

WATSON TO RUN AGAINST ROBBIE, VIEW IN G. O. P.

Morgan Ouster Regarded as Indication That Senator Will Try Comeback.

Senator James E. Watson will contend with Senator Arthur Robinson for the nomination two years hence, if the interpretation placed by Republican doers on the incidents leading to the ouster of State Chairman Ivan Morgan this week are correct.

On the inside, it is more than whispered that hesitant members of the state committee were in telephonic conversation with Watson up to the time of the meeting, and that it was due to his insistence that Morgan was voted out.

Quite as significant is the fact that the vote showed only three districts, and these favorable to Robinson, which cast votes against the reorganization.

In Marion county, where Robinson is in close touch with Captain George Coffin, the members of the committee voted for Morgan. Other votes came from Morgan's home district and Watson's congressional district, where Walter Bosser had more than casual influence.

When Morgan, in his farewell address, called attention to the fact that he had been put into power by Watson, he recalled the fate of many who had followed the Watson fortunes.

The fact that Senator Watson has disclaimed any intention of contesting with Robinson, only has convinced friends of the junior senator that there is danger ahead. It will also call into the battle line for control, not necessarily for Robinson, the many new enemies which Watson made.

The backers of M. Bert Thurman, remembering his fate, are expected to get into action. As a result, it is likely that there will be no moratorium in Republican state politics, with an active struggle inside the party all during the months to stop Watson.

POWER TRUST TACTICS BARED BY SPEAKER

Carl D. Thompson, Utility Expert, Gives Address in City.

Far-reaching control and propaganda of privately-owned public utilities, were described by Carl D. Thompson, secretary of the Public Ownership League of America in an address Wednesday night at the Y. W. C. A.

"The power trust," he said, "has used the schools, the press, women's clubs, men's clubs, and even the pulpit to broadcast its propaganda." Thompson asserted that power always can be sold cheaper from a municipally-owned plant. He said there are towns in various parts of the country that pay taxes from the surplus earnings of the municipal utilities.

— THIS CURIOUS WORLD —

THE TORTOISES OF GALAPAGOS ISLANDS, ARE BELIEVED TO BE THE OLDEST OF ALL LIVING ANIMALS. THEY ARE KNOWN TO REACH AN AGE OF SEVERAL HUNDRED YEARS.

THE PYGMY FLYING-DHALANGER HAS A TAIL LIKE A FEATHER! (AUSTRALIA)

The Galapagos Islands were named for the huge tortoises found there... galapagos being the Spanish word for tortoise. These giant creatures attracted food-seeking ships to the islands for several centuries, but the supply is running dangerously low, and total extinction is threatened. They furnished excellent food for old-time seamen, since they could be kept on board alive without food or water for a year, and killed just as needed.

IRATE FARMERS ROUT MORTGAGE SALES AGENTS

Attack Attorney in Kansas, Bidder Rolled in Snow in Michigan.

By United Press
CHICAGO, Feb. 9.—Rebellious farmers attacked an attorney at a Kansas mortgage sale Wednesday. Others rolled a mortgagee's agent in a snowdrift in Michigan, and in Wisconsin, dairymen voted to start a milk strike while six state legislators urged relief measures ahead in an effort to curb the widespread rural uprising.

The day's principal developments were in legislative halls. Relief bills were enacted or pushed forward in Texas, Wisconsin, Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota and Nebraska.

Near Ithica, Mich., several hundred farmers rolled a mortgagee's agent in a snowdrift on Roy Marzolf's farm. C. A. Holman, the agent, was about to raise a bid when the farmers threw him into the snow. He was unhurt, but his glasses were broken. The farmers then bid in articles at "Woolworth" prices and returned them to Marzolf.

Rescued by Deputies
At Wichita Kan. deputy sheriffs rescued P. Dudley Gardiner, attorney, from angry farmers, who charged him when he bid $1,600 on farm property against which there was a $2,025 mortgage.

"Raise your bid," the farmers shouted.

"That is my bid," declared Gardiner. "Take him out," yelled the farmers, and started to do it.

Deputies rescued the attorney after he had been dragged several feet.

At Appleton, Wis., directors of the Wisconsin cooperative milk pool voted to start a state-wide milk strike to force up prices.

Legislative developments included Austin, Tex.—The house voted, 111 to 1, to aid debtors by forbidding the party foreclosing to take anything more than what the mortgage property brought at forced sale.

Assemblies in Action
St. Paul, Minn.—A measure was introduced in the senate providing appointment of a committee to direct negotiations with mortgage holders and prevent foreclosures.

Madison, Wis.—The assembly judiciary committee recommended "or" passage a bill extending mortgage foreclosure relief for two years.

Des Moines, Ia.—Governor Hering signed a bill giving district courts jurisdiction of all land subject to foreclosure within the next two years.

Illinois—The assembly acted favorably on a one-year foreclosure moratorium bill and a four-year moratorium bill was introduced in the senate.

Lincoln, Neb.—A bill permitting deficiency judgments in mortgage foreclosures, and another providing a moratorium on foreclosures were considered.

Work This Jigsaw; Money and Tickets Are Reward

Try your hand on this jigsaw puzzle of four famed movie stars.

Four Pictures of Cinema Stars Will Be Shown in Contest.

Every one, nowadays, seems to have been bitten by the jigsaw puzzle bug, so The Times, in conjunction with the Apollo theater, is offering its many contest fans an opportunity to turn this popular fad into cash and theater tickets.

Here is how it may be accomplished. The heads of four stars appearing in the new photoplay, "State Fair," coming to the Apollo Friday, have been cut into a number of separate pieces, just as a simple jigsaw puzzle.

