

U. S. IS HELD NEAR DECISION ON ITS FUTURE

La Guardia Says One Road
May Lead to Dictator;
Other "Levels Upward."

BY FLORA G. ORR
Times Staff Writer
WASHINGTON, March 3.—In just a few months, possibly weeks, we will know which road we will take out of our economic troubles.

This is the prophecy of Representative Fiorello H. La Guardia, independent, fighting Republican from New York.

"We will come out by one of two routes, says La Guardia. "It may be that we will follow the plans of the Mellon-Hoover-Mitchell school, which would level most of us down, so that a smaller property-owning class is on top, whereas the masses exist with lower standards of living and lower wages, and most farmers live as tenant-peasants on the land of which they were once masters."

"It may be, however, that we will emerge on what I may call the leveling-upward plan, with industries operating under such supervision and control that more of the profits go to the workers and fewer to the so-called owners."

"This would mean that the government must have close supervision of its natural resources such as coal, oil, and transportation. "This tremendous economic struggle is now going on. Many things may happen."

"Perhaps a dictator, if the Hoover-Mellon-Mitchell school is victorious. But we may not endure the dictator long. What then? Who can tell?"

"But the day of clipping coupons to realize big annual incomes is just about done. "We may see a capital levy. Big interest rates on loaned money will be no more. Money probably will bring no more than from 1 to 3 per cent in the future."

Movie Shows What Men May Wear 7 Years Hence

Diana Wynyard, English Actress, Plays Role of a Mother
Who Would Not Let Her Son Go to War.

WHAT will America be like in 1940? That is the question asked and answered in "Men Must Fight," new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer screen drama, opening today at Loew's Palace with a cast headed by Diana Wynyard of "Rasputin and the Empress" and "Cavalcade" fame, Lewis Stone, Phillips Holmes, May Robson, and Ruth Selwyn.

It covers developments in America from the end of the last World war to the period of 1940, in an effort to picture what the next war will be like. This effort to peer ahead has given production experts of M-G-M opportunity to create entirely new effects in architecture, in clothes styles and in assuming conditions under which the next war will be fought.

"Men Must Fight" was directed by Edgar Selwyn. The picture is based on the play by Reginald Lawrence and S. K. Lauren, which provoked wide comment in its New York stage presentation earlier this season.

Robert Young, last seen here in "The Kid from Spain," gets a chance to display his dramatic wares in heading the supporting cast, which includes such noted stage and screen talent as Robert Greig, Hedda Hopper, Donald Dillaway, Mary Carlisle, and Luis Alberni.

The picture depicts the drama of a woman who, losing her lover in one war, fights to prevent her son from being forced to take up arms in another war.

One of the thrilling episodes of the drama is an air attack on New York City with the destruction of the Empire State Building, Brookings, and other famous structures.

Short subjects comprising the balance of the program includes a Charley Chase Comedy, "Nature in the Wrong," a James FitzPatrick Traveltalk, "Island Land of the Vikings," a Walt Disney Mickey Mouse Cartoon Comic, "Touchdown Mickey" and the most recent issue of the Hearst Metrophone News.

Other theaters today offer: WLS Barn Dance on the stage at the Lyric; Boswell Sisters on the stage and "King of the Jungle" on the screen at the Indiana; "42nd Street" at Circle; "Topaze" at the Apollo; "Son Daughter" at the Talbot, and "Island of Lost Souls" at the Belmont.

Milk frozen for storage has been introduced successfully in India.
