-American conferences, President Hoover's good-will trip to South America and immense capital investments in the southlands did not stay, a slump in United States export trade to South America from $539,000,000 in 1929 to $307,000,000 in 1931 and again to $271,311,000 in 1932.

In the year 1932, United States exports to Puerto Rico alone were valued at $48,780,000, a substantial slump from previous years. But this figure compared with exports of $32,575,000 to Mexico, $28,600,000 to Cuba, $31,669,000 to Argentina, $28,600,000 to Brazil, $3,568,000 to Chile, and $3,964,000 to Peru.

The drastic slump in United States exports to South America was due to the low purchasing power of those countries, resulting from the fact that their exports products encountered falling prices and fewer purchasers in world markets for industrial raw materials and foodstuffs.

Raise Trade Obstacles

The depression in markets for South American commodities partly was due to commercial causes and partially to the multiplication of artificial trade obstacles in the United States, Great Britain and many countries of Europe.

Important Latin American commodities, formerly free listed in the United States, but since 1930 subject to tariffs or excise taxes on imports, are petroleum, copper, long-staple cotton and cattle hides. Duties were raised in 1930 on such important articles as grains, live cattle, canned meats, flaxseed and casein.

United States exports to South America, experts believe, will revive when international commodity markets offer higher levels to basic commodities. The world economic conference offers the earliest substantial hope.

In long range, reciprocal trade pacts may help the United States, but the history of such attempts has not been encouraging. Reciprocity has been studied and agitated at intervals since the Pan-American conference in 1931, without measurable concrete results, except the United States-Cuban reciprocity treaty of 1904, product of special circumstances.

The underlying difficulty has been the United States' desire to protect domestic agricultural and live stock production against external competition.

Recently, the growth of sentiment here for metals and minerals' protection, particularly copper and petroleum, has introduced a new political obstacle.

MRS. KRESGE IS BRIDE

Mrs. Doris Mercer Kresge (above), former wife of S. S. Kresge, 10-cent store magnate, has become the wife of Prince Farid Khan Sadr of Persia. They were married in Paris at the Moslem mosque, though she does not intend to embrace the religion of her husband.

When she divorced Kresge in 1928, a $2,000,000 settlement was rumored. Prince Farid was a chamberlain to the shah.

If you can't afford a new car, do the next best thing and purchase a good used one. A fine selection always is available in classification 50 on the Want ad page.

'TIGHTEN UP' ON DANCING HALLS WITH NEW LAW

Ordinance Passed by Council Provides for Strict City Regulation.

Step toward more strict regulation of city dance halls and cabarets was taken by the city council Monday night with passage of an ordinance prohibiting operation of such places without payment of a $50 license fee.

Permission from Chief Mike Morrissey also is required before application for a license. A police patrol must be on duty at all times, the new measure requires.

Itinerant peddlers, defined as persons bringing foodstuffs from distant points and selling to retailers from temporary locations, also will be checked under an ordinance establishing a $200 license fee and requiring a $500 bond to be posted with the city controller.

Newspapers who sell direct to consumers, from house-to-house, are not included in the license requirement.

Other ordinances passed provide: For reduction of license fee for concrete building block manufacturers from $100 to $10; purchase of incandescent lamps at a cost not exceeding $2,500; purchase of city hospital supplies of milk, gauze and adhesive tape, and transfer of funds in the street commissaries' and health departments.

New ordinances would establish Southeastern avenue as a preferential street from Washington street to city limits; permit the board of works to sell ground at Washington street and White river; appropriate $10,110.09 unexpended 1932 funds to department funds, and transfer $34 in the board of health.

FRAUD IS CHARGED

George W. Weatherly, above, president of W. D. Boyce & Co., Chicago magazine publishers, is named with two other officials of the company in federal indictments charging use of the mails to defraud.

OFFER TO RUN CITY ON $1-A-YEAR PAY

40 Terre Haute Citizens Make Bid to Electorate.

By United Press

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Feb. 7.—An offer by forty citizens of Terre Haute to serve in city offices at a salary of $1 a year was before the electorate today.

Announcement of the plan was made Monday night with the pledge that if elected, they would turn back all but $1 of their salaries into the city general fund. All political parties are represented in the group.