These parts will be published daily by The Times for four consecutive days, starting today. After you have obtained the entire number of pieces needed to complete the puzzle, assemble them, name the star and write an essay of not more than forty words on your favorite star pictured in the contest.

Remember, now, the various pieces needed to complete the puzzle will not appear in one separate issue. All four issues of The Times are needed to complete the jigsaw puzzle.

Prizes will be awarded for neatness of the finished puzzle and merits of the essay. Ten dollars in cash will be given as first prize, $3 as second and $2 as third prize.

Consolation prizes of a pair of Apollo theater tickets will be given for the next fifteen best assembled puzzles and essays.

Eleven Sentenced in City Start Leavenworth Terms

Harry E. Gates, deputy United States marshal, arrived at Leavenworth penitentiary today with eleven prisoners sentenced Friday by Federal Judge Robert C. Baltzell.

Those making the trip included Charles Truckey, Stendal, five years, postoffice theft; Raymond Enneking, New York, two years, letter theft; Arthur B. Dillingham, Indianapolis, five years, counterfeiting; Lauren H. Turk, Toledo, five years, Mann act; William W. Ball, Dayton, eighteen months, narcotics; Roscoe Jones, eighteen months, narcotics; Marion Strouse, James Cherry, Evansville, and Walter Jones, a year and a day each, counterfeiting; Frank Thomas, Evansville, three years, counterfeiting; and John A. Didway, two years, counterfeiting.

Another group sentenced Friday by Baltzell were taken to the Chillicothe (O.) reformatory by George H. Haley, deputy marshal.

In this group was George Wright, former cashier of the defunct Spencer National bank, sentenced to three years for misapplying the bank's funds.

Karl Nutter, the bank's president, received a five-year sentence but will not begin serving until March 6. Temple Pearson, vice-president, sentenced to a year and a day, was given time in which to seek a suspended sentence.

Others taken to Chillicothe included Myrl Meyers, Greenwood, year and a day, extortion letter; Harold Fasig and Kenneth Ray Coker, Terre Haute, three years each, stealing $21,000 mail shipment; Elmer W. Miller, West Orange, N. J., two years, counterfeiting; William Meredith, Indianapolis, year and a day, counterfeiting; William A. Odum Jr., Shreveport, La., eighteen months, counterfeiting.

ARMY AND NAVY ARE 'WELL OFF'

Economy Move Will Leave National Defense With Ample Funds.

By Scripps-Haward Newspaper Alliance
WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—The senate's decision to cut the war and navy departments 5 per cent along with other branches of the government will leave the national defense with more money than it had for a number of years during the recent period of prosperity.

The 5 per cent cut imposed on the war department appropriation bill, will deduct approximately $17,000,000 from the $350,000,000 total. Of this total, about $277,000,000 is set aside for strictly military expenditures as the bill now stands. If 5 per cent, or $12,000,000, is taken off this sum, the military service will be left with $265,000,000, a sum larger than its appropriation for 1924 and 1925 and equal to the appropriations for 1926 and 1927.

Most "indigestion" has been found imaginary! The pains and gas and all that misery are real, of course. But nine times in ten they are symptoms only of slow stomach.

Did you know you can regulate your stomach to empty in six hours, as it should? That this is as easy as moving the bowels?

One box of Pape's Diapiesin will test your stomach and correct your digestion time in a couple of days—at a cost of twenty-five cents!

Each tablet of diapiesin saves the stomach half an hour's labor. If your stomach is an hour slow, two tablets will remedy the trouble. Then eat anything. Baked beans every noon if you like them. Lobster at midnight suppers. These will digest like crackers and milk in a six-hour stomach!

Pape's Diapiesin stimulates the gastric flow. Use it freely until the stomach is working right without any help. When it slows down, take diapiesin again for a day or two. This helps coffee drinkers and hard smokers, too.

Face Disfigured with Large Pimples. Healed by Cuticura.

"My pimples first started on my chin and moved upward toward my forehead, which soon was covered with them. They were hard, large and red, and festered and scaled over. The pimples itched and burned, causing me to scratch, and scratching caused severe eruptions. They bothered me for one year, and my face was disfigured. I used many different kinds of soaps and ointments but they did not help me. I tried Cuticura Soap and Ointment and in four or five weeks I was completely healed." This new Barbasol Blade holds its temper and keeps yours sunny

Cussing safety razor blades has become such common practice that Barbasol finally decided to look into the matter.

We made a careful study of the whole blade situation, tested them all—examined the various methods of manufacture.

And here's what we found out: The big trouble with most razor blades is, frankly, the steel that goes into them.

There are a lot of fairly good blades on the market, but they lack uniformity and two or three black sheep in a package can cause a lot of profanity.

So Barbasol looked for finer steel

To make wafer-thin blades in great quantities and give them all flawless cutting edges, calls for highest grade tool steel that will hold its temper and spare yours.

To find such steel we went to the oldest steel manufacturer in America, a steel maker with an international reputation for making surgical instruments and tools of precision.

And, as you would expect, this manufacturer turned us out a blade to be proud of.

Check up for yourself

Don't take our word for it. Try this new Barbasol blade on your own whiskers. Note that it's just a wee bit heavier than the average razor blade.

But its cutting edges are as true as gospel and it snicks down the toughest beard like a hot knife goes through butter.

Notice, too, the old sturdy three-hole construction. We made it that way because we find it holds truer and steadier, and gives the best shave of anything yet figured out.

If by any chance, spurred on by promises and hope, you have thrown away your old three-post razor, don't worry. Barbasol will furnish you with a real he-man's razor of new, improved two-piece design.

And this new dollar razor with five heavenly blades will set you back a mere 35¢.

We have no apologies to make for this one. Just turn to Barbasol Blades and your shaving troubles will be over for once and all.
