Civil Liberties Union Urges Ban on U. S. Agents' Lawless Raids, Wire Tapping and Postal Espionage Act Repeal.

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—President-Elect Franklin D. Roosevelt has been asked to restore freedom of speech, press and assembly when he takes office, through new administrative policies or legislation. The request is made in a letter sent by officers of the American Civil Liberties Union.

The following steps which might be taken at once without legislative action are suggested:

Restoration of citizenship rights to 1,500 persons convicted during the war under the espionage act.

Ending state department refusals to issue passports to numerous citizens under a war emergency law still in force.

Discontinuance of lawless raids, arrests and seizures by the department of labor.

Abolition against the labor department's rule against gainful employment by alien students.

Non-interference by the department of justice in political and economic movements of workers.

Better provision in the District of Columbia for orderly reception of organized petitioners with full guarantee of their rights to assemble, speak and petition.

Take Marines From Haiti

Changes in radio commission policy to protect small stations expressing minority viewpoints.

Withdrawal of marines from Haiti.

In addition, the President-elect is urged to sponsor the following legislation:

Repeal of the espionage act under which the post office department may ban from the mail materials its solicitor regards as seditious.

Jury trials to determine whether material banned by the postoffice department is actually obscene.

Prohibition of telephone wire-tapping evidence.

Admission to citizenship of aliens who decline on conscientious grounds to bear arms.

Permit Refugees to Enter

Forbid any form of universal registration of aliens.

Modify deportation procedure as recommended by the Wickersham commission.

Permit bona fide political refugees to enter and remain in this country outside immigration restrictions.

Increase autonomy of reservation Indians.

Establish civil government for the Virgin Islands, Samoa and Guam.

Compensation by the federal government to federal prisoners wrongfully convicted of crimes.

Aid in ending the third degree by making inadmissible in federal courts confessions not made in open court.

FOSSIL PLESIOSAUR IS FOUND IN AUSTRALIA

Complete Specimen Brought to Harvard Museum of Zoology.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Feb. 25.—Fossil bones of a forty-foot plesiosaur, the largest and most complete specimen ever found in Australia, have been brought back to the Harvard museum of comparative zoology by William E. Schell, recently returned from an eighteen-month expedition to that country.

The bones are being examined and prepared for permanent mounting.

During the days when dinosaurs lumbered on land, their near relatives, the plesiosaurs, ruled the seas.

They were swimming monsters with paddles instead of legs, and powerful jaws armed with alligator-like teeth, some of them eight inches long. Their favorite prey was fish.

Plesiosaurs in other parts of the world were remarkable for their extraordinarily long, snaky necks, but the Australian species had shorter, thicker necks and in general were very massively built.

DREAM COMES TRUE!

Slumberland Recipe for Pop Corn Johnnycakes Proves Success.

By United Press

BURWELL, Neb., Feb. 25.—Do dreams come true?

One did for Judge L. B. Fenner, here. He cited as proof a dream he had one night in which he envisioned a new way to make delicious corn-bread, cornmeal mush and pancakes.

Being alone one evening, the judge decided he'd like some popcorn. He popped it in the old-fashioned way, butting it, heavily, in fact, too heavily, he thinks. When he went to bed, he had a vivid dream in which he made from popcorn seed, corn bread, cornmeal mush and pancakes.

On awaking the next morning, he took a pack of popcorn to the miller to be ground up. He then gave it to Mrs. Fenner, with instructions how to use the "popcorn flour" in accordance with his dream. It worked.

The judge and his wife were delighted to find that Johnnycake had a new lightness, cornmeal mush titter and pancakes vastly improved.

Spring's Here and How They're Enjoying It

ACTRESS FILES $125,000 SUIT

Asks Damages for Injuries Incurred in Accident Last November.

Injuries which she alleges will prevent her from appearing on the stage are basis of a suit for $125,000 damages filed by Miss Des Mondae Riemann, 26, of 2815 Carrollton avenue, former vaudeville actress on the R. K. O. circuit.

Miss Riemann seeks this amount in superior court today from the Domestic Linen and Towel Supply Company, an Illinois concern with branch offices in this city.

The complaint, filed Friday by Sidney S. Horn, attorney, alleges the plaintiff was injured in an automobile accident on State Road 52, near Lafayette, Nov. 26, 1932.

Miss Riemann was riding in a car driven by Frank T. Cone, employee of the supply company, the suit alleges. Cone also is named defendant.

Cone's automobile crashed into an automobile driven by Charles Line and went over an embankment, the suit charges.

The highway was covered with ice, the complaint states. Miss Riemann suffered a cracked fifth vertebra, cuts on the face and head and alleges she has been crippled permanently. Her suit avers she was receiving $150 weekly as an actress prior to the accident.

GETS 30-DAY TERM ON COUNT OF DRUNKENNESS

City Man Sentenced After Judge Scans Bulky Police Record.

James Neithorn, 40, of 1717 Kentucky avenue, Friday was sentenced to thirty days in jail and fined $10 and costs on a charge of drunkenness by Paul Rochford, pro tem. municipal court judge.

