ALLAN BLOOM TO TALK

Young Folks' Temple League to Hold Meeting Tonight.
First of a series of entertainments planned by the Young Folks' Temple League of the Indianapolis Hebrew Congregation will be held tonight at Tenth and Delaware streets. Allan Bloom will lecture on "Reflections in a Mirror."
Saturday night, March 11, members of the league will be entertained at a house party in the home of Mrs. Louis Traugott, 5327 Washington boulevard.
An illustrated lecture by Dr. Joseph E. Buck will be presented Friday night, March 17. Miss Sophie Rosenthal is chairman of the program committee.

Fishing the Air

Hubbard Hutchison, music critic, will reveal his hidden talent as a pianist when he appears as guest artist of the Music is My Hobby program Friday, at 6:15 p. m., over WFBM and the Columbia network.
Scrappy Lambert and Billy Hillpot, as the Smith Brothers, Trade and Mark, respectively, will be heard in another of their quarter hours of vocal harmonies over WFBM and the Columbia network at 7 p. m. Friday.
"Sweet Rosie O'Grady," a perpetual favorite among songs, will be offered by Sunray Sam during his Friday program over WFBM and the Columbia network at 7:15 p. m.
Dr. Herman Hundenen will give advice on Care of the Eyes, illustrating his suggestions with a dramatized story, during Rodick's Adventures in Health, Friday, at 7:30 p. m., over WLW and an NBC network.
"The Witch of Pine Hill" will be enacted during the program of Thurston, the magician, Friday, at 7:45 p. m., over WLW and an NBC network.
Mary Eastman, Columbia soprano, will offer one of the loveliest of English melodies, "In the Luxembourg Gardens," when she appears as soloist with Andre Koutelets and his orchestra, in the broadcast over WFBM and the Columbia network, Friday, from 8:15 to 8:30 p. m.
George Gershwin, American composer, appears with Edwin C. Hill on the "Inside Story" program over WFBM and the Columbia network Friday, at 8:30 p. m.
Arthur Tracy, Street singer, will sing the "Cuban Love Song" to open his recital over WFBM and the Columbia network Friday, at 9:30 p. m.
A note of the coming spring will be sounded by Nino Martini when he sings the jovous Sciaratti melody, "La Violette," as the opening number of his recital with Howard Barlow and the Columbia Symphony orchestra, Friday, from 10 to 10:30 p. m., over WFBM and the Columbia network.

Jane Freeman, the golden-voiced girl from the west, will offer her version of "Fit as a Fiddle" and Leonard Hayton's orchestra will play the rousing "I Wake Up Smiling," as highlights of melody over WFBM and the Columbia chain at 8 p. m. Friday.
