

INJURIES FATAL TO HITCH-HIKER, HIT BY TRUCK

Unidentified Victim Eighteenth Auto Fatality of Year Here.

Eighteenth auto traffic fatality of the year in Marion county was recorded today with death in city hospital of an unidentified hitch-hiker who succumbed to injuries received when he was struck by a truck Thursday night at Morris street and Tibbs avenue.

The man, about 32, apparently staggered against a truck driven by Carl Hohlt, 18, of R. R. 7, Box 514, and was knocked to the pavement. He suffered a skull fracture and a broken left arm.

Deputy sheriffs and police said they could find no marks of identification or papers in the man's possession. He wore a blue suit with a light pin stripe, was about 5 feet and 9 inches tall and weighed about 150 pounds.

Hohlt and John Becker, 64, R. R.

7, Box 514, a passenger in the truck, were not arrested.

While driving from Shelbyville to Indianapolis, Charles W. Muir, 48, of 811 East Nineteenth street, wrecked his auto against a signal standard at Southeastern avenue and the Pennsylvania railroad. He was arrested by police on charges of drunkenness and driving a car while drunk. He was uninjured, but the car was demolished, police said.

While the accident was being investigated, Thomas W. Hines of Shelbyville, arrived in another car, and reported that he had pursued Muir from Shelbyville, where Muir is alleged to have struck a horse-drawn wagon, fleeing from the scene.

Shelbyville authorities today were expected to take action to return Muir for trial.

When his auto overturned following collision with another at Grace-land avenue and Hampton drive, Louis Elser, 59, of 5056 Grace-land avenue incurred left knee and elbow injuries. Daniel Morgan, 3552 Carrollton avenue, driver of the other car, was not hurt.

MONEY KEPT IN CITY, DECLARES A. & P. SPEAKER

Chain Store Receipts Are Not Rushed Out of Town, Says Manager.

Keeping customers' money in the town where the goods were purchased and meeting pay rolls and overhead expenses was cited Thursday night by Stanley F. Dole, manager of the central west division of the A. and P. Tea Company, as the means used by his firm to aid in the present banking situation.

"We make an annual purchase of about $25,000,000 in foodstuffs in Indiana, and that exceeds the amount of our sales in the state."

"That should be an answer, as far as the A. & P. is concerned, to persons who say that large organizations are taking money out of the state," Dole said, at a dinner of officials in the Claypool.

Employees outside of Indianapolis were paid in cash from the stores, while city workers had the choice of payment by check or cash. The cash payroll released approximately $31,000, he said.

Checks or cash were offered owners of storerooms rented by the company.

"Furthermore, we arranged to provide any firm with grocery coupons as a means of paying its employees in part, if it was unable to secure cash for the salaries and wages," he explained.

He said the organization's money remained in the localities whence it came, with the exception of a sum transferred from Indianapolis to Terre Haute. This, he said, was to meet a payroll for 300 employees of the Quaker Maid Company, an A. & P. factory that does not have an immediate income.

F. A. Dayton, vice-president in the Indianapolis office, and H. E. Mountain, assistant general superintendent, arranged the dinner.

EVANS' E-Z-BAKE FLOUR FOR ALL PURPOSES

"THIS BREAD HELPS YOU SAVE WITHOUT SKIMPING" said Mrs. Dorothy Ayers Loudon at the Indianapolis Times Cooking School

"EVERYONE, these days, is seeking ways to save. One very sensible way is to use Bond Bread. In the first place, it is wise economy to make sure that everyone in your family gets a daily supply of vitamin-D—the tooth-guarding, bone-building vitamin. And the most delicious, nutritious, and economical way of getting it is in Bond Bread.

"That means extra value at no extra price—and real economy. But my experience is also that you actually save money by using Bond. Just compare a slice of Bond Bread with a slice from some other loaf. Note the difference in texture—how much more substance and nourishment there is in Bond. See how fine and firm it is. No holes and air pockets to pay for—no flaky, wasteful crumbling.

"And then bear this in mind—Bond Bread is so delicious, so home-like in taste, that every morsel of it is eaten. There's no waste.

Bond Bread's vitamin-D content equally potent when toasted or baked

"One great economy in using Bond Bread is in the many delicious bread and bread-crumbs recipes, which make other, more expensive foods go much farther. More nourishing, too. For the vitamin-D in Bond Bread is just as effective after toasting, or when baked or roasted in puddings or meat stuffings, as in a fresh loaf of Bond."

88 delicious new recipes are contained in the Bond Bread Recipe Book. Ask your grocer for a free copy. Or write Mary Stone, Home Service Department, Suite 975, General Baking Company, 420 Lexington Avenue, New York City.