A police radio squad in charge of Sergeant Arthur Hueber arrested Neithorn Jan. 28, when he was found lying in the driver's seat of his automobile at Eleventh street and Capitol avenue, after the car had struck a truck.

Officers testified they had received a radio call to search for a car bearing the same license number as the automobile was driven from the scene of an accident at Fourteenth and Illinois streets.

Neithorn said the driver of the car fled from the scene after the second accident. The defendant was sentenced after Rochford reviewed court records showing a series of arrests and convictions dating back to 1931, ranging from operation of a blind tiger to drunkenness.

IDLE ACRES ARE LISTED

Vast Amount of Penny Land Is Unused, Is Claim.

By United Press

HARRISBURG, Pa., Feb. 25.—Four million acres, one-seventh of the state area, are "idle" in Pennsylvania, according to Dr. E. A. Ziegler, of the State Forestry Research Institute.

Ziegler recommended this idle land be "put to work" through reforestation and advanced a 10-year self-liquidating plan of making the acres productive.

About one-half of the acreage is abandoned cleared farm land, he estimated in his survey.

KEEP 'WHITE COLLARS'

College Criminals' Misssteps Reflect Their Way of Living.

By United Press

BERKELEY, Cal., Feb. 25.—When the college man goes criminal, he still remains "white collar," according to Dr. Warner Brown, University of California psychologist, who contends criminals' commit crimes consistent to their way of living.

Forgery and larceny, the professor claims, are the two most prevalent crimes of college prisoners because the crimes require less physical exertion.

Education has been affected more seriously by the depression in the United States than in forty foreign countries, reports from abroad indicate.

BANKER CONVICTION SPLITS DEPOSITORS

Many Plead for Suspension of Term; 250 Protest.

Divided sentiment among residents of Spencer, Ind., as to advisability of suspending the year and a day prison sentence imposed on Temple G. Pierson, vice-president of the defunct Spencer National bank, was found by Federal Judge Robert C. Batzell at a hearing late Friday.

Many persons who had lost sums ranging as high as $27,000 by failure of the bank were among those pleading on behalf of the bank official, charged with taking part in one transaction said to have helped result in the bank's failure.

Batzell took the case under advisement until March 4, after receiving a petition signed by 270 residents of the town protesting against suspension of the sentence.

Two other officials of the bank were sentenced by Batzell two weeks ago, Karl I. Nutter, Martinsville, president, receiving a five year sentence, and Frank Wright, Indianapolis, cashier, being sentenced to serve three years in prison.

Slate Dr. W. W. Stewart for Chief Treasury Aid

One of Nation's Best Finance Experts Seen in 'Baby Cabinet.'

BY MAX STERN

Times Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—The name of Dr. Walter W. Stewart was heard here today as a possible undersecretary of the treasury.

Following the announcement of the appointment of William H. Woodin as secretary of treasury, Stewart's name came to the fore as one of the nation's most competent financial experts.

On the theory that President-Elect Franklin D. Roosevelt would fill the "baby cabinet" with the country's best qualified specialists, it was believed that Stewart might be named to succeed Undersecretary Ballantine.

Stewart, formerly of the University of Missouri and Amherst faculties, was chosen as economic adviser to the Bank of England in 1928. In 1931 he was chosen as American member of the special advisory commission for the bank of international settlement at Basle, there to investigate Germany's ability to pay reparations under the Young plan.

He formerly was on the war industries board and director of the division of statistics for the federal reserve board.

DEMAND MUDDY WATER

Flood Flow Enriches Irrigated Land, Say California Farmers.

By United Press

ORLAND, Cal., Feb. 25.—Farmers of Glenn county demand "muddy waters."

And to supply the demand the United States reclamation service is planning to open the gates to allow flood waters of Stony Creek to be used for irrigation purposes.

According to the farmers, the silt carried by the high water, besides carrying rich plant food, aids in making irrigation easier through tightening up the loose ground.

CONFEREES CUT FEDERAL TRADE BOARD'S FUNDS

Action Denying Money to Operate to Be Fought by Liberals.

By Scripps-Howard Newspaper Alliance
WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—Action by senate and house conferees denying the federal trade commission funds with which to operate during the next fiscal year will be fought in the senate by liberals of both parties.

Conferees late Friday reduced the amount allowed the commission from the $1,101,500 allowed by the senate to $780,000, an increase over the original house figure of $280,000 for the purpose of completing the investigation of utilities.

However, without the sum allowed by the senate, the economic division of the commission only fact finding body in the government, will be disbanded.

It will be possible for liberals to block passage of the independent offices appropriation bill by this congress if they choose to do so.

With only five days of the session left and the calendar of the senate choked with pending business, it would be a comparatively simple matter to prevent a final vote on the conference report.

Senate conferees who abandoned the senate's position in favor of more money for the commissions are Senators Henry W. Keyes (Rep., N. H.), Reed Smoot (Rep., Utah), Frederick Hale (Rep., Me.), Carter Glass (Dem., Va.), and Royal Copeland (Dem., N. Y.).

WANT TO LOOK YOUNG?

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound as a substitute for calomel to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Laxative, Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are gentle in their action yet always effective. They help bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 15c, 30c, 60c.—Advertisement.
