

TIMES STAMP FANS ARE HOT AFTER PRIZES

Many Letters Are Received From Hobbyists; Time Grows Short.

It's developing into a mad scramble, this stamp contest being conducted by The Times. Every mail brings letters from postage hobbyists telling why they like stamp collecting, every one after one of the seventeen prizes offered in the competition.

It requires little effort, and just a few minutes' thought may add some coveted stamps to your collection. Just write a short letter on why you like your stamp hobby. The time is getting short, so do it today.

For the seventeen best letters on the subject, "Why I Am Interested in Collecting Stamps," the following prizes will be given:

First—An International Postage stamp album for foreign and United States stamps. Has space for 22,000 stamps. A splendid prize. Donor, F. Vernon Smith, Inland Hobby Shop.

Second—One package of 1,000 foreign stamps, all different. Donor, Inland Hobby Shop.

Third—Album for United States stamps. Donor, Stewart Book Store, Inc.

Fourth—Package of 300 stamps, foreign and United States, some high values. Donor, Dr. H. A. Washburn.

Fifth—Block of four mint United States "Molly Pitcher," commemorative of 1928. Donor, Glenn I. Pagett, president Indiana Stamp Club.

Sixth—One package of 500 foreign stamps. Donor, F. Vernon Smith.

Seventh—Book, "How to Collect Stamps," by Ralph Kimple. Donor, Stewart Book Store, Inc.

Ten prizes of one pound each of mission mixture (stamps on paper) may run a thousand stamps to the pound. Many are current United States. Good for trading. Donors, Joseph Zix and Floyd D. Shockley.

Letters must not exceed 150 words. All letters must be sent to The Times office, postmarked not later than midnight, Feb. 13, 1933. Address Stamp Editor, Indianapolis Times. Decision of the judges will be final. Winners will be announced Feb. 20 and the two best letters will be published. Give age if under 18.

Mrs. F. D. Leete, Dr. T. Victor Keene, and Mrs. C. Robinson have been named as judges.

Boonville Will Dedicate Lincoln Marker Sunday

BOONVILLE, Ind., Feb. 10.—Southwestern Indiana will join with Boonville on the birthday anniversary of Abraham Lincoln Sunday in dedication of a marker, bearing a likeness of Lincoln not heretofore reproduced as a memorial, commemorating the association of Boonville with Lincoln when the family were residents of Indiana.

Governor Paul V. McNutt will make the principal address.

The marker bears a reproduction in bronze of the earliest known photograph of Lincoln. It is the work of George H. Honig of Evansville, historian and sculptor. Boonville was the town to which Lincoln came in his youth to attend court trials and borrow books from the library of John A. Brackenridge.

It was through Boonville that the Lincoln family came on its trek from its Indiana residence to the new residence in Illinois, after Lincoln had grown from a small boy to manhood in this region.

The marker has been erected in the public square with bronze tablet setting forth the fact of Lincoln's association with this community. At the same ceremony, the community will dedicate another marker giving the likeness of William L. Barker and telling of the important work he has done in verifying the facts regarding the life of the Lincoln family in this region.

The dedication program will open at noon Sunday with a luncheon at the St. Charles hotel in honor of Governor and Mrs. McNutt. Mr. and Mrs. Philip C. Lutz, Judge and Mrs. Roscoe Kiper, and William Fortune of Indianapolis, a native son of Boonville.

At 2 p. m. the Evansville Shrine band will give a half hour concert in the Clarke gymnasium, and the dedicatory program will follow at 2:30. J. M. Kohlmeier, president of the Warrick County Historical society, will preside.

Besides Governor McNutt, Mayor Floyd Nester, Lutz, and Judge Kiper, chairman of the state industrial board, will speak.

TRY LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S SANATIVE WASH

A cleansing, healing, antiseptic and deodorant

When Your Daughter Comes to Womanhood

MOST GIRLS in their teens need a tonic and regulator. Give your daughter Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for the next few months. Teach her how to guard her health at this critical time. When she is a happy, healthy wife and mother she will thank you.

"I felt weak and tired even though I went to bed early. My complexion was sallow. My face was thin and peaked. My nerves were ragged and I was hardly able to go to work. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the paper and wondered if it would help me. After the first bottle I noticed a change. Others saw it too and remarked about it. Now my nervous headaches are gone, my complexion is lots nicer and I can work every day. It is a splendid medicine for girls." — DELMARE CARPENTER, 216 Grant St., Iowa Falls, Iowa.

To be rid of a Cold ABORT

(with lemon juice)

Often a cold that you thought all gone—comes back! That's because the remedy used does not drive the cold symptoms from the system. Try cold abortion and you'll find those stubborn colds broken-up and gone within a few hours. To abort a cold, squeeze two full-sized lemons in a glass of very hot water, to be taken preferably at bedtime. Two hours before, start taking a tablet of Pape's cold compound each hour. After the third tablet take the lemon juice and hot water without sugar and go to bed, well-covered. Sound sleep will follow, and the cold will be aborted by morning. The lemon juice treatment never fails, but you must have the cold compound to clear the head, dry the nasal passages, and allay any fever. Any druggist has Pape's cold compound; it is perfectly safe, and a tablet will check a cold at any time.—Advertisement.

98 out of 100 women report benefit

"My daughter is fifteen. When she came to womanhood she was not very well. A friend of ours told us about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and she took five bottles. It helped her nerves wonderfully. She is stronger in every way. We think that your Vegetable Compound is a wonderful medicine for young girls. I am glad to recommend it to other mothers with ailing daughters."—Mrs. MARY BAIRD, Washington, D. C.

Get a bottle from your druggist today. Excellent for girls and women who are nervous and rundown.