Those offering to conduct the city's business at the reduced salaries mostly are members of a group of local business men who have been urging economy in city and county government.

MARDI GRAS NEW ORLEANS

FEBRUARY 27-28

Lowest Mardi Gras Fare in Years

From Indianapolis $42.55 Round Trip

Tickets to New Orleans at this rate on sale daily to April 30th. Return limit 18 days. Corresponding reduced round-trip fares also available via L. & N. R. to Mobile, Biloxi, Gulfport, Pass Christian, Pensacola, etc.

L. & N. All-Expense Mardi Gras Tour

Leaves Indianapolis via Penn. R. R. Friday, February 24th, 6:40 p. m. $68.39 if upper berth is used, $78.39 if lower berth is used. Includes round-trip rail fare from Indianapolis, all-expenses from Louisville (except meals while in New Orleans), side trip to Pensacola and sight-seeing trips.

Traveling to New Orleans via L. & N., you pass along the Beautiful Gulf Coast

For full information, literature, reservations, etc., apply to H. M. Mounts, Traveling Passenger Agent, 310 Merchants Bank Bldg., phone Riley 1041, Indianapolis

L. & N. Louisville & Nashville R.R.

HAVE YOU STARTED VIGILANTE?

Also in This Issue

TRIAL BY WATER
by Almet Jenks

THE AMERICAN GANGPLANK
by Isaac F. Marcossion

ONE WAY TO MECCA
by Guy Gilpatrick

Don't miss it!
You will find a complete synopsis of the first installment of this gripping story in the issue on sale today.

THE SATURDAY EVENING POST

ON SALE TODAY 5¢

AN AMERICAN INSTITUTION

OLD FASHIONED BARGAINS-WEDNESDAY ONLY-AT THE LEADER

WHAT 4c WILL BUY!

- 10c PART LINEN TOWELING YARD 4c
- 10c PALMOLIVE BEADS 4c
- PALM AND OLIVE SOAP 4 Bars 4c
- 27-INCH GINGHAMS 4c
- REGULAR 10c CURTAIN RODS 4c
- 10c LINEN TABLE NAPKINS 4c
- NOVELTY BUTTONS 2 Cards for 4c
- 10c CURTAIN SCRIM 4c
- 5c POT CLEANERS 2 For 4c
- Ladies' Handkerchiefs 4 For 4c
- INFANTS' SOFT SOLES 4c
- 5c LACE TRIMMINGS 3 Yds. 4c

WHAT 14c WILL BUY!

- 10c O. N. T. Thread 2 300-Yd. Spools 14c
- 36-IN. OUTING FLANNEL 2 Yds. 14c
- TOILET TISSUE 6 Rolls 14c
- Reg. 29c Curtain Panels 14c
- 35c HOUSE BROOMS 14c
- 39c STEEL SKILLETS 14c
- 25c Hydrox Peroxide 14c
- 50c POND'S TISSUES 14c
- 25c Mennen's Talcum 14c
- Sanitary Napkins 2 Boxes 14c
- Children's SLIPPERS 14c
- 25c Infants' DRESSES 14c

WHAT 24c WILL BUY!

- 5-Pc. R'f'd Curtains 24c
- Jergen's "King Cocoa" 8 BARS 24c
- HARDWARE SOAP 8 BARS 24c
- WOMEN'S SILK HOSE 24c
- Girls' 39c WASH DRESSES 24c
- ALL-WOOL SWEATERS 24c
- BOYS' WORK SHIRTS 24c
- Turtle-Neck Sweaters 24c
- CHILDREN'S SHOES 24c
- Men's Dress Shirts 24c
- MEN'S DRESS CAPS 24c
- Men's Work Shirts 24c
- MEN'S FLANNELETTE SHIRTS 24c

COUPON

OCTAGON SOAP POWDER 3 PKGS. 4c

10c BLEACHED MUSLIN 6 Yds. 24c

5c WATER GLASSES 3 FOR 4c

WE RESERVE THE RIGHT TO LIMIT QUANTITIES

LEADER

CUT PRICE DEPARTMENT STORE

WASHINGTON AT DELAWARE

COUPON

Men's 10c Rayon Plaited Hose 4 Pcs. 24c

MAXWELL HOUSE COFFEE 24c

Children's 10c Full Length HOSIERY 4 Pcs. 24c